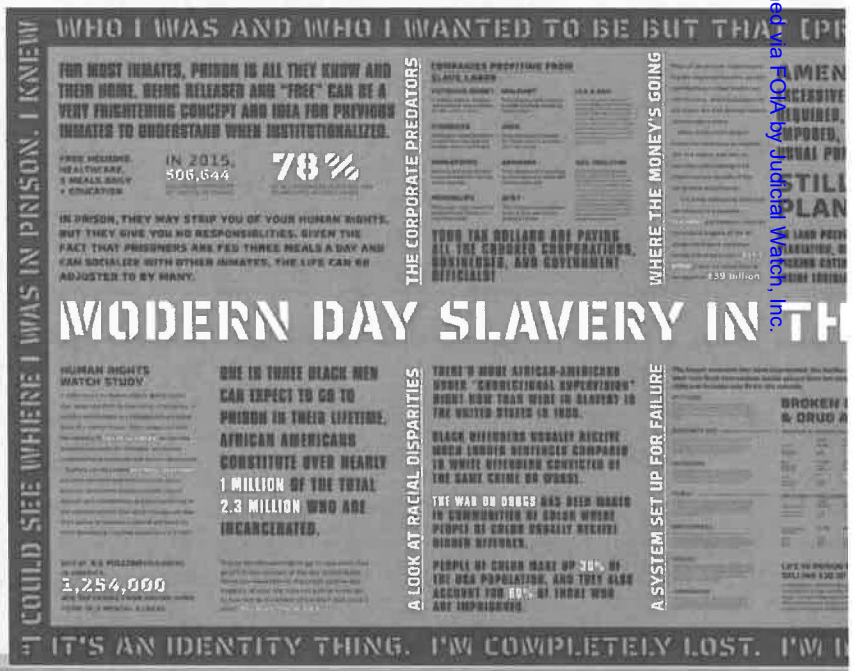
By the Numbers

Blacks are less likely than whites to:

- Have a college education
- Receive recommended medical screening tests
- Receive bank approval for a housing mortgage
- Own their own homes
- Receive a job promotion

Blacks are more likely than whites to

- Live below the poverty line
- Be victims of homicide (6:1)
- Be incarcerated (8:1)



Obtained via FOIA by Judicial Watch, Inc.