Thank you.

I'm sending you an article from my email account that is a pretty accurate account of the event. I think the source, who knows they can lose their job was a Phoenix cop assisting with the motorcade.

Have a great 4th!

Lol I'm not worried about you ☺

I'll deal with opa with [REDACTED] next week. Doj is likely overwhelmed so in hoping it wasn't intentional.

I know it wasn't you guys bc you have great judgment. Nothing good would come from that. Her staff should have avoided that scenario.

The bu will be fine but obviously disappointed on how this is happening. Unfortunately she's taking heat all over the place and I feel bad for her. I know she didn't want this on her plate or for this to happen.

I will definitely call you next week so we can catch up. ☺

Good Morning.

Sorry for not responding last night.

Please do not worry about me making any statements. I know better ;)

I am worried about our OPA reaching out to DOJ's, as it was DOJ opa who threw us under the bus.

I will explain the details later, but you know, we our not the final word as to who comes in or out of the AG's space. Her staff dropped the ball in a big way, and we were the easy scapegoats! I'm pretty pissed about the way things went down and how they were handled afterwards, needless to say I will be making some changes as to how much interaction we will have with this staff going forward.

I'm truly sorry to be bothering you with this nonsense on your time off, but my biggest fear with this event is whether or not this will affect the ongoing investigation or the Director's position. Obviously it has affected the AG's position but I hope there's no further fallout.

Hey got your message. [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] too. I would say stay away unless we hear something from a higher up. I don't see the need for any comment. Opa may reach out to doj so I hope there is no comment from them as well in regards to protection piece.

Thanks for call and keeping me in loop.
