RadDad @RadDadNE · 1h ...

What we need to do is start following these cops home. They have addresses and families.

Katie Walker - Poet @KLawsonP... · 36m ...

Yeah not a solution at all. The fact that you have the mindset to mention the families is concerning. Sorry - but some kid doesn't need to be harassed or in fear due to actions beyond them. And having the intent to go to someone's home because they have "families" is fucked.

RadDad @RadDadNE ...

Replying to @KLawsonPoet @mjj4114 and 5 others

Wow that was long. I don't really care about your opinion. Cops who trample on people's rights deserve to pay a price

What we need to do is start following these cops home. They have addresses and families.

Katie Walker - Poet @KLawson... · 36m ...

Yeah not a solution at all. The fact that you have the mindset to mention the families is concerning. Sorry - but some kid doesn't need to be harassed or in fear due to actions beyond them. And having the intent to go to someone's home because they have "families" is fucked.

Wow that was long. I don't really care about your opinion. Cops who trample on people's rights deserve to pay a price

What we need to do is start following these cops home. They have addresses and families.

Katie Walker - Poet @KLawsonP... · 36m ...

Yeah not a solution at all. The fact that you have the mindset to mention the families is concerning. Sorry - but some kid doesn't need to be harassed or in fear due to actions beyond them. And having the intent to go to someone's home because they have "families" is fucked.

This is ridiculous. Tells them to go to City Hall but then arrested her. So in other words, we just need to all shut the fuck up and let them do as they want. 🤔

RadDad @RadDadNE · 1h ...

What we need to do is start following these cops home. They have addresses and families.

Katie Walker - Poet @KLawsonP... · 36m ...

Yeah not a solution at all. The fact that you have the mindset to mention the families is concerning. Sorry - but some kid doesn't need to be harassed or in fear due to actions beyond them. And having the intent to go to someone's home because they have "families" is fucked.

The account in question (@dummbviewer, UserID:1462782416049819658) was created on November 22, 2021 and has tweeted only 74 times, all of them from an iPhone.

The username dummbviewer is not reused on Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, Telegram, Gab, or Parler. None of the 74 tweets reference any personal details such as a location, friends or family names, or other personal social media accounts. In the absence of other pivot points and short of requesting the email address and/or IP logs from Twitter, it will likely not be possible to ID this profile.

This account does appear to be local, given it has tweeted almost exclusively about local issues surrounding Covid-19 vaccine and mask mandates as well as the mayor. The account further states that they know "upwards of 50" Boston Public School employees which, if true, could indicate that they might work for or be otherwise affiliated with BPS in some way. This account has made vague references to participating in protests in front of Mayor Wu's residence, and has interacted with other accounts on Twitter known to have participated in residential protesting events, but has not claimed to do so directly.

This account has not tweeted any specific calls to or threats of violence as of publication.

Hi Sgt. Boyle,

I saw this tweet yesterday while scrolling through BPHC's twitter. I've already informed City Hall comms, who suggested we flag it for you. Do you have any suggestions? Is there anything we should do? Based on the tweet alone, it does appear someone is watching Dr. Ojikutu drop her daughter off every morning.

Best,

Jon

Hi Rebecca,

Sure thing! This is a climate change related protest. A group will gather to put up posters advocating to "Defund climate chaos" the group will also be advertising and recruiting participants for another scheduled event protesting climate change on April 22nd. Historically, these types of events have attracted approximately 10-30 people. There have not been any threats of violence or plans for disruptive activity observed in open sources related to this event as of publication.

ADAPT - Handicapped

PROTESTERS

ORGANIZERS - Coordination

MEDICAL TEAM/LEGAL ADVISORS - Remember they are just protester.

TACTICAL ADVISORS – Planning and Tactics

SCOUT/INTEL SPECIALIST – Provide Information to protest organizers.

ACTION ELVES – Assist Protesters

MESSENGERS – Pass on Information

POLICE LIAISON – Stall police action under the guise of assisting.

PROTESTER TACTICS

INCENDIARY DEVICES

SLEEPING DRAGON

Direct Action Philosophy

•Protesters are more organized.

•Different groups form coalitions.

•Goal to overburden law enforcement.

•Disrupt or terminate an event.

•Increase public and media attention.

•Obstruct transportation and infrastructure.

•Committed to carrying out civil disobedience and violent activities.

•Create appearance of police misconduct.

DYNAMICS OF UNRULY CROWDS

- Anonymity
- Numbers
- Contagion
- Imitation
- Rumor
- Social Media Issues
Facebook Twitter etc.

KTLA

PROTESTER TACTICS

THE ARREST

- Supervisor is team leader.
- Gives clear and audible warnings.
- Additional officer in rear of group to ensure warning is heard.
- Standardized warnings.
- Establish standards on number of arrests per officer.
- Proper use of flex cuffs.
- Always walk prisoner backwards.
- Carry protesters with a 3 man or 4 man carry.

They attend lectures on how to defeat our tactics.

They will lock arms or flex cuff themselves together.

They may conceal razors to defeat the flex cuffs or bobby pins to release the locking mechanism so a thorough search is an absolute.

REMEMBER

- Arrests must be controlled and professional.
- We are ALWAYS being videotaped.
- We decide when, where, and how an arrest occurs.
- We can't let our officers (or ourselves) react emotionally.
- Emotional reactions lead to lawsuits and unnecessary injury.

Cut Teams will be activated as a reactionary force. A strong police presence will act as a deterrent to most protesters. Once it has been discovered that an individual or group has interfered with the race course a Cut Team will be activated. It may be by use of sleeping dragons, bike locks, chains, 55 gallon drums etc.

No person (s) should be cut out of a device as an individual act, we utilize team tactics in these situations.

A Boston Police Supervisor will direct the police officers at the scene to secure and cuff any individual cut from a device.

No individuals will be cut out of a device until they are told they are under arrest.

You should not cut any person out of a device unless you have been told they are under arrest.

THE ARREST

Cut Teams

Take your time cutting. As long as they are off the route and the race can continue it does not matter how long it takes.

Once the device is compromised the individual will be cuffed and brought to a transport wagon by an Officer.

Be wary of sleeping dragons with excessive duck tape. Under the tape we have seen chicken wire over rags soaked in gas, lighter fluid, or other flammable liquids. Cutting blade hits the chicken wire which causes a spark which catches the rags on fire.

We have also been advised of cases of smearing both animal and human feces on the sleeping dragon under the tape, once the blade cuts the device feces is propelled by the blade. Proper PPE should be utilized when cutting these devices.

Lt Eblan,

Great talking with you today, if you could meet with our SOC team before the Marathon that would be great. Some dates you asked for April 4,7, 12,13,14,15 that would be great for your team to come down to Moon Island and talk about the legal protection protestors have and our role with BPD.

Subject: ***GSOC Social Media Alert (NBA Playoffs)***

Alert Type: NBA Playoffs

Description: The NBA GSOC has identified several individuals associated with the animal rights activist group "Direct Action Everywhere" (DxE) whose members have disrupted NBA playoff games involving the Minnesota Timberwolves. The activists are targeting the Timberwolves due to team owner Glen Taylor. Taylor also owns Rembrandt Enterprises, a factory egg farm in Iowa, where activists claim chickens have been killed in large numbers as a result of bird flu and that hundreds of employees there have been laid off since the chickens died. Activists at NBA games have run onto the court and glued themselves to the floor, and have also chained themselves to the hoop while wearing shirts to protest Glen Taylor. In order to capitalize on the attention, DxE has marketed its activists' actions by naming them "Glue Girl" and "Chain Girl" on social media. Neither protest was advertised on social media until after the incidents occurred.

Of note, Zoe Rosenberg, aka "Chain Girl," was released from custody on April 17, 2022, following her protest action on April 16. Meanwhile, Alicia Santurio, aka "Glue Girl," who orchestrated the April 13, 2022, protest, responded to another user who asked if she would be present at the April 19, 2022, Timberwolves game with a "Woman shrugging" emoji. Santurio's reply could intentionally be cryptic and that she is deliberately not sharing information about a potential protest action, however, this could not be confirmed. No planned protest activity for the Minnesota Timberwolves vs. Memphis Grizzlies game on April 19, 2022, has currently been identified. However, as noted above, past protest actions were not advertised on social media ahead of time, likely in an effort to avoid detection. Please see below for more information and a list of activists associated with Direct Action Everywhere and affiliated organizations.

Hi all,

The account in question (@dumbyViewer, UserID:1462782416049819658) was created on November 22, 2021 and has tweeted only 74 times, all of them from an iPhone.

The username dumbyViewer is not reused on Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, Telegram, Gab, or Parler. None of the 74 tweets reference any personal details such as a location, friends or family names, or other personal social media accounts. In the absence of other pivot points and short of requesting the email address and/or IP logs from Twitter, it will likely not be possible to ID this profile.

This account does appear to be local, given it has tweeted almost exclusively about local issues surrounding Covid-19 vaccine and mask mandates as well as the mayor. The account further states that they know "upwards of 50" Boston Public School employees which, if true, could indicate that they might work for or be otherwise affiliated with BPS in some way. This account has made vague references to participating in protests in front of Mayor Wu's residence, and has interacted with other accounts on Twitter known to have participated in residential protesting events, but has not claimed to do so directly.

This account has not tweeted any specific calls to or threats of violence as of publication.

Hi Sgt. Boyle,

I saw this tweet yesterday while scrolling through BPHC's twitter. I've already informed City Hall comms, who suggested we flag it for you. Do you have any suggestions? Is there anything we should do? Based on the tweet alone, it does appear someone is watching Dr. Ojikutu drop her daughter off every morning.

Best,

Jon

Subject: ***GSOC Social Media Alert (Minnesota Timberwolves) ***

Alert Type: Minnesota Timberwolves

Description: On April 21, 2022, activists associated with the animal rights organization Direct Action Everywhere (DxE) attempted a court intrusion during game 3 of the playoff series between the Memphis Grizzlies and Minnesota Timberwolves. The attempted court intrusion occurred during the 4th quarter of the game near the Grizzlies bench. Arena security prevented the court intrusion due to Johnson's odd behavior attracting attention. Johnson wore a hat, jacket, and glasses, in a possible attempt to disguise himself. Under the jacket Johnson wore an NBA Referee uniform. The ticket Johnson used for the game was purchased by a woman named Ashley Riddle. It is believed that Riddle did not attend the game herself. The GSOC investigation into Ashley Riddle identified her as an activist associated with a group called Animal Rights Coalition that is local to Minneapolis, MN.

This is the third court intrusion attempt by DxE activists that targeted Minnesota Timberwolves games. The Timberwolves are being targeted due to team owner Glen Taylor. Taylor also owns Rembrandt Enterprises, a factory egg farm in Iowa, where activists claim chickens have been killed in large numbers as a result of bird flu and that hundreds of employees were laid off since the chickens died. On April 13, 2022, DxE activist Alicia Santurio committed a court intrusion and glued herself to the court. On April 16, 2002, DxE activist Zoe Rosenberg chained herself to a hoop during a Timberwolves playoff game. These actions were marketed on social media by DxE with Santurio being dubbed "Glue Girl" and Rosenberg, being called "Chain Girl."

Activists associated with DxE and other animal rights organizations may continue to attempt to disrupt Timberwolves playoff games. While no other playoff series has been targeted by the activists, it cannot entirely be ruled out. Due to the recent failed court intrusion attempt activists may attempt to alter their tactics. This could include but is not limited to, an attempt to have one activist distract arena security, possibly with a court intrusion attempt, followed by another activist seated elsewhere attempting a court intrusion from a different location.

Direct Action Everywhere" (DxE) is an international grassroots organization of animal rights activists founded in 2013 in San Francisco, California, by lawyer Wayne Hsiung. DxE focuses on animals, their lives, and collective liberation as a social justice issue. DxE animal liberations are often directed at farms that supply food products to large US national retailers. DxE supporters also participate in various in-store demonstrations. Liberation attempts/protests may include occupation events with up to 150 participants (based on past demonstrations at farms), the release of animals from cages or constraints, and occupiers providing "nutrition and care" to the animals. All actions are video recorded for use in future propaganda. While members of the group have been arrested for past protest actions, the GSOC notes that the group does not appear to have a history of violence. Below and attached is a full list of potential additional activists associated with DxE, other animal rights organizations, or individuals who have potentially supported DxE activities on social media. Also attached is the previous GSOC Social Media Alert email chain about the group. The NBA GSOC will continue to monitor for additional information.

Update #3: The NBA GSOC conducted a open source search on the username @SashaMonik that identified a Linktree and Twitter accounts associated with Direct Action Everywhere (DxE) activist Sasha Zemmel. @SashaMonik joined Twitter in August of 2016, has tweeted 96 times, has 384 followers, and follows 379 accounts. The user mainly follows animal activist including members of the Direct Action Everywhere (DxE) group. @SashaMonik generally tweets about demonstrations held by DxE, and animal rights issues. On the Twitter profile there is a link to a petition from Direct Action Everywhere claiming Shriners Circus abuses animals. The petition currently has 1,208 signatures and the group is asking for 1,500 signatures.

