Thank you.

The Secretary's Call with South African Minister for International Relations and Cooperation Maite Nkoana-Mashabane March 12, 2011, Time TBD

Purpose of Call: To urge the South African government to delay Jean-Bertrand Aristide's return to Haiti. His return amidst the final round of Presidential and Parliamentary elections might lead to chaos and affect the legitimate outcome of the electoral process. This call is also an opportunity to urge South Africa to speak out in support of the African Union position on Cote d'Ivoire and urging Gbagbo to step aside.

Talking Points:

Aristide's Possible Return to Haiti: We are concerned about the possibility of former Haitian President Jean-Bertrand Aristide's return to Haiti before the completion of its Presidential and Parliamentary election.

-- Final second-round voting in what has been a challenging electoral process is scheduled for completion next Sunday, March 20. Final results are expected to be announced on April 16.

-- Aristide's return before this process is complete, and particularly during the next week, runs the very real risk of nullifying a democratic election that will usher in the first democratic transition of power in the country's history – permitting Haitians to elect the leadership they needs. Aristide's return during this period jeopardizes not only the stability of the country, i

Since we confirmed this call, Jeff had a spoke with Adel/Saud. Here is readout of from jeff, and following is callsheet. I think your call just needs to be very brief touch base, reiterating general point and saying jeff will continue to be in touch

From jeff: Spoke in person with Saud and Adel on this issue.

The Secretary's Call Sheet for

Saudi Arabia's Foreign Minister Prince Saud

Purpose of Call: To inform Prince Saud of expected Wikileaks leaks.

1, Wishing King Abdullah Well: First let me convey my best wishes for a rapid and full recovery for His Majesty King Abdullah. Bill and I hope to see him sometime in future (we offered but they declines for Sat). Our thoughts are with him as he r

1, Wikileaks: I deeply regret the likely upcoming Wikileaks disclosure (which could come as early as November 26).

1, This appears to be the result of an illegal act in which a fully cleared intelligence officer stole information and gave it to a website. The person responsible will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. We have taken aggressive measures

1, The U.S. will maintain its longstanding practice of not commenting publicly on classified material alleged to have been leaked. If asked publicly about how the leak of material affects our bilateral relationship, we will reiterate our strong com

1, This is the kind of sensitive information we fear may be released: details of private conversations with your government on Iraq, Iran, and Afghanistan.

1, I seek your help in preventing Wikileaks from undermining our mutual national interests. The President and I are committed to deepening our bilateral relationship.

1, (If raised) If Saudi Arabia Requests the Relevant Cables: I will have our ambassador come in to brief you on specifics.

Background: King Abdullah arrived in New York November 22 for treatment of what the Saudi government has described as a slipped disk and adjacent blood clot.

Sure, happy to talk at your convenience. For background, I've attached the plenary memo proposal that we're sending up to President Clinton for review and approval. As with years past, we would welcome the Secretary's involvement wherever she prefers to participate, from the Opening plenary to the Closing and everywhere in between.

Let me know if you want to include Bob or others on my side.

Thanks,

Dear Secretary Clinton,

We have attended the Clinton Global Initiative now for a few years and feel it is an important gathering of some of the finest and most important people thinking about International Aid. We do, however, feel that women's issues have not gotten the attention or the placement that they deserve. We are hoping you might consider helping us "rock the boat" a little bit this year.

Just when you think the level of political discourse could not sink any lower Michelle Bachman and her cohorts take it to a new extreme. I have to admit I am speechless. And then she has the audacity to issue a statement saying her remarks are being distorted!! I did try to email her to express my outrage but apparently the House system has a filter which only allows communication from constituents. Strange way to run a democracy. Guess I will have to resort to snail mail.

I did send an email to Senator McCain thanking him for his statement. I told him I remembered he did a similar thing for David Ifshin when David and President Clinton were being attacked for David's stance as a student on the Viet Nam war. Obviously I don't agree with him on most things but he really does rise to the occasion at times like these.

Take care and please give my best to Huma.

Kenya-based Suraj Sudhakar, Director of the East Africa Fellows Program, who was himself a Fellow, is the best contact. His email is [redacted] and his mobile number is [redacted]. And it may be important to note from Security standpoint that Acumen conducts an extremely rigorous background check on all Fellows applicants. Suraj is discreet and very capable. I know that he travels across the region, so it would be good to contact him ASAP so he's not out of country when you're there.

