

Can students receive an alternative method to participating in the lessons?

Can students opt-out?

- Families can contact building administration to request an alternative method for students to receive the lesson due to mental health concerns.
- Students cannot opt-out of the lessons.
- Lessons are there to support students and help teachers to identify students who are in need of social-emotional support.