The Linktree account included links to a Tik Tok and Only Fans accounts. The Tik Tok account posts one video of Sasha asking users to "not exploit animals," and the remaining of her posts are videos of her pole dancing. On the OnlyFans account her name is Sasha Fuego, and last seen April 18 on the account. The account can only viewed with a subscription. OnlyFans is an internet content subscription service where people can earn money from users who subscribe to their content. No additional identifiable information was found on the social media accounts. An open-source search for "just_sash" yielded no results. The open source search for the username "sashafuego" identified a Reddit account. The Reddit account listed her birthdate as September 25, and mainly posts explicit content that links to Sasha's OnlyFans account. Additionally, Alicia Santurio aka "Glue Girl" expressed her support for Zemmel's actions on April 23, 2022 in a Twitter post, where she described Zemmel as her "friend." The NBA GSOC will continue to monitor for additional information.

Update #2: On April 23, 2022, an activist associated with the animal rights organization Direct Action Everywhere (DxE) attempted a court intrusion during game 4 of the playoff series between the Memphis Grizzlies and Minnesota Timberwolves. The attempted court intrusion occurred with 10:44 remaining in the 3rd quarter. Play was stopped after a fan sitting along the sideline at Target Center ran onto the court. DxE released a press release immediately following the incident, claiming responsibility and identifying the activist as Sasha Zemmel, who is now known on social media as "Ref Girl". DxE members began retweeting the DxE announcement, expressing pride over Zemmel's actions. Similar to the incident from game 3, Zemmel wore an NBA referee uniform. The GSOC will continue to monitor this group as the series unfolds.

Subject: ***GSOC Social Media Alert (Minnesota Timberwolves) ***

Alert Type: Minnesota Timberwolves

Description: On April 21, 2022, activists associated with the animal rights organization Direct Action Everywhere (DxE) attempted a court intrusion during game 3 of the playoff series between the Memphis Grizzlies and Minnesota Timberwolves. The attempted court intrusion occurred during the 4th quarter of the game near the Grizzlies bench. Arena security prevented the court intrusion due to Johnson's odd behavior attracting attention. Johnson wore a hat, jacket, and glasses, in a possible attempt to disguise himself. Under the jacket Johnson wore an NBA Referee uniform. The ticket Johnson used for the game was purchased by a woman named Ashley Riddle. It is believed that Riddle did not attend the game herself. The GSOC investigation into Ashley Riddle identified her as an activist associated with a group called Animal Rights Coalition that is local to Minneapolis, MN.

This is the third court intrusion attempt by DxE activists that targeted Minnesota Timberwolves games. The Timberwolves are being targeted due to team owner Glen Taylor. Taylor also owns Rembrandt Enterprises, a factory egg farm in Iowa, where activists claim chickens have been killed in large numbers as a result of bird flu and that hundreds of employees were laid off since the chickens died. On April 13, 2022, DxE activist Alicia Santurio committed a court intrusion and glued herself to the court. On April 16, 2022, DxE activist Zoe Rosenberg chained herself to a hoop during a Timberwolves playoff game. These actions were marketed on social media by DxE with Santurio being dubbed "Glue Girl" and Rosenberg, being called "Chain Girl."

Activists associated with DxE and other animal rights organizations may continue to attempt to disrupt Timberwolves playoff games. While no other playoff series has been targeted by the activists, it cannot entirely be ruled out. Due to the recent failed court intrusion attempt activists may attempt to alter their tactics. This could include but is not limited to, an attempt to have one activist distract arena security, possibly with a court intrusion attempt, followed by another activist seated elsewhere attempting a court intrusion from a different location.

Direct Action Everywhere" (DxE) is an international grassroots organization of animal rights activists founded in 2013 in San Francisco, California, by lawyer Wayne Hsiung. DxE focuses on animals, their lives, and collective liberation as a social justice issue. DxE animal liberations are often directed at farms that supply food products to large US national retailers. DxE supporters also participate in various in-store demonstrations. Liberation attempts/protests may include occupation events with up to 150 participants (based on past demonstrations at farms), the release of animals from cages or constraints, and occupiers providing "nutrition and care" to the animals. All actions are video recorded for use in future propaganda. While members of the group have been arrested for past protest actions, the GSOC notes that the group does not appear to have a history of violence. Below and attached is a full list of potential additional activists associated with DxE, other animal rights organizations, or individuals who have potentially supported DxE activities on social media. Also attached is the previous GSOC Social Media Alert email chain about the group. The NBA GSOC will continue to monitor for additional information.

Protester Dressed as NBA Ref Runs on Court, Attempts to “Eject” and “Fine” Timberwolves Owner

Third disruption by animal rights activists this month follows exposé of chickens being “roasted alive” at team owner Glen Taylor’s factory farm

APRIL 23, MINNEAPOLIS, MN - The activist campaign exposing taxpayer-funded animal cruelty took a turn for the literal Saturday night, as a demonstrator posing as a referee attempted to have Timberwolves majority team owner Glen Taylor removed from his own team's home arena.

Sasha Zimmel of St. Louis, MO attempted to shed an outer jacket as she entered the court, to reveal an outfit matching the three officials present. She attempted to whistle to stop play as she approached Taylor at his courtside seat, to issue a "technical foul and ejection," along with a "fine" against Forbes' richest billionaire in Minnesota.

Zimmel was removed shortly after entering court. It's unknown whether she will face charges; follow the live press release at DxE.io/PressRelease for the latest.

Saturday's action continues a campaign led by Direct Action Everywhere \(DxE\), the grassroots animal rights network that released an investigation this month, exposing animal cruelty at Rembrandt Enterprises, Taylor's factory egg farm in Iowa. DxE followed up the exposé with now three disruptive protests during Timberwolves games, including victories in their April 12 play-in game and Game 1 Saturday in Memphis.

Zimmel's makeshift referee jersey had the jersey number 5.3 displayed on the back, in honor of the 5.3 million chickens killed at Rembrandt following an outbreak of "highly pathogenic avian influenza" (HPAI). DxE's video shows birds on-site which survived "ventilation shutdown plus" (VSD+), a mass killing method whereby ventilation openings in the industrial sheds full of birds are closed, and some combination of heat, steam and/or carbon dioxide gas are introduced, eventually killing the animals via suffocation. Dozens of surviving birds were found still in their cages, running loose in the sheds, even buried alive.

A similar protest to Zimmel's was also attempted Thursday night, but protester Matt Johnson was stopped and aggressively shoved to the ground by Target Center security and Minneapolis police officers. Johnson was arrested, banned from the facility for a year, and faces a disorderly conduct charge. Johnson says he was treated with excessive force as a peaceful demonstrator, and is considering his legal options. Police also confiscated an SD card from a camera Johnson was wearing when he was apprehended. Johnson previously led an investigation of his own, exposing the use of VSD on pigs. He subsequently faced a felony prosecution which was dismissed one day before he was set to face trial.

VSD+ has been widely criticized as inhumane by animal protection organizations, while veterinary and legal experts say Rembrandt's conduct is not just cruel but violates state law. Neither Rembrandt nor the Timberwolves have commented on the investigation.

Disease outbreaks such as HPAI, as well as deadly diseases in humans, are an inevitable result of intensive confinement of animals, says Dr. Mike Martin, a professor in University of California San Francisco's Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics. "We are risking our health when we cram chickens together in commercial poultry facilities like Rembrandt. As we're seeing, close confinement promotes the spread of viral diseases among the animal population, which increases the risk of a mutation that allows a deadly virus to spread to humans. It has happened before, and it is almost certain to happen again, given the omnipresence of commercial animal agricultural facilities."

Yet despite the animal welfare and public health concerns, this business model is not just permitted but actively funded by the federal government. Taylor received $11.3 million in USDA subsidies when Rembrandt had an HPAI outbreak in 2015, and it is set to receive millions more for this one (as authorized by The Animal Health Protection Act, and reiterated by USDA public releases in January and in March).

The group is requesting that Taylor donate all HPAI-related subsidies he received to public health charities and animal sanctuaries as a "fine," and commit to not taking any such funds in relation to the recent outbreak and mass killing. Saying the NBA is no place for abusive factory farmers, DxE is also asking that the sale of the team -- set to transfer majority ownership to baseball hall-of-famer Alex Rodriguez and businessman Marc Lore in 2023 -- be expedited, with Taylor immediately stepping down from day-to-day operations.

"It's a particularly striking instance of a familiar US political theme," Zimmel said. "Those at the top invest in speculative, destructive business models, empowered with the knowledge that they can privatize gains and socialize much of the inevitable losses. It has to stop."

DxE activists have been subjected to FBI raids and felony prosecutions for their investigative work. Subject: ***GSOC Social Media Alert (NBA Playoffs)***

Alert Type: NBA Playoffs

Description: The NBA GSOC has identified several individuals associated with the animal rights activist group "Direct Action Everywhere" (DxE) whose members have disrupted NBA playoff games involving the Minnesota Timberwolves. The activists are targeting the Timberwolves due to team owner Glen Taylor. Taylor also owns Rembrandt Enterprises, a factory egg farm in Iowa, where activists claim chickens have been killed in large numbers as a result of bird flu and that hundreds of employees there have been laid off since the chickens died. Activists at NBA games have run onto the court and glued themselves to the floor, and have also chained themselves to the hoop while wearing shirts to protest Glen Taylor. In order to capitalize on the attention, DxE has marketed its activists' actions by naming them "Glue Girl" and "Chain Girl" on social media. Neither protest was advertised on social media until after the incidents occurred.

Of note, Zoe Rosenberg, aka "Chain Girl," was released from custody on April 17, 2022, following her protest action on April 16. Meanwhile, Alicia Santurio, aka "Glue Girl," who orchestrated the April 13, 2022, protest, responded to another user who asked if she would be present at the April 19, 2022, Timberwolves game with a "Woman shrugging" emoji. Santurio's reply could intentionally be cryptic and that she is deliberately not sharing information about a potential protest action, however, this could not be confirmed. No planned protest activity for the Minnesota Timberwolves vs. Memphis Grizzlies game on April 19, 2022, has currently been identified. However, as noted above, past protest actions were not advertised on social media ahead of time, likely in an effort to avoid detection. Please see below for more information and a list of activists associated with Direct Action Everywhere and affiliated organizations.

Protester Arraigned for Assault on Officer

BOSTON, April 13, 2022— A Dorchester woman was arraigned today for interrupting a Boston City Hall press conference with a megaphone, District Attorney Kevin Hayden said.

CATHERINE VITALE, 31, was arraigned today in the Central Division of Boston Municipal Court on charges of disturbing the police and assault and battery on a police officer. Judge Richard Sinnott released her on personal recognizance.

Vitale and a second individual arrived at Boston City Hall at approximately 12:25 p.m. on April 12 and began shouting into megaphones in an attempt to interrupt a press conference regarding Boston Marathon safety measures. Officers escorted both outside of the building, and they continued to shout through her megaphone at City Hall Plaza.

A crowd gathered around the two, and an employee of an area business approached police about the disruption to employees and customers. The officers instructed both individuals to stop. Vitale instead attempted to force her way back into City Hall by pushing an officer. Officers warned that she would be arrested if she continued, but the defendant continued to push the officer.

"The right to protest and to dissent are central to our democracy and will be protected. Physical assaults, however, are not a valid form of protest," Hayden said.

Vitale returns to court on May 13. She was represented by Steven Topazio for arraignment only.

All charged individuals are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Protester Arraigned for Assault on Officer

BOSTON, April 13, 2022— A Dorchester woman was arraigned today for interrupting a Boston City Hall press conference with a megaphone, District Attorney Kevin Hayden said.

CATHERINE VITALE, 31, was arraigned today in the Central Division of Boston Municipal Court on charges of disturbing the police and assault and battery on a police officer. Judge Richard Sinnott released her on personal recognizance.

Vitale and a second individual arrived at Boston City Hall at approximately 12:25 p.m. on April 12 and began shouting into megaphones in an attempt to interrupt a press conference regarding Boston Marathon safety measures. Officers escorted both outside of the building, and they continued to shout through her megaphone at City Hall Plaza.

A crowd gathered around the two, and an employee of an area business approached police about the disruption to employees and customers. The officers instructed both individuals to stop. Vitale instead attempted to force her way back into City Hall by pushing an officer. Officers warned that she would be arrested if she continued, but the defendant continued to push the officer.

“The right to protest and to dissent are central to our democracy and will be protected. Physical assaults, however, are not a valid form of protest,” Hayden said.

Vitale returns to court on May 13. She was represented by Steven Topazio for arraignment only.

All charged individuals are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Neil,
Good afternoon. Here are BPD responses to the follow up request from Docket #0312.
Thank you.
Jen

- How many citations has the Boston Police Department issued since January 2022 and in 2021 for violating the following municipal ordinances:
  - The City of Boston municipal laws concerning excessive noise;

From January 2021 to present there were four licensed premises that received in total five citations for violating the noise ordinance:

El Dimante, 02/26/2022
Lolita Seaport. 06/26/2021 and 07/22/2021
White Bull, 07/02/2021
Beacon Hill Pub, 12/18/2021

- The City of Boston municipal laws concerning disturbing the peace;

BPD has been unable to identify any cases of a violation of municipal ordinance for disturbing the peace. There have been, however, instances where individuals have been arrested and charged with the Massachusetts criminal statute of disturbing the peace. This may have been the only offense the person was charged with, or one of many.

