PROFFESIONAL OBJECTIVES

A Project for Africa

The Department of State has outlined the following specific objectives for the project:

- Examine the decentralized and self-regulating nature of U.S. federalism and how it promotes transparency and ethics in government;
- Explore the role of citizens, traditional and new media, academia, and civil society in fostering transparency and accountability in government;

- Highlight the mechanisms that enable citizens to foster good governance, ethical standards, and accountability at the local, state, and federal levels; and
- Analyze grassroots actions that have resulted in honest, transparent, and fair practices in government.