Let me know if I can assist in any way. Thanks so much,

Dear Hillary,

Not sure if Kenya is on your itinerary, but the Acumen East African Fellows program is incredible -- would love to tell you about it. Definitely worth meeting them if you will be there, because this is a very significant investment in building human capital, and networks that cross the economic, tribal, cultural and other divides that hobble inclusive development. It was a big gamble to organize this, but the first cohort has completed their year with amazing results.

I'm actually thinking of going on this trip -- taking over your travel shoes as you hang them up for awhile! Just wish I could have traveled with you while you've been at State, but look forward to times when your life is not so completely officially orchestrated!

Dear Jan,

I am writing to invite you to join a small group of Acumen Partners for a trip to Kenya and Uganda the week of January 13th, 2013. We will spend time with the Acumen East Africa team, visit up to five Acumen investees, and also have the chance to see the work of the amazing East Africa Fellows. In addition, for those interested there is an option to extend this trip with a safari through our partner Elevate Destinations.

All details on the trip can be found here, and we will take RSVPs on a first-come first-serve basis.

East Africa has been the fastest-growing region for Acumen over the past five years, with a portfolio that's grown to $18.5 million in 13 companies across our sectors. We've seen particular growth in agriculture and renewable energy access, which will be the primary focus of this trip, and we are learning so much about how these issues directly impact the lives and well-being of our customers.

For any questions about the trip please reply to this note or contact Megan Beck at or .

We hope you can join us!

Warm regards,

Batool Hassan

Hope your travels have been less brutal than they look. I know it has been a while since we spoke of this, but I still think it would be good for you to have an informal setting to talk to some influential new York city writers and opinionators. So, I would propose to host a smallish dinner when your calendar permits in the coming weeks with the following people who I know well enough to trust some level of discretion for an off the record dinner that would allow you to provide an account of some of the highs and even some lows of policy making on Libya, china, Iran, the Arab spring and the Israel Palestinian issue. They are: Eleanor Randolph and carol Giacomo from

Hillary-

It was great to see you for a bit at Thanksgiving and hope we can find some time soon to catch up.

I am writing to ask if you'd be interested in speaking at the Truman National Security Project's annual conference from May 4th to the 6th? It is an incredible organization and network of our nation's young foreign and domestic policy leaders (I am a little biased as a Truman fellow). This group is filled with smart, pragmatic, and idealistic young leaders from across the nation and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to be a part of it. I think you will really enjoy getting to spend a little time with some of them.

I've attached a letter with more info from Rachel Kleinfeld, the CEO and founder, who I think you've met a few times before.

Hope your trip is going well and know that you make all of us so proud.

Love and best, Zach

On Eric Goosby memo, haven't seen. Will track down.

We have discussed the idea of taking business delegations to Cambodia, Korea and Vietnam. As you know, Jake wants to take them on many trips this year. Assume you endorse.

We don't have locked dates for Dip Center. Aiming for April and we will start identifying and showing you. Will be spread out over a couple of months.

Already offered letter for [redacted]'s birthday party. Will see if they want video too.

B6

On [redacted], she has begged us too but I don't think you can go if there's even a 1 percent chance that [redacted] will be there. As you know, they are pushing hard for you to see him and have hosted him several times in DC. We should discuss.

For UAE, as you know, back in Jan we offered to do it this spring. They cannot do it before the summer and at this point, we have no natural trip to add it to. My thought was to do it if we ever ended up in Egypt so it's been on the backburner and last I left it with Yousef, it would be post-september. I'll work on it.

Also, closed loop with Melanne after your bilat with Jahjaga that you will do her women's conf in the fall. and told Melanne to confirm the Mongolia women's conf in conjunction with community of Agreed. Hosting a meeting here makes sense, make sure DC sees your continued association with the issue. But that doesn't preclude an event in either Sweden or Norway, both member countries, both recent financial contributors. For no good reason, I'd vote for Norway since Sweden just hosted the latest gathering, but I think we already have the GHI speech in Oslo.