Since the start of 2021 91 individuals have been arrested in 94 arrests across 86 incidents (3 ppl were arrested twice) where one of the charges was "Disturbing the Peace".

- The City of Boston municipal laws concerning blocking of streets and sidewalks?

BPD has been unable to identify any cases of a violation of municipal ordinance for blocking streets and sidewalks for the 2021- present time period.

- How many citations has the Boston Police Department issued since January 2022 and in 2021 for violating the following municipal ordinances:
  - The City of Boston municipal laws concerning excessive noise;

From January 2021 to present there were four licensed premises that received in total five citations for violating the noise ordinance:

El Dimante, 02/26/2022
Lolita Seaport. 06/26/2021 and 07/22/2021
White Bull, 07/02/2021
Beacon Hill Pub, 12/18/2021

- The City of Boston municipal laws concerning disturbing the peace;

BPD has been unable to identify any cases of a violation of municipal ordinance for disturbing the peace. There have been, however, instances where individuals have been arrested and charged with the Massachusetts criminal statute of disturbing the peace. This may have been the only offense the person was charged with, or one of many.

Since the start of 2021 91 individuals have been arrested in 94 arrests across 86 incidents (3 ppl were arrested twice) where one of the charges was "Disturbing the Peace".

- The City of Boston municipal laws concerning blocking of streets and sidewalks?

BPD has been unable to identify any cases of a violation of municipal ordinance for blocking streets and sidewalks for the 2021- present time period.

May 2022 ONLINE TRAINING SCHEDULE

Crowd Operations Dynamix, Inc. is pleased to announce its online training schedule for May 2022.

Please use the pre-registration form to initiate the vetting and registration process for each training. Note: all trainings start at 1000 hrs Eastern Time unless otherwise indicated.

May 17, 2022: Crowd Incident Management for Police Commanders: For command and supervisory-level personnel, this five-hour, online training offers insights and considerations for those responsible for planning a response to protest crowd events. The six modules presented will cover historic and current events, legal issues, planning, crowd dynamics, protester tactics, and crowd management and control tactics for police. This training will provide commanders and supervisors with knowledge needed to better inform their decision-making while planning for such events. At all times, adherence to constitutional rights and the principles of fair and equitable policing are stressed. (5 hrs, $175 pp)

May 24, 2022: Protester Devices: Homemade devices used by protesters to lock themselves together, or to other objects, have become more and more prevalent in America. From simple PVC tubing to concrete-encased cast iron devices, these implements, also known as "sleeping dragons", present a confounding impediment to law enforcement efforts at removing protesters from an area.

Crowd Operations Dynamix, Inc. invites you to our two-hour, online "sleeping dragon" familiarization training. This two-hour event will familiarize you with the uses, the types, and the construction of these devices. Please note, the training is for familiarization purposes only and does not teach how to actually defeat these devices. (2 hours, $150 per person)

Pre-Registration Form

Email Pre- registration form to: robert@crowdoperationsdynamix.com.

Once we verify your law enforcement employment status, you will receive instructions on how to complete the registration process.

For more information on this class visit our website at www.crowdoperationsdynamix.com or contact us at 508-507-8574.

May 2022 ONLINE TRAINING SCHEDULE

Crowd Operations Dynamix, Inc. is pleased to announce its online training schedule for May 2022.

Please use the pre-registration form to initiate the vetting and registration process for each training. Note: all trainings start at 1000 hrs Eastern Time unless otherwise indicated.

May 17, 2022: Crowd Incident Management for Police Commanders: For command and supervisory-level personnel, this five-hour, online training offers insights and considerations for those responsible for planning a response to protest crowd events. The six modules presented will cover historic and current events, legal issues, planning, crowd dynamics, protester tactics, and crowd management and control tactics for police. This training will provide commanders and supervisors with knowledge needed to better inform their decision-making while planning for such events. At all times, adherence to constitutional rights and the principles of fair and equitable policing are stressed. (5 hrs, $175 pp)

May 24, 2022: Protester Devices: Homemade devices used by protesters to lock themselves together, or to other objects, have become more and more prevalent in America. From simple PVC tubing to concrete-encased cast iron devices, these implements, also known as "sleeping dragons", present a confounding impediment to law enforcement efforts at removing protesters from an area.

Crowd Operations Dynamix, Inc. invites you to our two-hour, online "sleeping dragon" familiarization training. This two-hour event will familiarize you with the uses, the types, and the construction of these devices. Please note, the training is for familiarization purposes only and does not teach how to actually defeat these devices. (2 hours, $150 per person)

Pre-Registration Form

Email Pre- registration form to: robert@crowdoperationsdynamix.com.

Once we verify your law enforcement employment status, you will receive instructions on how to complete the registration process.

For more information on this class visit our website at www.crowdoperationsdynamix.com or contact us at 508-507-8574.

NARRATIVE

On 4/12/2022 Sgt Cheevers, Officers Kwong & Leary, assigned to Boston City Hall, were providing security for the building. At approximately 12:25 PM, Officers observed 2 females (Catherine Vitale & [REDACTED] known to Officers for causing previous disturbances in City Hall and the Boston City Council chambers arrive in the building. Soon after their arrival both females took out bull horns/ mega phones/ Loudspeakers and began screaming in an attempt to disrupt a press conference on the City Hall Mezzanine discussing the safety protocols for the upcoming Boston Marathon. The press conference was attended by the Mayor of Boston, Officials from the BPD, BFD, MBTA, Transit Police, Boston EMS, and Boston Athletic Association. Both females were escorted from the building where they continued to scream through their megaphones at the entrance of City Hall. During their attempt to disrupt the press conference their sound continued to echo throughout City Hall and City Hall Plaza causing passersby to stop on the Plaza and a crowd began to gather. Both females were chanting obscenities (Fuck your Mandate) through their devices. This continued for 15 to 20 minutes until Officers were approached by an upset female employee [REDACTED] who was complaining their employees and customers were unable to work due to the noise. Officers advised the 2 women to discontinue the use of bull horns due to disturbing employees working in local buildings. Both women then began to scream at the entrance doors of City Hall. The suspect, Catherine Vitale, attempted to reenter City Hall and was stopped by Officer Kwong. She continued to lean against and push Officer Kwong while blowing a whistle. Sgt Cheevers told Ms Vitale to stop or she was subject to arrest. Ms Vitale continued her attempt to force her way into the building and she was placed under arrest for Assault & Battery on a Police Officer and Disturbing the Peace. Her megaphone was seized as evidence, logged into the property management control log (Book #29, Page #35) at District 1.

NARRATIVE

At about 7:45 AM on Monday April 25, 2022 Officer Pieroway in the E626D Unit, while on a fixed post at 17 Augustus Ave, did arrest Shannon Llewellyn DOB [REDACTED] for willful violation of City of Boston Ordinance 16-63, Regarding Targeted Residential Picketing.

At about 7:30 AM on the above date, Officer Pieroway in the E626D, while on a fix post at 17 Augustus Ave was speaking with a known neighbor, observed 1 unidentified male and 2 unidentified females as well as the Suspect, later identified as Shannon Llewellyn DOB [REDACTED] walk towards the corner of Augustus Ave and Crandell St. The Suspect was holding 2 signs a cooking pot with a cooking utensil. Officer Pieroway then contacted the Patrol Supervisor E901 Sgt. O'Brien of the protestors.

Sgt. O'Brien then arrived on scene and handed the protestors a copy of the City of Boston Ordinance 16-63 Regarding Targeted Residential Picketing. Officer Pieroway at this time activated his body worn camera.

Sgt. O'Brien then explained the ordinance to the protestors and informed them they would be subject to arrest if they did not leave. One of the unidentified females stated she was a member of the press and was documenting the incident. The second female along with unidentified male then stated they could not get arrested and stated they were leaving. The Suspect then continued to argue with officers stating this was unconstitutional. Sgt. O'Brien then stated to the Suspect that she had five minutes to leave or she would be arrested for willful violating City of Boston Ordinance 16-63, Regarding Targeted Residential Picketing pursuant to Mass General Law Chapter 272 Section 59. The Suspect was then given ample time to leave but she refused and began to banging the cooking utensil against the pot in a disturbing manner. Sgt. O'Brien then directed Officer Pieroway and Barboza to place the Suspect under arrest due to the Suspect knowing and willfully violating City of Boston Ordinance 16-63, Regarding Targeted Residential Picketing.

The Suspect then put both of her arms out as Officer Pieroway and Officer Barboza (ET55) placed her into custody. Officer Barboza transported the Suspect to Area ES while Officer Pieroway followed behind. The Suspect was then transported without further incident.

Further investigation revealed the Suspect was at West Roxbury District Court on April 15, 2022 for a Clerks hearing and was advised by Clerk Magistrate Sean Murphy of the City Ordinance and MGL 272 59 (specifically of the time of 9:00AM to 9:00PM restriction in the ordinance). Also present at the hearing was Sgt. Brian Waters representing the City of Boston. It should be noted that this is the second time the Suspect has been charged with this offense.

Shannon Llewellyn is to be charged willful violation of City of Boston Ordinance 16-63, Regarding Targeted Residential Picketing in West Roxbury District Court.

Protester Arraigned for Assault on Officer

BOSTON, April 13, 2022— A Dorchester woman was arraigned today for interrupting a Boston City Hall press conference with a megaphone, District Attorney Kevin Hayden said.

CATHERINE VITALE, 31, was arraigned today in the Central Division of Boston Municipal Court on charges of disturbing the police and assault and battery on a police officer. Judge Richard Sinnott released her on personal recognizance.

Vitale and a second individual arrived at Boston City Hall at approximately 12:25 p.m. on April 12 and began shouting into megaphones in an attempt to interrupt a press conference regarding Boston Marathon safety measures. Officers escorted both outside of the building, and they continued to shout through her megaphone at City Hall Plaza.

A crowd gathered around the two, and an employee of an area business approached police about the disruption to employees and customers. The officers instructed both individuals to stop. Vitale instead attempted to force her way back into City Hall by pushing an officer. Officers warned that she would be arrested if she continued, but the defendant continued to push the officer.

"The right to protest and to dissent are central to our democracy and will be protected. Physical assaults, however, are not a valid form of protest," Hayden said.

Vitale returns to court on May 13. She was represented by Steven Topazio for arraignment only.

All charged individuals are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

BWC of Dowling the 15th of January of 2022 at Regina Pizzeria responding to a radio call at 1330 Boyleston Street for protestors. On scene Officer Aragaones is speaking to Sergeant Cottone (wearing a cap, overalls and sweatshirt) she is stating that the police are not supposed to enforce the mandate you see this is the water bottle I purchased. Aragones requests to see vaccination papers which she refuses and states that they will sit there and another female also states we can sit here. Dowling states to call a patrol supervisor and one can hear Cottone stating to Officer Aragones that he is violating their rights. She continues by stating that they are violating their rights and enforcing the vaccine mandate and why are they doing that. She also asks for Aragones name and badge number.

The manager is speaking to the officers and the groups calls out "Nazis" and a black female protester states that it is a shame black people discriminating and turning your back on your people. Segregation started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice. We just working doing our job. The states so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis. One says Your mayor is not my mayor. Cottone returns to the table and states to the officers, "if you not going by your oath you shouldn't being doing this job, you understand. Just working. It's a cop out and you on the work side copping out to violating our rights. Cottone stating you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights on people and you guys are the bad guys. A female states that Martin Luther King stated: "that it is our moral obligation to not obey unjust law."

Officer Dowling inquires if they had purchased the water there. The water holding by Cottone. This is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don't want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years! 14 years of what asks Dowling. You know that. Time to make a choice boys. You don't have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Don't walk away from me, you don't have to do this.

Mr. Johnson feels that the group is harassing him. He trying to run a business. He has explained that he is following the rules. The group did not order food. A person keeps calling stating that my friends are being harassed by the police. Also said give them the pizza. Only a bottle of water was purchased.

Sgt. Wright arrives and speaks to Mr. Johnson and explains the mandate. Mandate that they have to show the vaccination card they cannot be served. He speaks to the group that if they did not show the vaccination card they will have to leave. Cottone states that she purchased an item and enjoying her beverage and he will leave her alone. Cottone speaks of Mayor WU stated that the police would not be involved regarding the mandate and asks Wright what is he doing there. You gonna leave me alone and I am gonna enjoy my beverage.

Wrights asks what time does the pizzeria close at 8:30 p.m., and he and the officers sit down. Mr. Johnson discusses the purchase of the water with Officer Aragones. Cottone hears the conversation and states, I put it in the tip jar you little liar!" You lying! Johnson and Cotton argue over the the purchase. Cottone states that I put it in the tip jar Johnson states that she did not put money in the tip jar. He speaks to Wright and states that he does not this the cameras are working but that he would prefer that they leave. Cottone demands that they view the cameras. Wright explains that the tip jar is for tips. Cottone raises her voice stating "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She tried to pay and the the employee would not take it.

