Hi Anne - Hope this note finds you well. We have some senior executives from Textron coming to DC March 1-3 to talk with various agencies involved in Iran sanctions and policy. Their focus is a better understanding of the commercial aircraft provisions in Treasury's regulations but they would also appreciate some insight into the trajectory of overall Iran policy. I'm hoping you might have some time to meet with them when they're here that week. Any time you could spare would be much appreciated. Thanks for considering. Best, Dave