Subject: From Leymah Gbowee and Abby Disney

Dear Secretary Clinton,

We have attended the Clinton Global Initiative now for a few years and feel it is an important gathering of some of the finest and most important people thinking about International Aid. We do, however, feel that women's issues have not gotten the attention or the placement that they deserve. We are hoping you might consider helping us "rock the boat" a little bit this year.

I know that the staff at CGI is hoping to do a plenary with you this year on Design and Urbanization and while this may be worthwhile, we are wondering if you would consider joining with us to make a counter proposal for a different plenary that would be much more meaningful.

There is a great deal of energy at CGi about women, but generally this energy is confined to issue areas that are, for want of a better phrase, "safe." What is more, we have found there to be a distinct lack of support for any and all discussion of Women's Rights specifically. It would be amazing if we could bring a plenary to this year's conference with you and Leymah and some other high profile people (Zainab Salbi I am sure would be glad to do it, as would Ashley Judd and/or Ben Affleck, either of whom would be great) to talk about why none of this talk will get us anywhere unless we talk about Women's

Dear Cheryl,

Two quick things beside a thank you for your work in the world:

[1] John Doar's former colleagues are preparing a 2-day event for his 90th birthday, Oct. 27-28, at Justice and Sidwell Friends. Please let Hillary know in case she'd like to be involved somehow. I know she admires Doar from her work on the Nixon impeachment committee.

[2] Do you know the proper channel at the White House to suggest Doar for the Medal of Freedom? (One of my former co-authors, Bill Russell, received it this year.) If so, I'd appreciate any tip on the process. Plenty of people working on the 90th would gather info if necessary.

Best,
Taylor Branch

Subject: Re: FW: Undeliverable: Hello on my way to Burma

Hillary is on the right track -- to see if the Burmese government is serious about reforms. The question is who is the real decision maker. The civilian government is on a long leash held by the "retired" military leaders. Than Shwe will "allow" Thein Sein's initiatives so long as it suits him.

"Face" is extremely important to the Burmese. They do not like to be "lectured" to, even in private.

Any measures that will make the daily lives of the people better will be welcomed by all sides. The ordinary citizens need and want relief before political freedom or democracy.

The ethnic minorities conflicts are historic and may remain a continuing issue with ebbs and flows.

My fondest regards to Hillary. Please let me know if she needs anything else.

Thanks,

RELEASE IN PART
B5

From: Abbaszadeh, Nima
Sent: Saturday, January 14, 2012 06:44 AM
To: Abedin, Huma; Hanley, Monica R
Cc: S_SpecialAssistants; Wells, Alice G; Coleman, Claire L
Subject: CALL SHEET: Kazakh FM Kazykhanov

S should already have this one, but it is attached and below just in case.

The Secretary's Call Sheet for

Kazakhstan's Foreign Minister Yerzan Kazykhanov [kah-zee-KHAWH-nuff]

Purpose of Call: To support Kazakhstan's intent to hold open, transparent, and fair parliamentary elections January 15, and to welcome the decision to allow the national election to take place in Zhanaozen [zhah-NOW-zen], which remains under a state of emergency following December unrest.

B5

Background:

Elections: In accordance with Kazakhstan's Constitution, President Nazarbayev signed a decree November 15 to dissolve the lower house of parliament (Mazhilis) and to schedule elections for January 15. Nazarbayev announced in November that Kazakhstan needs a multiparty Mazhilis and a renewed government to accomplish wider modernization. This will be the first Mazhilis elections held under Kazakhstan's revised election code, which mandates representation for a second party if there are not at least two parties that exceed the required 7 percent threshold. The elections are expected to usher in Kazakhstan's first multiparty parliament.

Zhanaozen: At least 16 people died and over 100 were hospitalized due to unrest that began as authorities were preparing for a December 16 independence day celebration on the central square of the oil town of Zhanaozen. Both the government of Kazakhstan and an independent NGO eyewitness maintain that a group of protestors (possibly organized by overseas opposition groups), separate from the oil workers who have been on strike, started the violence. Additional violence claiming at least one life broke out on December 17 when protestors blocked several freight and passenger trains in the nearby village of Shetpe. President Nazarbayev declared a State of Emergency for Zhanaozen and established a commission headed by Deputy Prime Minister Shukeyev to investigate the incident and make recommendations to address underlying socio-economic factors. Although the situation has stabilized, the government extended the State of Emergency to January 31 and – consistent with the constitutional provision regarding regions where there is unrest – canceled the parliamentary (though not local) elections for that region, affecting 50,000 voters (out of 7 million or so). After A/S Blake and Amb. Fairfax urged reconsideration, President Nazarbayev announced January 9 that elections would take place nationwide on January 15, including Zhanaozen, a decision that was confirmed by the Constitutional Court January 11.