Sergeant Wright states that they will take a report and she states "no you will not take a report!" Go look at the footage! You a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying. Are you willing to give your name and identification? No, I am not! Sergeant Wright asks Johnson if he has access to the video and he states yes. At this point, Cottone yells out fucking liar!

Johnson speaks to Wright in private and states that there is no video but that he did not want to say that in front of them. Wright heads back to the group and Dowling asks Wright "you know who that is right?" The groups states that these mandates are not laws. The officers asks if anyone wants to identify themselves for the report. Everyone states no. A female states that her father was a police officer and shot nine times in the head put his life on the line he would be disgusted Tommy Jauvers.

The group was left alone and they ate the pizzas at the tables. The group kept talking about how COttone is a hero and this is how she is being treated. Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. He will have a discussion with the North end pizzeria regarding the manager being a little liar and she will be suing. They know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter. If security video is missing. One states that its oon video will send it to to Sgt, Wright and they will do his job for him. He does not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people or help the homeless prefers to be with them. He is choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert and there is no crime. If there is no crime here you are wasting taxpayers' money that is in the rules and regulations. Your mere presence as a police state standing there watching us eat is intimidating. 5 women and a child is intimidating. You should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu has confused you and you this is part of your job.

Mayor Wu said the police were not enforcing this. The video ends and it is 37:00 minutes inside of pizzeria Regina.

Officer Jordan Aragones

Manager tell Officer Aragones that the wants them to leave and won't leave. Why are you, police have been called here, what is your purpose. PO manager says you wont show your vaccination cards and you won't show it. Cottone states ya we wont and PO states that it is a private establishment and that they have to show that and if not they need to leave. Cottone states no you need to leave. Listen, police are not enforcing this. You better watch what you doing you are walking a thin line right now. They argue back and forth Cottone stating that they are violating their rights. "I can still talk clearer than you can without a mask. Why are you doing that . Vaccine mandate police not to be involved. Dowling advises him who the female arguing with him is a police officer. He advises Sgt. Rodriguez that there is a group and one of them is an officer and they won't show their vaccination cards. Kenneth my boss is coming. On the phone someone is calling his phone. Nazi Germany. Brother you discriminating against other black people. Segregation started on this holiday. Cottone stepped away from the table. Pick a side. .The guy is trying to run a restaurant. You can eat but you have to do what the mayor says not us. COttone returns and tells the officers that they on the wrong side and if they can't follow oath they shouldn't be on the job. You being naught boys. Highsteppers look you trample on the rights of the people. Did you buy something here, yes this bottle of water. She will enjoy the product and if they don't she will sue. You gotta be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years. 14 years what? You know exactly. Time to make a choice boys. You don't have to do this Anthony. Anthony I have known you on this job. This is not how policing is done. We don't protect mandate we protect rights. Don't walk away from me. You know my class Fernandez just resigned. They took my badge a week and half ago. Bribed by money, corrupted by money. This is wrong guys, you don't have to do this. I am looking out for you. Comments about I don't feel safe. You guys are not being aggressive.

Will not show vaccine cards and can only take out and cannot sit down. Aragones meets Sgt. Wright at the door. People from protest and officer out suspended won't leave, want to get food but will not show card. They did not order food but water. Wrights speaks to Johnson regarding the policy. If do not present vaccination cards cannot be served. Confirmed by Wright. Aragones gathering information from Johnson. Wright will wait and allow them to enjoy water. Asked employees what time closed. At 830 pm. Water was given to Cottone and no money in tip jar. Employee thought she was going to pay. Dispute goes on and inquired if on film. "You are a lair!" He did not see it the employee and no one purchased anything and make racial remarks and threats. Don't play with me. Free coffee and put money in tip jar. Go back and look at footage. You are a corrupt cop and you are falsily testifying, I will see you, will you give us your information no I will not.

Sgt. Wright asks if there is footage yes and follow Johnson to the back. Will atke a report he said she said. Cottone states you have access to the video. No bullshit, your bullshit. Inofmrtaion requested and will n ot comply. Hey, hey baldie! He cannot testify listen to me listen to me he wasn't here he can't file a report he cant get his testimony you got it he is not a credible witness thened. You hear me Sgt Wright. Knock it off you a courput cop. You entitle to your opinions no its uyour actions. You choosing to be corrupt. Gove me you badge number. Wright gives his information. Shame on you. Disgusting youre a disgrace. You want to be part of this corrupt system. Nauhty boy. That man can't tesify to something he didn't see. No nod your head. The employee thought that he handed over the water. Christian Mendes. Gathering information for the report.

Sir:

I, Sergeant Lucia Palomares, respectfully submit the following investigative report regarding IAD Complaint No. IAD2022-0015.

Summary of Complaint:

*“The following narrative was taken from Boston Police Report I# 222003233:
At about 3:20 PM on Saturday 01/15/2022 Officers Aragonés and Dowling in the D201D responded to a radio call for a protest at 1330 Boylston Street (Regina Pizzeria) Boston, Ma. The following is summary of the events that took place not a word for word account:*

Upon arrival officers met with the store manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that a group of females came into the store and sat down and wanted to order food. Mr. Johnson stated he asked the group for proof of their Covid-19 vaccine due to the new city mandate. The group then refused to show Mr. Johnson any proof of vaccination. Mr. Johnson stated he then called the police to remove the group due to them not following the new mandate.

*Officers then spoke to the group that consisted of Ms. Shana Cottone and 5 unknown females who refused to identify themselves. The group stated that they were not going to show proof of vaccination and that they bought one bottle of water. Officers spoke to Mr. Johnson again who stated that one of the workers handed Ms. Cottone a bottle of water assuming she would go pay for it at the register. He stated that she did not pay for the water at the register and there is no record of her purchase of the water. Officers attempted to obtain video surveillance to which Mr. Johnson stated the cameras were not working. Ms. Cottone stated that she put $2 in the tip jar for the bottled water. Officers asked the group to leave the restaurant several times and refused. Officers then requested a patrol supervisor to the scene. D909 (Wright) arrived on scene and spoke with the group. The group again refused to leave and officers stated that they were remaining on scene until the group left the premises. An unknown male then dropped two pizzas off to the group at their table and then left the restaurant. The interaction between Sergeant Cottone and Officer Dowling started when he asked the group if they had ordered food. She asked for his name and badge number. Mr. Johnson (manager, black male, 50-60-yrs-old) explained to the officers that he was trying to get them to leave and that he was trying to run a business. While the manager was speaking to the officers and the group yelled out "Nazis" and a black female protester stated "it was a shame black people discriminate and you turning your back on your people. Segregation was started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice." The officers stated in response, "we just working doing our job." The group stated "so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis."

One of the females stated to the officers "your mayor is not my mayor." Cottone returned to the table and stated to the officers, "if you not going by your oath you shouldn't be doing this job, you understand. Just working. It's a cop-out and you on the wrong side copping out to violating our rights." Cottone repeatedly stated to the officers "you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights of people and you guys are the bad guys." The officers listened and one of the females stated "Martin Luther King said that it is our moral obligation to not obey an unjust law."

Officer Dowling inquired if they had purchased the water there, as Sergeant Cottone was sat at the table drinking her water. She then stated "this is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don't want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years!" 14 years of what asked Dowling and she stated "you know that." Cottone continued speaking and stated, "time to make a choice boys." "You don't have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Cottone demanded that the officers view the cameras. Mr. Johnson speaks to Sergeant Wright and stated that the cameras were not working but that he would prefer that they (group) leave. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She further stated that she tried to pay but the employee would not take it.

Sergeant Wright stated to her that they would take a report and take both statements. She stated "no you will not take a report! Go look at the footage! You a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying!" Sergeant Wright asked her if she was willing to give her name and identification and she stated "no, I am not!" Sergeant Wright asked Mr. Johnson if he has access to the video and he stated yes. At this point, a female yelled out "fucking liar!"

Dowling asked Wright “you know who that is right?” and he stated “yes.” The group states to the officers that these mandates were not laws. The officers inquired if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the report. Everyone stated no. One of the females stated that her father was a police officer and was shot nine times in the head putting his life on the line and Tommy Gamperts would be disgusted.

The group was left alone and they ate their pizzas. The group kept talking about how Cottone was a hero and how she was being treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. She further stated that she would have a discussion with the North end pizzeria regarding the manager being a little liar and that she would be suing. She stated, “they know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter.” One of the females stated that it’s on live video. Sergeant Cottone stated that they will send it to Sergeant Wright and do his job for him. She continued confronting him and stated he does not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people, or help the homeless, he preferred to be with them. He was choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert and that there was no crime. Cottone further stated to Sergeant Wright that he was wasting taxpayers’ money and that was in the rules and regulations. She addressed his presence as a “police state” standing there watching them eat which was intimidating because there were five women and a child it was intimidating. Sergeant Wright was calm and did not state anything to her. She continued berating him and stated “you should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mr. Johnson stated that Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone stated that she had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. She decided to place the money inside the tip jar and Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. Sergeant Cottone also tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated. She was also very confrontational with Sergeant Wright at the scene. Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation and he stated he felt disrespected and that Sergeant Cottone made the situation personal. The investigators also asked about the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Sergeant Wright stated that he used prudence to assess the situation because it was the first day of the mandate. He used his discretion and let the group finish eating and let the group leave on their own. He felt that if they had been arrested for trespass it would have turned out worst in the end.

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:09 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Christopher Keaton. Sergeant Palomares inquired what he recalled of the incident on the 15th of January 2022. Officer Keaton stated that he had worked a day tour on overtime. The duty supervisor requested that he head over to Regina Pizzeria to relieve the day shift officers (Aragonés/Dowling). Upon responding to the location, he recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone. Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number. He also observed that the group was eating a pizza. He stated that he felt very uncomfortable with the comments she was making regarding Sergeant Wright's family and comments directed at the manager (Mr. Johnson).

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:21 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Thomas Antonino. Sergeant Palomares inquired if he had responded to Regina Pizzeria on January 15th of 2022. He stated that he had responded to relieve the day units. On scene were Sergeant Wright and Officers Aragonés and Dowling. The officers left the scene to write the police report and Sergeant Wright stayed at the scene. The group consisted of five females who were very rude to the manager (Mr. Johnson). Sergeant Cottone asked Officer Antonino for his name and badge number for the lawsuit. Sergeant Cottone was the speaker of the group and directed derogatory comments to the manager and Sergeant Wright. Once the group was done eating they left the pizzeria.

On Thursday, 10th of March 2022 at 10:00 a.m., Sergeant Shana Cottone had a scheduled interview with Sergeant Lucia Palomares. Sergeant Cottone exercised her 5th amendment right and signed a waiver. She was legally represented by her own personal attorney William Gans along with Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation.

Sergeant Palomares has made attempts to contact Kenneth Johnson for an interview regarding this investigation. At this time, Mr. Johnson has not contacted Sergeant Palomares regarding an interview. A certified contact letter has been sent to his residence.

As part of this investigation, the investigator viewed all of the officer's body-worn camera videos. The officers (Aragonés and Dowling) had responded to a 911 call that was initiated by Kenneth Johnson, the manager of the pizzeria. The officers speak to Mr. Johnson and he stated the group was not being cooperative regarding the mandate and would not wear masks or leave. The officers explained the mandate to the group. If they do not want to comply with the mandate they must leave. That day was the first day of the vaccination mandate policy initiated by Mayor Wu. The group was at the pizzeria protesting the mandate. The group was being led by Sergeant Cottone who was also recognized by Officer Dowling at the scene. She also recognized Officer Dowling after she obtained their names and badges for her lawsuit. In the video, she called him "Anthony." She further stated to Officer Dowling that he was being a naughty boy, don't do this, this is not how policing is done, don't walk away from me." The group was confrontational and disrespectful. Sergeant Cottone never identified herself to the officers or Sergeant Wright. The entire time she was confrontational and questioned and challenged the officer's authority and presence at the pizzeria.

When the dispute over the water was brought to the attention of the officers she demanded that the officers not take a police report. Sergeant Wright tried to explain that a police report would document both sides of the dispute regarding payment of the water. She stated “do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don’t play these games with me. It’s like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don’t go down this road. You want to go down this road, don’t play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!” She was confrontational and disrespectful towards Sergeant Wright and Mr. Johnson. She directed comments to Sergeant Wright repeatedly calling him a corrupt cop. The matter could have been resolved in a different manner or in a nonconfrontational manner without the level of disrespect. The officers at the scene had been called Nazis, and Cottone referred to them as “high-steppers” for doing their job and that they didn’t want to do the right thing. She also questioned their oath and duty as police officers because they had to address the group’s behavior at the pizzeria. When she was asked to identify herself for the police report to document the dispute of payment she stated “no.” She demanded that every officer give their name and badge number for her list. She threatened the officers and the manager with lawsuits.

