

INSIGHT #2

- Voters are more interested in supporting leaders for acting on COVID than punishing them -- especially swing voters. Despite vocal criticism from President Trump, President-elect Joe Biden was rewarded, not punished, for "staying in his basement" for two months.

(Watch what's happening to Governor Gavin Newsom because he didn't follow procedures he recommended for others.)