NDI: Ambassador Idrissov flagged in his January 11 discussion with Acting A/S Pyatt the Kazakh government's concerns about the activities of NDI and IRI, which he said were becoming "too active" in their engagement on social networking and "Arab Spring" type activities. He added that these concerns had been raised with Embassy Astana by the MFA; on January 11, Kazakh officials alleged to our DCM that the purpose of many U.S. policies in Kazakhstan, including support of organizations like NDI, is to foment revolution against the government. Pyatt told Idrissov that we welcomed the Kazakh government's commitment to transparency in the elections (and the investigation of the Zhanaozen events), but did not see anything irregular in the role/actions of NDI/IRI and urged them not to believe everything they read on the internet (local press propaganda often targets U.S. NGO activities in Central Asia). The Kazakh government may also be reacting to the activities of a former NDI local employee who has been active in opposition efforts but no longer has any connection with NDI. During a January 12 meeting with Kazykhanov, Ambassador Fairfax strongly refuted claims that NDI was engaged in improper or subversive activities. Kazykhanov expressed GOKZ support for NDI's work in Kazakhstan, and admitted that the Kazakh security services (and not the media) had been the real source of the accusations made against NDI to the MFA. Kazykhanov agreed to have Kazakh Ambassador Idrissov meet with NDI Director Wollack to discuss further any concerns. Kazakhstan has suffered several small bombings (including its first car bomb ever) in the past year that – in combination with unrest in the oil patch, as well as events in the Arab world and Russia – has made it particularly skittish about stability. President Nazarbayev said January 11 that he thinks countries that have experienced such "coups" have gone "backwards" 10-15 years economically. (Note: IRI left Kazakhstan last spring.)

Hi Huma and Lona--

I hope this finds you well and sorry to bother you. After I had my citizenship naturalization oath last week, I received an incredibly nice note from the Secretary. I know that she is busier than ever, but please let me know if a drop-by may be possible in the coming weeks.

B6

Please let me if either of the above may work. Thanks so much and warm wishes from a brand new and very proud American!

Basically a philanthropic organization started in 1986 for women and run by women. Gives millions of dollars each year in grants to NYC (must be within the 5 boroughs) based organizations to help lower income women and girls – specifically reproductive rights, anti violence and economic security. Current president (as we know!) is Diana Taylor. Their mission statement -- The New York Women's Foundation is a voice for women and a force for change. We are a cross-cultural alliance of women catalyzing partnerships and leveraging human and financial capital to achieve sustained economic security and justice for women and girls. With fierce determination, we mobilize hearts, minds and resources to create an equitable and just future for women, families and communities in New York City.

Hillary-

It was great to see you for a bit at Thanksgiving and hope we can find some time soon to catch up.

I am writing to ask if you'd be interested in speaking at the Truman National Security Project's annual conference from May 4th to the 6th? It is an incredible organization and network of our nation's young foreign and domestic policy leaders (I am a little biased as a Truman fellow). This group is filled with smart, pragmatic, and idealistic young leaders from across the nation and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to be a part of it. I think you will really enjoy getting to spend a little time with some of them.

I've attached a letter with more info from Rachel Kleinfeld, the CEO and founder, who I think you've met a few times before.

Hope your trip is going well and know that you make all of us so proud.

Love and best, Zach

"Hillary and I are deeply saddened by the passing of our good friend and colleague Howard Paster. We will remember Howard for his passion and candor, and his dedication to public service. As my Assistant for Congressional Relations, Howard made a tremendous difference in ensuring that my administration was able to carry out some of our most crucial initiatives.

As Chief Operating Officer for Hillary in 2008, Howard worked tirelessly and gave generously of his talents. We were thrilled to see him elected President of the Little League Foundation in 2002. We are thankful for Howard's friendship and we will miss him. Our thoughts and prayers are with Gail and their family."