Mr. Johnson in the videos stated that he wanted the group to leave, he was just trying to run a business and was following the mandate. He was doing everything that the Mayor of Boston set forth in the mandate. The mandate had gone into effect on the 15th of January 2022 and required proof of COVID-19 vaccination for entry into indoor dining, entertainment, recreation, and fitness establishments. Businesses were required to place a sign at the front entrance and check customers’ vaccination proof upon entry. On the date of the incident, Mr. Johnson was abiding by the mandate and was placed in a difficult position by having to call 911 to address the disturbance inside the pizzeria by Sergeant Cottone’s group.

The entire time the group was at the pizzeria Sergeant Cottone ranted about Mayor Wu. She spoke of leaders acting as tyrants and people think that they can act as tyrants. “This is not normal. Three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys. She does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn’t be in politics.” She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing.” The officers at the scene along with Sergeant Wright never discussed the politics and were professional. Sergeant Wright never responded back to the unprofessional and disrespectful comments directed at him.

Officers have been trained in the police academy on the rules and procedures of the Boston Police Department. “Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.” Sergeant Cottone’s conduct was inappropriate and unbecoming a Boston Police Superior Officer. Officers have also been trained in the respectful treatment of others. “Employees shall, on all occasions be civil, respectful, courteous, and considerate toward their supervisors, their subordinates, and all other members of the Department and the general public.” Sergeant Cottone did not exhibit any of these qualities on the 15th of January. What was exhibited to the police officers and Mr. Johnson was contemptuous and discourteous conduct.

An officer has opinions. The manner in which Sergeant Cottone expressed her opinions was not within the rules and procedures. “Employees shall not publicly criticize or ridicule the Department, its policies, or other employees by speech, writing, or expression in any manner when such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, unlawful, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

Sergeant Wright utilized his discretion in dealing with the group and Sergeant Cotton. Mr. Johnson had requested several times that he wanted the group to leave and had stated it to the officers. During Sergeant Wright’s interview, he was asked about the group trespassing. He stated that he used his discretion and was prudent in whether or not to arrest. He believed that it was better to let the group finish eating and they would leave on their own. It was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst to arrest the group for trespassing.

Summary of Interview with Officer Benjamin Greer (Complainant):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Benjamin Greer provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Monday, January 17, 2022, at about 11:17 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded phone interview with Benjamin Greer (Complainant), within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston.

Sergeant Palomares asked Mr. Greer to explain in his words what happened on May 13, 2019 at Avenue DeLafayette. Mr. Greer stated that he was an architect and that his architectural firm was located at 115 Kingtson Street. It was after 5:00 p.m. and he was walking towards the train station. He stated that as he turned the corner he observed a black male on the ground and two white males on top of him. He stated that the white males were plain clothes officers and that officer A was kneeling on the black male’s legs and hold his hands. The second officer had the suspect in a choke that he described as a headlock. He further described the suspect as face down on the ground and gasping for air. Mr. Greer further stated that other officers arrived at the scene. He stated that Officer D was a small black female in plain clothes who assisted Officer A in subduing the suspects legs and a white male Officer E hovered over the officers but did not get involved. Mr. Greer stated that it was visible on the black male’s face that he was gasping for air and was able to verbalize that he couldn't breathe and other civilians watching began to voice concern for the black male. Mr. Greer described the officers as AB and DE. He described officer A as a white male medium build in his 30's, officer B as a white male medium build, officer D black female small and slim build in her 30's and officer E white male 30's, 5'4-5'11. Mr. Greer stated that the situation was comparable to the Eric Garner video because the black male could not breathe, was gasping for air and was struggling to get free and one could see the fear on the male's face. He also stated that he had been confronted by officer D to stop interfering and asked Mr. Greer if he was a doctor. Mr. Greer stated that he was not a doctor and stated to the officer "he is a human being, please he needs help." Officer D threatened to arrest Mr. Greer and stated that the black male was still gasping for air and twitching.

Sergeant Detective Joseph asked Mr. Greer if the black male was resting arrest. Mr. Greer stated that he was not trying to flee from the police but break free from the headlock. Sergeant Detective Joseph also inquired if he knew the difference between a chokehold and a headlock. Mr. Greer stated that to him it appeared the same. The officer had one arm around the neck area and the other arm controlling the head. The investigator also inquired as to the size of the black male. Mr. Greer stated that he was medium build and that he was in his 30's-40's years old. He further stated that he had several officers on him and the officers on bicycles and in cars showed up to the scene. He further inquired why the investigation took so long. The incident was reported in 2019 and now it was being investigated. Sergeant Palomares explained that she had recently been assigned the case and recently started the investigation. Mr. Greer at the end stated that he felt that there were officers who could have stopped officer B from choking the black male. He stated that Officers A, D and E chose not to take any action to stop officer B's actions. Mr. Greer during the interview spoke of a letter that he submitted with the complaint detailing the incident. Sergeant Palomares requested that he email the item to her. The item was emailed to the investigator by Mr. Greer.

This interview concluded at about 11:46 a.m.

Officer Aragonés was also accompanied by his attorney, Bryan Decker representing the Boston Police Patrolmen’s Association.

Prior to the interview, Officer Aragonés was given the opportunity to read Commissioner’s Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement.

Officer Aragonés relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Officer Aragonés reported that his badge number was 5230, that his department ID number was 153073, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the day shift.

Sergeant Palomares inquired about what took place at 1330 Pizzeria Regina on the 15th of January of 2022. Officer Aragonés stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston Street for a protest. Officer Aragonés stepped out of the wagon and did not observe any protesters outside of Regina Pizzeria. The officer walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officer that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate.

Officer Aragonés notified his partner and informed him (Officer Dowling) that the protest was inside. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. They could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonés requested to speak to the group outside but the group did not want to speak outside. At this time, Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonés that one of the females in the group was a police officer. Dowling notified the dispatcher and requested for a patrol supervisor to respond to the call.

Sergeant Cottone requested the names and badge numbers of the officers. The officers complied and gave their names and badge numbers. Officer Aragonés also stated he and Dowling were wearing face masks and were not recognizable. Upon giving the group their names, the female (Sergeant Cottone) started calling Dowling by his first name (Anthony) and calling them naughty boys. Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager (Mr. Johnson) about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of Regina pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas.

Mr. Johnson (manager) spoke to Sergeant Wright regarding the payment of the bottle of water. Sergeant Wright advised the group that the officers would not leave until the group left. Officers Dowling and Aragonés were relieved and they headed back to the station.

Officer Dowling recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone because she had been his supervisor when he was assigned to District E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) as a patrol supervisor. Officer Aragonés stated that she (Sergeant Cottone) was the main speaker of the group. The officers were called “Nazis” and “naughty boys.” The group was asked to leave several times.

Summary of Interview with Officer Anthony Dowling ID# 153152 (WITNESS):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Officer Anthony Dowling provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded interview with Officer Anthony Dowling within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of the Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston. Also, in the room for Officer Dowling was Attorney Bryan Decker representing the Boston Police Patrolmen’s Association.

Prior to the interview, Officer Dowling was given the opportunity to read Commissioner’s Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Officer Dowling relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Officer Dowling reported that his badge number was 5162, that his department ID number was 153152, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the Day shift.

He was asked if he was working on the 15th of January of 2022 at 3:20 p.m. Officer Dowling stated that he was working that day as the D201D with Officer Aragonés and they responded to a protest at 1330 Boylston Street at Regina Pizzeria.

They responded to the location and did not observe any protestors outside. They went inside and observed a group of women with a child at the table. He observed Sergeant Cottone sitting at a table and knew that she worked at E5 (West Roxbury/Roslindale Police Station). Officer Dowling attempted to limit engagement with Sergeant Cottone and the group. They asked the group if they ordered food. There was a dispute over a bottle of water and whether she had paid or put the money in the tip jar. Someone ordered two boxes of pizzas and dropped them off at the table and the group started to eat in front of the officers. Sergeant Wright had advised them of the mandate.

The interaction between Sergeant Cottone and Officer Dowling started when he asked the group if they had ordered food. She asked for his name and badge number. That was when she recognized him and kept calling him Anthony and that he was being a naughty boy and don't do this. Dowling had worked at E5 for 6 months in 2019 and Sergeant Cottone was one of his supervisors. He called for a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. The investigators asked if there was evidence of Sergeant Cottone putting money in the tip jar? Dowling stated that there was no evidence and the manager had informed the officers upon arriving at the scene. The officers were later relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino. It was also stated that the vaccination mandate (proof of vaccination) policy had gone into effect that day and the group refused to show papers to the manager and it was the manager who initiated the 911 call.

This recorded interview concluded at 10:52 a.m.

Summary of Interview with Sergeant John Wright ID# 10746 (WITNESS):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Sergeant John Wright provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at about 3:05 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded interview with Sergeant John Wright within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of the Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston. Also, in the room for Sergeant Wright was Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation along with Lieutenant Timothy Kervin (Vice President of the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation).

Prior to the interview, Sergeant Wright was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Wright relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Sergeant Wright reported that his badge number was 469, that his department ID number was 10746, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the First Half shift.

Sergeant Wright was asked if he was working on the date of the incident and he stated that he was working the First Half shift and responded to 1330 Boylston Street. He stated that the rapid (D201D/Aragones-Dowling) at the scene had requested a Patrol Supervisor to respond to the scene. He further stated that the 15th of January was the first day of the vaccine mandate and there was a group refusing to wear a mask and refusing to provide proof of vaccination. Officer Aragones had advised him of the group. Sergeant Wright passed on the information on the vaccine mandate to the manager of the pizzeria (Mr. Johnson) and the group. There was someone who purchased a pizza for the group. The group berated the officers, ate their food, and then left. He was asked if he knew the white female (Sergeant Cottone) in the overalls. He stated that he recognized her from when she worked at District B2 (Roxbury Police Station) and when they were students at Curry College.

At the scene, Sergeant Cottone asked for Sergeant Wright's name badge number and he gave it to her. She was confrontational with him and called him corrupt. Mr. Johnson (manager) had a dispute over the payment of the bottle of water. It was later determined that the money was placed in the tip jar. She stated to him "don't be wrong Wright." Sergeant Wright called the Duty Supervisor at the station and advised the supervisor that the officers would wait out the group and to please send relief. The officers waited till the group left.

She made it personal when she called the officers corrupt with no proof. Sergeant Wright stated that Sergeant Cottone stated that they (officers) were picking on women and a child. The sergeant believed that she was looking for a situation to incite the officers.

The officers waited till the group finished eating and they left the pizzeria. The incident was documented and his commander was notified of the situation. In the incident regarding the water bottle, she had tried to pay the employee behind the counter. The employee had told her that she was all set and she then placed the money in the tip jar as payment for the water. Sergeant Cottone had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. She taunted the Sergeant and another officer who she recognized. Sergeant Cottone tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated.

Sergeant Wright also spoke of the video dispute at the restaurant. He spoke to Mr. Johnson and requested to view the video but there was no video to view to help clarify the tip jar incident. The manager stated that there was no video because the video system was not working. The group was advised several times of the mandate in regards to eating inside of the establishment. No charges were brought against any of the group members. The sergeant decided it was in the best interest of everyone to wait it out and let the group eat their food. He stated that he used prudence because it was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst if arrests were made.

Cottone (white female, wearing a cap, overalls, and sweatshirt) and she stated: “why are you here, what is your purpose?” She further stated that the police were not supposed to enforce the mandate, she would not show papers, and that she purchased a bottle of water. Aragonese requested to see their vaccination papers, but the group refused and stated that they would sit there. Dowling called for a patrol supervisor to the scene, Cottone stated to Officer Aragonese that he was violating their rights. She continued by stating that they were violating their rights by enforcing the vaccine mandate and why were they doing that. She later asked for Aragonese name and badge number. Cottone stepped away from the table and the group continued their confrontation with the officers.

Mr. Johnson (manager, black male, 50-60-yrs-old) explained to the officers that he was trying to get them to leave and that he was trying to run a business. While the manager was speaking to the officers and the group yelled out “Nazis” and a black female protester stated “it was a shame black people discriminate and you turning your back on your people. Segregation was started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice.” The officers stated in response, “we just working doing our job.” The group stated “so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis.”

One of the females stated to the officers “your mayor is not my mayor.” Cottone returned to the table and stated to the officers, “if you not going by your oath you shouldn’t be doing this job, you understand. Just working. It’s a cop-out and you on the wrong side copping out to violating our rights.” Cottone repeatedly stated to the officers “you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights of people and you guys are the bad guys.” The officers listened and one of the females stated “Martin Luther King said that it is our moral obligation to not obey an unjust law.”

Officer Dowling inquired if they had purchased the water there, as Sergeant Cottone sat at the table drinking her water. She then stated “this is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don’t want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years!” 14 years of what asked Dowling and she stated “you know that.” Cottone continued speaking and stated, “time to make a choice boys.” “You don’t have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Don’t walk away from me, you don’t have to do this.” Officer Dowling walked away from Sergeant Cottone to keep his distance.

Mr. Johnson (manager) expressed to the officers that he felt that the group was harassing him. He was trying to run a business and explained to the group that he was following the rules. The group did not order food and a person kept calling and stating that my friends were being harassed by the police. The caller also stated to give them the pizza. Mr. Johnson stated that only a bottle of water had been purchased.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to Mr. Johnson and explained that a vaccination card has to be shown or they cannot be served. Sergeant Wright also spoke to the group that if they did not show a vaccination card they would have to leave. Cottone replied that she had purchased an item and was enjoying her beverage and he (Sergeant Wright) was going to leave her alone. Cottone stated that Mayor Wu said that the police would not be involved regarding the mandate and asked Wright what was he doing there. She further stated, "you gonna leave me alone and I am gonna enjoy my beverage!"

Sergeant Wright then asked the employees what time the pizzeria closed and they stated 8:30 p.m., and he and the officers sat down at one of the tables. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonese that Sergeant Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone heard the conversation and stated, "I put it in the tip jar you little liar! You lying!" Mr. Johnson and Cottone argued over the purchase of the water. Cottone stated that I put it in the tip jar and Johnson stated that she did not put money in the tip jar. Cottone demanded that the officers view the cameras. Sergeant Wright and Officer Dowling walk back out to the group and Sergeant Wright stated to the group that the tip jar was for tips. Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee, you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She further stated that she tried to pay but the employee would not take the money.

Sergeant Wright stated to her that they would take a police report and take both statements. She stated "no you will not take a report! Go look at the footage! You are a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying!" Sergeant Wright asked her if she was willing to give her name and identification and she stated "no, I am not!" Sergeant Wright asked Mr. Johnson if he has access to the video and he stated yes. At this point, a female yelled out "fucking liar!"

Mr. Johnson spoke to Sergeant Wright in private and stated that there was no video but that he did not want to say that in front of them (group). Wright headed back to the group and Dowling asked Wright "you know who that is right?" and Sergeant Wright stated "yes." The group stated to the officers that these mandates were not laws. The officers inquired if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the report. Everyone stated no. One of the females stated that her father was a police officer and was shot nine times in the head putting his life on the line and Tommy Gamperts would be disgusted.

The group was left alone and they ate their pizzas. The group kept talking about how Cottone was a hero and how she was being treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. She further stated that she would have a discussion with the North End pizzeria regarding the manager (Mr. Johnson) being a little liar and that she would be suing. She stated, "they know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter." One of the females stated that it's on live video. Sergeant Cottone stated that they will send it to Sergeant Wright and do his job for him. She continued confronting Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people, or help the homeless, he preferred to be with them (group). She further stated that Sergeant Wright was choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert (clear from the call) and that there was no crime at that location. Cottone further stated to Sergeant Wright that he was wasting taxpayers' money and that was in the rules and regulations (Boston Police Rules and Regulations).

She addressed his presence as a "police state" standing there watching them eat as a show of force was intimidating because there were five women and a child and it was intimidating. Sergeant Wright was calm and did not state anything to her. She continued berating him and stated "you should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu has confused you and this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu said the police were not enforcing this." Officer Dowling's video ended and it was 37:00 minutes long.

Review of Officer Aragon's Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Sergeant Palomares viewed the Body-Worn Camera video of Officer Aragon's regarding the incident on the 15th of January 2022 at Regina Pizzeria. The officer had responded to a radio call at 1330 Boylston Street for protestors.

Officer Aragon's spoke to the manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that they (a group of protestors) won't buy anything and wanted them to leave but they would not leave. Aragon's was joined by his partner Officer Dowling. Sergeant Cottone questioned Aragon's as to what was his purpose and why was he there. Officer Aragon's clarified to her that the pizzeria was a private establishment and that if they (the group) did not show papers (vaccination cards) they would have to leave. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's that they were not showing papers. Officer Aragon's clarified to the group that they could not dine in but could order the food to go and would have to leave.

Sergeant Cottone stated, "listen to me, listen to me, you are walking thin line and police are not supposed to enforce the mandate!" Officer Aragon's stated to Sergeant Cottone "you can leave" and the group stated that they can stay. Officers Aragon's and Dowling stated to Cottone that they were not violating their rights. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragon's to call for a supervisor to the scene.

Sergeant Cottone was hostile and warned the officers that they were violating their (group) rights and asked for Officer Aragon's name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's "why are you enforcing the vaccine "passport" and why are you doing that?" Aragon's advised Sergeant Rodriguez on the phone that they had protestors at Regina Pizzeria who would not show vaccine cards and one of them was an officer.

Officer Aragonés notified Mr. Johnson that a supervisor was responding to the location. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonés that there was a person calling about the group. The group leveled comments at the officers regarding choices, opinions, comparing the officers to Nazi Germany, and segregation. One of the females stated, "Nazi's also said doing my job, rights are being violated and your Mayor is not my Mayor." Sergeant Cottone had stepped away from the table and later walked back to the group and sat down. Cottone stated to the officers that they were on the wrong side of this and if they won't stand by their oath they shouldn't be on the job. The officers stated to her "just working." Sergeant Cottone stated "coping out to violating our rights. You're being naughty boys." "History has shown us that high steppers like you trample on the rights of the innocent. You go down in history as the bad guys." One of the females stated to Aragonés "Martin Luther King said it is our obligation to disobey an unjust law."

Did you buy something here Dowling asked the group? Cottone stated you gonna leave me alone and enjoy my beverage. She continues on about "14 years, 14 years. Dowling asked 14 years what? "You know what! Time to make a choice boys. You don't have to do this Anthony, this is not how it's done." She further stated that a classmate resigned and gave away his gun and badge. Cottone stated, "they took my gun and badge a week and a half ago." "You are corrupted by money. This is wrong." Officer Aragonés stated to the group "you are all being recorded and you are all expressing opinions." Aragonés also advised them that he was not threatened by the group.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene Officer Aragonés advised him of the group protesting the vaccine mandate and that one of the protesters was a police officer and they did not order anything except a bottle of water. Sergeant Wright spoke to Mr. Johnson (manager) about the mandate. Sergeant Wright advised Mr. Johnson that if they do not show a vaccination card they cannot be served in the city. Johnson stated that he understood the mandate. Officer Aragonés asked Johnson for his information for the police report.

Wright and Dowling spoke to the group. Cottone was the speaker for the group. Sergeant Wright stated, "we will wait and let her enjoy her water" and asked Johnson what time they closed Johnson stated at 8:30 p.m. Wright advised the officers (Aragonés and Dowling) that they would wait it out.

Mr. Johnson explained the situation regarding the bottle of water to Officer Aragonés. An employee gave Cottone a bottle of water and he assumed that she would pay. She did not pay or put anything in the tip jar. The dispute continued between Johnson and Cottone in front of the officers and the group. Cottone yelled out "he is a liar." Mr. Johnson stated that they (the group) made racial comments and threats toward him. Sergeant Cottone yelled out "don't play these games with me, I tried to pay for the bottle of water and he (the employee) would not take the money. It's like when you get free coffee you put the money in the tip jar."

Sergeant Wright informed her that the officers would take a police report and she yelled back “no you will not take a report. You gonna get the footage, don’t play with me. Don’t play games with me, you gonna look at the footage.” Sergeant Wright requested Cottone’s name for the report and she would not cooperate and kept stating to look at the footage. She stated “You are a corrupt, corrupt man! You are falsely testifying I will sue you. I want the footage.”

Sergeant Wright inquired if Mr. Johnson had access to the video and Mr. Johnson, stated “yes” and the officers walked to the back area of the kitchen. One of the females in the group yelled out “you fucking liar” directed at Mr. Johnson. Another female wanted to know if the police will reprimand the manager for filing a false police report.

Sergeant Wright walked back to speak to the group. Sergeant Wright advised the manager that the police would take a police report of “he said she said.” This angered Sergeant Cottone who stated, “this is not he said she said and you have access to the video.” The group challenged Sergeant Wright regarding the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “bullshit, you’re bullshit!” Sergeant Wright continued explaining that both sides would be represented in the report. Officer Aragonese requested Sergeant Cottone’s name and she stated “no.” Officer Aragonese was gathering information for the police report and Sergeant Cottone yelled out “you can’t take the report, he is not a credible witness, Sergeant Wright you hear me!” Sergeant Wright replied, “yeah I hear you.”

Sergeant Cottone replied “You are a corrupt cop. It is your opinion, not based on observations and you choose to be a corrupt cop. What is your name and badge name?” Sergeant Wright calmly gave his name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone continued being confrontational towards the supervisor and stated “Shame on you, disgusting, you’re a disgrace. You have the choice to do the right thing but you choose to be part of this corrupt system. Officer Aragonese spoke to the employees regarding the situation and the employee believed that she would pay for the water.

The group stated to the officers “your Mayor does not care about you. We stand on your side for you. You are ashamed you can’t look me in the eye. Mayor Wu said the police would not be involved. You are ashamed and you need to take a stand, not personal guys.” Sergeant Cottone stated “you don’t know me, I am a person. Can’t tell us we can’t eat.” Two boxes of pizzas were dropped off at the group’s table. They were taking photos and videos of themselves eating the pizza and the officers standing nearby. She stated, “I want to give a shout out to Eddy Chrispin to stop violating my rights.” The officers watched the group as they ate their pizzas.

Officer Aragonese inquired from the group if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated “they have not done anything to identify themselves.” One of the females stated that her father was a Boston Police Officer and was shot 9 times in the head. She stated “he put his life on the line.” Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “we can’t eat pizza because we’re unclean and unvaccinated people.” Sergeant Wright replied “you are eating pizza right now.” Sergeant Cottone replied, “you wanted to kick us out remember.” Sergeant Wright stated to the female “I knew your father and he was a good man and tell him I say hello.” She stated “he would be very disappointed with you.

One of the females described Sergeant Cottone as a hero and that this was how she was treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it takes one person to make a difference. Cottone further stated that she would have a conversation with Regina Pizzeria headquarters and report the manager (Mr. Johnson) and how he falsely testified against customers. She stated “I don’t want to sue Regina Pizzeria; the manager was lying and they know that I paid for the water.” One of the women stated it was on video in real-time that Sergeant Cottone paid for the water. Sergeant Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to do his job and help others or fight crime. She stated that he would rather stay there with them and waste taxpayer dollars. Sergeant Wright replied that he answered a call for service.

Officer Aragon’s video ended and it was 37 minutes long.

Review of Officer Keating Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Officer Keaton responded to 1330 Boylston Street and Sergeant Cottone asked for his name and badge number. He complied and gave his information to her. Officer Antonino was already there with Sergeant Wright. The officers watched the group and did not have contact with the group. Sergeant Cottone can be heard stating that the manager (Mr. Johnson) must have turned off the phone inside the pizzeria and called him “tyrant man.” She ranted about leaders acting as tyrants and people thinking that they can act as tyrants. She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civic lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing. Most dysfunctional family I belonged to and I’m not being quiet anymore, going to take my job but I won’t!” As the group started to leave, she states to Sergeant Wright “you will have to tell your kids and grandkids what you did.” “You are corrupt, you are a yes man. I didn’t sign up to do this. I signed up to care for people and protect their rights. Maybe if you would have showed up to my roll call leading up to this, you would understand.” Officer Keaton’s video ended and it was 13 minutes long.

Review of Officer Antonino Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Officer Antonino responded to 1330 Boylston Street to relieve the day shift officers (Aragones and Dowling). Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Antonino that because Sergeant Wright brought him there, she would need his name and badge number. Officer Antonino gave his name and badge number to Sergeant Cottone. She yelled out to Mr. Johnson, “manager man, did you turn off the phones because you're being a little tyrant." One of the females in the group was laughing at the statement and stated "manager man did you turn the phone off." She then stated "Tyranny is contagious when they think they can act like their leaders they act like tyrants. Very dangerous, this status quo happens people think that this is normal. This is not normal guys."

Sergeant Cottone stated to customers "guys make sure that you check your receipts cause he (Mr. Johnson) is a liar, he tried to get me in trouble that I didn't pay for my pizza and that he is charging the proper price of the pizza. Officer Keaton arrived on the scene and Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number.

Sergeant Cottone stated "this is not normal, three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys." She then rants on about Mayor Wu and stated "she does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn't be in politics." Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright, "little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people's rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing. The most dysfunctional family I belonged to and I'm not being quiet anymore, going to take my job but I won't!" As the group left, Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright "you will have to tell your kids and grandkids what you did." "You are corrupt, you are a yes man. I didn't sign up to do this. I signed up to care for people and protect rights. Maybe if you would have showed up to my roll call leading up to this, you would understand." Officer Antonino's video ended and it was 20 minutes long.

Investigation Summary:

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:07 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Jordan Aragon. Sergeant Palomares inquired as to what took place at 1330 Regina Pizzeria on the 15th of January of 2022. He stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston street for a protest. He was working with Officer Anthony Dowling in the wagon. The officers walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officers that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. He advised the group that they could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonés requested to speak to the group outside as well and they did not want to speak outside. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonés that one of the females in the group was a police officer and she had been one of his supervisors. Officer Dowling requested a patrol supervisor respond to the scene. Sergeant Cottone had requested the names and badge numbers of the officers and they complied and gave the information. Officer Aragonés also stated they had their faces covered with masks and it was not very easy to recognize them. When the officers gave their names, Sergeant Cottone recognized Officer Dowling and started calling him Anthony and called them naughty boys.

Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas. Mr. Johnson (manager) spoke to Sergeant Wright regarding the payment of the bottle of water. Sergeant Wright advised the group that the officers would not leave until the group left. Officers Dowling and Aragonés were relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino and they headed back to the station to write the police report.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Anthony Dowling. Officer Dowling stated that he and Officer Aragonés responded to the protest at Regina Pizzeria. Upon entering the pizzeria, he recognized Sergeant Cottone. Sergeant Palomares asked how he knew Sergeant Cottone and he stated she worked at A1 with his father. Sergeant Cottone had asked for the officers' names and badge numbers. When Dowling gave his name, she recognized him and began calling him Anthony. Also stated to him "you don't want to do this, this is not how policing is done."

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at about 3:05 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Sergeant John Wright. Sergeant Wright stated that the police officers at Regina Pizzeria requested a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. He responded and spoke to the manager (Mr. Johnson) and the group about the mandate. The group did not want to wear a mask or show proof of vaccination to eat inside of the pizzeria. Sergeant Cottone asked for the supervisor's name and badge. Mr. Johnson stated that Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone stated that she had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. She decided to place the money inside the tip jar and Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. Sergeant Cottone also tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated. She was also very confrontational with Sergeant Wright at the scene. Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation and he stated he felt disrespected and that Sergeant Cottone made the situation personal. The investigators also asked about the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Sergeant Wright stated that he used prudence to assess the situation because it was the first day of the mandate. He used his discretion and let the group finish eating and let the group leave on their own. He felt that if they had been arrested for trespass it would have turned out worst in the end.

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:09 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Christopher Keaton. Sergeant Palomares inquired what he recalled of the incident on the 15th of January 2022. Officer Keaton stated that he had worked a day tour on overtime at D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station). The duty supervisor requested that he head over to Regina Pizzeria to relieve the day shift officers (Aragones/Dowling). Upon responding to the location, he recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone. Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number. He also observed that the group was eating a pizza. He stated that he felt very uncomfortable with the comments she was making regarding Sergeant Wright's family and comments directed at the manager (Mr. Johnson).

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:21 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Thomas Antonino. Sergeant Palomares inquired if he had responded to Regina Pizzeria on January 15th of 2022. He stated that he had responded to relieve the day units. Sergeant Wright and Officers Aragones and Dowling were on the scene. Officers Aragones and Dowling left the scene to write the police report and Sergeant Wright stayed at the scene. The group consisted of five females who were very rude to the manager (Mr. Johnson). Sergeant Cottone asked Officer Antonino for his name and badge number for the lawsuit. Sergeant Cottone was the speaker of the group and directed derogatory comments toward Mr. Johnson and Sergeant Wright. Once the group was done eating they left the pizzeria.

On Thursday, 10th of March 2022 at 10:00 a.m., Sergeant Shana Cottone had a scheduled interview with Sergeant Lucia Palomares. Sergeant Cottone invoked her Carney rights and signed a waiver. She was legally represented by her own personal attorney William Gans along with Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation. Sergeant Jeanie Carroll and Lieutenant Timothy Kervin were also present as her union representatives (Boston Superior Officers Federation). On that date, she was not interviewed.

A second interview was requested and scheduled for Wednesday, 20th of April 2022 at 11:00 a.m. Sergeant Cottone was accompanied by Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Superior Officers Federation along with union representative Sergeant Jeanie Carroll of the Federation. The interview was audio recorded. Prior to the interview, Sergeant Cottone was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Cottone relayed that she read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo. When asked, Sergeant Cottone reported that her badge number was 325, that her department ID number was 106714, and that she was currently assigned to E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) on the day shift. Sergeant Cottone did not answer investigatory questions and was on record invoking her Carney privilege to all the questions.

Sergeant Palomares has made attempts to contact Kenneth Johnson for an interview regarding this investigation. At this time, Mr. Johnson has not contacted Sergeant Palomares regarding an interview. A certified contact letter was sent to his residence. Sergeant Palomares received the certified letter marked "unable to forward."

As part of this investigation, the investigator viewed all of the officer's body-worn camera videos. The officers (Aragones and Dowling) had responded to a 911 call that was initiated by Kenneth Johnson, the manager of the pizzeria. The officers spoke to Mr. Johnson and he stated the group was not cooperative regarding the mandate and would not wear masks or leave the premises. The officers explained the mandate to the group. If they did not comply with the mandate they would have to leave. That day was the first day of the vaccination mandate policy initiated by Mayor Wu.

The group was at the pizzeria protesting the mandate. The group was led by Sergeant Cottone who was recognized by Officer Dowling at the scene. She also recognized Officer Dowling after she obtained their names and badge numbers for her lawsuit. In the video, she called him "Anthony." She further stated to Officer Dowling that he was being a naughty boy, don't do this, this is not how policing is done, don't walk away from me." The group was argumentative and disrespectful. Sergeant Cottone never identified herself to the officers or Sergeant Wright. The entire time she was offensive, quarrelsome, and challenged the officer's authority at the pizzeria.

When the dispute over the water was brought to the attention of the officers she demanded that the officers not take a police report. Sergeant Wright tried to explain that a police report would document both sides of the dispute regarding payment of the water. She replied "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!” She was belligerent and insolent towards Sergeant Wright and Mr. Johnson. She directed comments to Sergeant Wright repeatedly calling him a corrupt cop.

The matter could have been resolved in a different manner or in a nonconfrontational manner. The officers at the scene had been called Nazis, and Cottone referred to them as “high-steppers” for doing their job and that they didn’t want to do the right thing. She also questioned their oath and duty as police officers because they had to address the group’s behavior at the pizzeria. When she was asked to identify herself for the police report to document the dispute over payment she stated “no.” She demanded that every officer give their name and badge number for her list to sue. She threatened the officers and the manager with lawsuits.

Mr. Johnson stated that he wanted the group to leave, he was just trying to run a business and was following the mandate. He was doing everything that the Mayor of Boston set forth in the mandate. The mandate had gone into effect on the 15th of January 2022 and required proof of COVID-19 vaccination for entry into indoor dining, entertainment, recreation, and fitness establishments. Businesses were required to place a sign at the front entrance and check customers’ vaccination proof upon entry. On the date of the incident, Mr. Johnson was abiding by the mandate and was placed in a difficult position by having to call 911 to address the disturbance inside the pizzeria by Sergeant Cottone’s group.

The entire time the group was at the pizzeria Sergeant Cottone fumed about Mayor Wu. She spoke of leaders acting as tyrants and people think that they can act as tyrants. “This is not normal. Three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys. She does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn’t be in politics.” She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing.” The officers at the scene along with Sergeant Wright never discussed politics and were professional. Sergeant Wright never responded to the unprofessional and disrespectful comments directed at him.

Officers have been trained in the police academy on the rules and procedures of the Boston Police Department. “Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.” Sergeant Cottone’s conduct was inappropriate and unbefitting a Boston Police Superior Officer. Officers have also been trained in the respectful treatment of others. “Employees shall, on all occasions be civil, respectful, courteous, and considerate toward their supervisors, their subordinates, and all other members of the Department and the general public.” Sergeant Cottone did not exhibit any of these qualities on the 15th of January. What was exhibited to the police officers and Mr. Johnson was contemptuous and discourteous conduct.

An officer has opinions. The manner in which Sergeant Cottone expressed her opinions was not within the rules and procedures. “Employees shall not publicly criticize or ridicule the Department, its policies, or other employees by speech, writing, or expression in any manner when such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, unlawful, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

Sergeant Wright utilized his discretion in dealing with the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Mr. Johnson had requested several times that he wanted the group to leave and had stated it to the officers. During Sergeant Wright’s interview, he was asked about the group trespassing. He stated that he used his discretion and was prudent in whether or not to arrest. He believed that it was better to let the group finish eating and they would leave on their own. It was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst to arrest the group for trespassing.

At about 3:20 PM on Saturday 01/15/2022 Officers Aragones and Dowling in the D201D responded to a radio call for a protest at 1330 Boylston Street (Regina Pizzeria) Boston, Ma. The following is summary of the events that took place not a word for word account:*

Upon arrival officers met with the store manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that a group of females came into the store and sat down and wanted to order food. Mr. Johnson stated he asked the group for proof of their Covid-19 vaccine due to the new city mandate. The group then refused to show Mr. Johnson any proof of vaccination. Mr. Johnson stated he then called the police to remove the group due to them not following the new mandate.

Officers then spoke to the group that consisted of Ms. Shana Cottone and 5 unknown females who refused to identify themselves. The group stated that they were not going to show proof of vaccination and that they bought one bottle of water. Officers spoke to Mr. Johnson again who stated that one of the workers handed Ms. Cottone a bottle of water assuming she would go pay for it at the register. He stated that she did not pay for the water at the register and there is no record of her purchase of the water. Officers attempted to obtain video surveillance to which Mr. Johnson stated the cameras were not working. Ms. Cottone stated that she put $2 in the tip jar for the bottled water. Officers asked the group to leave the restaurant several times and refused. Officers then requested a patrol supervisor to the scene. D909 (Wright) arrived on scene and spoke with the group. The group again refused to leave and officers stated that they were remaining on scene until the group left the premises. An unknown male then dropped two pizzas off to the group at their table and then left the restaurant. Officers Aragones and Dowling were then relieved at the scene at about 4:10PM by the DT55F (Keaton) and the D499F (Antonino) still accompanied by the D909. The group then finished their pizza and left the restaurant.”

Summary of Interview with Officer Jordan Aragones ID# 153073 (WITNESS):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Officer Jordan Aragones provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:07 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded interview with Officer Aragones (witness), within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston. Officer Aragones was also accompanied by his attorney, Bryan Decker representing the Boston Police Patrolmen’s Association.

Prior to the interview, Officer Aragonés was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Officer Aragonés relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Officer Aragonés reported that his badge number was 5230, that his department ID number was 153073, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the day shift.

Sergeant Palomares inquired about what took place at 1330 Pizzeria Regina on the 15th of January of 2022. Officer Aragonés stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston Street for a protest. Officer Aragonés stepped out of the wagon and did not observe any protesters outside of Regina Pizzeria. The officer walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officer that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate.

Officer Aragonés notified his partner and informed him (Officer Dowling) that the protest was inside. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. They could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonés requested to speak to the group outside but the group did not want to speak outside. At this time, Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonés that one of the females in the group was a police officer. Dowling notified the dispatcher and requested for a patrol supervisor to respond to the call.

Sergeant Cottone requested the names and badge numbers of the officers. The officers complied and gave their names and badge numbers. Officer Aragonés also stated he and Dowling were wearing face masks and were not recognizable. Upon giving the group their names, the female (Sergeant Cottone) started calling Dowling by his first name (Anthony) and calling them naughty boys. Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager (Mr. Johnson) about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of Regina pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas.

Mr. Johnson (manager) spoke to Sergeant Wright regarding the payment of the bottle of water. Sergeant Wright advised the group that the officers would not leave until the group left. Officers Dowling and Aragonés were relieved and they headed back to the station.

Officer Dowling recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone because she had been his supervisor when he was assigned to District E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) as a patrol supervisor. Officer Aragonés stated that she (Sergeant Cottone) was the main speaker of the group. The officers were called “Nazis” and “naughty boys.” The group was asked to leave several times.

This interview concluded at about 10:31 a.m.

Summary of Interview with Officer Anthony Dowling ID# 153152 (WITNESS):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Officer Anthony Dowling provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded interview with Officer Anthony Dowling within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of the Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston. Also, in the room for Officer Dowling was Attorney Bryan Decker representing the Boston Police Patrolmen’s Association.

Prior to the interview, Officer Dowling was given the opportunity to read Commissioner’s Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Officer Dowling relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Officer Dowling reported that his badge number was 5162, that his department ID number was 153152, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the Day shift.

He was asked if he was working on the 15th of January of 2022 at 3:20 p.m. Officer Dowling stated that he was working that day as the D201D with Officer Aragonés and they responded to a protest at 1330 Boylston Street at Regina Pizzeria.

They responded to the location and did not observe any protestors outside. They went inside and observed a group of women with a child at the table. He observed Sergeant Cottone sitting at a table and knew that she worked at E5 (West Roxbury/Roslindale Police Station). Officer Dowling attempted to limit engagement with Sergeant Cottone and the group. They asked the group if they ordered food. There was a dispute over a bottle of water and whether she had paid or put the money in the tip jar. Someone ordered two boxes of pizzas and dropped them off at the table and the group started to eat in front of the officers. Sergeant Wright had advised them of the mandate.

The interaction between Sergeant Cottone and Officer Dowling started when he asked the group if they had ordered food. She asked for his name and badge number. That was when she recognized him and kept calling him Anthony and that he was being a naughty boy and don't do this. Dowling had worked at E5 for 6 months in 2019 and Sergeant Cottone was one of his supervisors. He called for a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. The investigators asked if there was evidence of Sergeant Cottone putting money in the tip jar? Dowling stated that there was no evidence and the manager had informed the officers upon arriving at the scene. The officers were later relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino. It was also stated that the vaccination mandate (proof of vaccination) policy had gone into effect that day and the group refused to show papers to the manager and it was the manager who initiated the 911 call.

Prior to the interview, Sergeant Wright was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Wright relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Sergeant Wright reported that his badge number was 469, that his department ID number was 10746, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the First Half shift.

Sergeant Wright was asked if he was working on the date of the incident and he stated that he was working the First Half shift and responded to 1330 Boylston Street. He stated that the rapid (D201D/Aragones-Dowling) at the scene had requested a Patrol Supervisor to respond to the scene. He further stated that the 15th of January was the first day of the vaccine mandate and there was a group refusing to wear a mask and refusing to provide proof of vaccination. Officer Aragones had advised him of the group. Sergeant Wright passed on the information on the vaccine mandate to the manager of the pizzeria (Mr. Johnson) and the group. There was someone who purchased a pizza for the group. The group berated the officers, ate their food, and then left. He was asked if he knew the white female (Sergeant Cottone) in the overalls. He stated that he recognized her from when she worked at District B2 (Roxbury Police Station) and when they were students at Curry College.

At the scene, Sergeant Cottone asked for Sergeant Wright's name badge number and he gave it to her. She was confrontational with him and called him corrupt. Mr. Johnson (manager) had a dispute over the payment of the bottle of water. It was later determined that the money was placed in the tip jar. She stated to him "don't be wrong Wright." Sergeant Wright called the Duty Supervisor at the station and advised the supervisor that the officers would wait out the group and to please send relief. The officers waited till the group left.

Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation. He stated that he felt disrespected and that when dealing with the public and other officers it should not be personal. She made it personal when she called the officers corrupt with no proof. Sergeant Wright stated that Sergeant Cottone stated that they (officers) were picking on women and a child. The sergeant believed that she was looking for a situation to incite the officers.

The officers waited till the group finished eating and they left the pizzeria. The incident was documented and his commander was notified of the situation. In the incident regarding the water bottle, she had tried to pay the employee behind the counter. The employee had told her that she was all set and she then placed the money in the tip jar as payment for the water. Sergeant Cottone had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. She taunted the Sergeant and another officer who she recognized. Sergeant Cottone tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated.

Sergeant Wright also spoke of the video dispute at the restaurant. He spoke to Mr. Johnson and requested to view the video but there was no video to view to help clarify the tip jar incident. The manager stated that there was no video because the video system was not working. The group was advised several times of the mandate in regards to eating inside of the establishment. No charges were brought against any of the group members. The sergeant decided it was in the best interest of everyone to wait it out and let the group eat their food. He stated that he used prudence because it was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst if arrests were made.

Cottone (white female, wearing a cap, overalls, and sweatshirt) and she stated: “why are you here, what is your purpose?” She further stated that the police were not supposed to enforce the mandate, she would not show papers, and that she purchased a bottle of water. Aragonés requested to see their vaccination papers, but the group refused and stated that they would sit there. Dowling called for a patrol supervisor to the scene, Cottone stated to Officer Aragonés that he was violating their rights. She continued by stating that they were violating their rights by enforcing the vaccine mandate and why were they doing that. She later asked for Aragonés name and badge number. Cottone stepped away from the table and the group continued their confrontation with the officers.

Mr. Johnson (manager, black male, 50-60-yrs-old) explained to the officers that he was trying to get them to leave and that he was trying to run a business. While the manager was speaking to the officers and the group yelled out “Nazis” and a black female protester stated “it was a shame black people discriminate and you turning your back on your people. Segregation was started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice.” The officers stated in response, “we just working doing our job.” The group stated “so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis.”

One of the females stated to the officers “your mayor is not my mayor.” Cottone returned to the table and stated to the officers, “if you not going by your oath you shouldn’t be doing this job, you understand. Just working. It’s a cop-out and you on the wrong side copping out to violating our rights.” Cottone repeatedly stated to the officers “you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights of people and you guys are the bad guys.” The officers listened and one of the females stated “Martin Luther King said that it is our moral obligation to not obey an unjust law.”

Officer Dowling inquired if they had purchased the water there, as Sergeant Cottone sat at the table drinking her water. She then stated “this is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don’t want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years!” 14 years of what asked Dowling and she stated “you know that.” Cottone continued speaking and stated, “time to make a choice boys.” “You don’t have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Don’t walk away from me, you don’t have to do this.” Officer Dowling walked away from Sergeant Cottone to keep his distance.

Mr. Johnson (manager) expressed to the officers that he felt that the group was harassing him. He was trying to run a business and explained to the group that he was following the rules. The group did not order food and a person kept calling and stating that my friends were being harassed by the police. The caller also stated to give them the pizza. Mr. Johnson stated that only a bottle of water had been purchased.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to Mr. Johnson and explained that a vaccination card has to be shown or they cannot be served. Sergeant Wright also spoke to the group that if they did not show a vaccination card they would have to leave. Cottone replied that she had purchased an item and was enjoying her beverage and he (Sergeant Wright) was going to leave her alone. Cottone stated that Mayor Wu said that the police would not be involved regarding the mandate and asked Wright what was he doing there. She further stated, "you gonna leave me alone and I am gonna enjoy my beverage!"

Sergeant Wright then asked the employees what time the pizzeria closed and they stated 8:30 p.m., and he and the officers sat down at one of the tables. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonese that Sergeant Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone heard the conversation and stated, "I put it in the tip jar you little liar! You lying!" Mr. Johnson and Cottone argued over the purchase of the water. Cottone stated that I put it in the tip jar and Johnson stated that she did not put money in the tip jar. Cottone demanded that the officers view the cameras. Sergeant Wright and Officer Dowling walk back out to the group and Sergeant Wright stated to the group that the tip jar was for tips. Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee, you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She further stated that she tried to pay but the employee would not take the money.

Sergeant Wright stated to her that they would take a police report and take both statements. She stated "no you will not take a report! Go look at the footage! You are a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying!" Sergeant Wright asked her if she was willing to give her name and identification and she stated "no, I am not!" Sergeant Wright asked Mr. Johnson if he has access to the video and he stated yes. At this point, a female yelled out "fucking liar!"

Mr. Johnson spoke to Sergeant Wright in private and stated that there was no video but that he did not want to say that in front of them (group). Wright headed back to the group and Dowling asked Wright "you know who that is right?" and Sergeant Wright stated "yes." The group stated to the officers that these mandates were not laws. The officers inquired if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the report. Everyone stated no. One of the females stated that her father was a police officer and was shot nine times in the head putting his life on the line and Tommy Gamperts would be disgusted.

The group was left alone and they ate their pizzas. The group kept talking about how Cottone was a hero and how she was being treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. She further stated that she would have a discussion with the North End pizzeria regarding the manager (Mr. Johnson) being a little liar and that she would be suing. She stated, "they know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter." One of the females stated that it's on live video. Sergeant Cottone stated that they will send it to Sergeant Wright and do his job for him. She continued confronting Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people, or help the homeless, he preferred to be with them (group). She further stated that Sergeant Wright was choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert (clear from the call) and that there was no crime at that location. Cottone further stated to Sergeant Wright that he was wasting taxpayers' money and that was in the rules and regulations (Boston Police Rules and Regulations).

She addressed his presence as a "police state" standing there watching them eat as a show of force was intimidating because there were five women and a child and it was intimidating. Sergeant Wright was calm and did not state anything to her. She continued berating him and stated "you should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu has confused you and this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu said the police were not enforcing this." Officer Dowling's video ended and it was 37:00 minutes long.

Review of Officer Aragon's Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Sergeant Palomares viewed the Body-Worn Camera video of Officer Aragon's regarding the incident on the 15th of January 2022 at Regina Pizzeria. The officer had responded to a radio call at 1330 Boylston Street for protestors.

Officer Aragon's spoke to the manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that they (a group of protestors) won't buy anything and wanted them to leave but they would not leave. Aragon's was joined by his partner Officer Dowling. Sergeant Cottone questioned Aragon's as to what was his purpose and why was he there. Officer Aragon's clarified to her that the pizzeria was a private establishment and that if they (the group) did not show papers (vaccination cards) they would have to leave. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's that they were not showing papers. Officer Aragon's clarified to the group that they could not dine in but could order the food to go and would have to leave.

Sergeant Cottone stated, "listen to me, listen to me, you are walking thin line and police are not supposed to enforce the mandate!" Officer Aragon's stated to Sergeant Cottone "you can leave" and the group stated that they can stay. Officers Aragon's and Dowling stated to Cottone that they were not violating their rights. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragon's to call for a supervisor to the scene.

Sergeant Cottone was hostile and warned the officers that they were violating their (group) rights and asked for Officer Aragon's name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's "why are you enforcing the vaccine "passport" and why are you doing that?" Aragon's advised Sergeant Rodriguez on the phone that they had protestors at Regina Pizzeria who would not show vaccine cards and one of them was an officer.

Officer Aragonés notified Mr. Johnson that a supervisor was responding to the location. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonés that there was a person calling about the group. The group leveled comments at the officers regarding choices, opinions, comparing the officers to Nazi Germany, and segregation. One of the females stated, "Nazi's also said doing my job, rights are being violated and your Mayor is not my Mayor." Sergeant Cottone had stepped away from the table and later walked back to the group and sat down. Cottone stated to the officers that they were on the wrong side of this and if they won't stand by their oath they shouldn't be on the job. The officers stated to her "just working." Sergeant Cottone stated "coping out to violating our rights. You're being naughty boys." "History has shown us that high steppers like you trample on the rights of the innocent. You go down in history as the bad guys." One of the females stated to Aragonés "Martin Luther King said it is our obligation to disobey an unjust law."

Did you buy something here Dowling asked the group? Cottone stated you gonna leave me alone and enjoy my beverage. She continues on about "14 years, 14 years. Dowling asked 14 years what? "You know what! Time to make a choice boys. You don't have to do this Anthony, this is not how it's done." She further stated that a classmate resigned and gave away his gun and badge. Cottone stated, "they took my gun and badge a week and a half ago." "You are corrupted by money. This is wrong." Officer Aragonés stated to the group "you are all being recorded and you are all expressing opinions." Aragonés also advised them that he was not threatened by the group.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene Officer Aragonés advised him of the group protesting the vaccine mandate and that one of the protesters was a police officer and they did not order anything except a bottle of water. Sergeant Wright spoke to Mr. Johnson (manager) about the mandate. Sergeant Wright advised Mr. Johnson that if they do not show a vaccination card they cannot be served in the city. Johnson stated that he understood the mandate. Officer Aragonés asked Johnson for his information for the police report.

Wright and Dowling spoke to the group. Cottone was the speaker for the group. Sergeant Wright stated, "we will wait and let her enjoy her water" and asked Johnson what time they closed Johnson stated at 8:30 p.m. Wright advised the officers (Aragonés and Dowling) that they would wait it out.

Mr. Johnson explained the situation regarding the bottle of water to Officer Aragonés. An employee gave Cottone a bottle of water and he assumed that she would pay. She did not pay or put anything in the tip jar. The dispute continued between Johnson and Cottone in front of the officers and the group. Cottone yelled out "he is a liar." Mr. Johnson stated that they (the group) made racial comments and threats toward him. Sergeant Cottone yelled out "don't play these games with me, I tried to pay for the bottle of water and he (the employee) would not take the money. It's like when you get free coffee you put the money in the tip jar."

Sergeant Wright informed her that the officers would take a police report and she yelled back “no you will not take a report. You gonna get the footage, don’t play with me. Don’t play games with me, you gonna look at the footage.” Sergeant Wright requested Cottone’s name for the report and she would not cooperate and kept stating to look at the footage. She stated “You are a corrupt, corrupt man! You are falsely testifying I will sue you. I want the footage.”

Sergeant Wright inquired if Mr. Johnson had access to the video and Mr. Johnson, stated “yes” and the officers walked to the back area of the kitchen. One of the females in the group yelled out “you fucking liar” directed at Mr. Johnson. Another female wanted to know if the police will reprimand the manager for filing a false police report.

Sergeant Wright walked back to speak to the group. Sergeant Wright advised the manager that the police would take a police report of “he said she said.” This angered Sergeant Cottone who stated, “this is not he said she said and you have access to the video.” The group challenged Sergeant Wright regarding the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “bullshit, you’re bullshit!” Sergeant Wright continued explaining that both sides would be represented in the report. Officer Aragonese requested Sergeant Cottone’s name and she stated “no.” Officer Aragonese was gathering information for the police report and Sergeant Cottone yelled out “you can’t take the report, he is not a credible witness, Sergeant Wright you hear me!” Sergeant Wright replied, “yeah I hear you.”

Sergeant Cottone replied “You are a corrupt cop. It is your opinion, not based on observations and you choose to be a corrupt cop. What is your name and badge name?” Sergeant Wright calmly gave his name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone continued being confrontational towards the supervisor and stated “Shame on you, disgusting, you’re a disgrace. You have the choice to do the right thing but you choose to be part of this corrupt system. Officer Aragonese spoke to the employees regarding the situation and the employee believed that she would pay for the water.

The group stated to the officers “your Mayor does not care about you. We stand on your side for you. You are ashamed you can’t look me in the eye. Mayor Wu said the police would not be involved. You are ashamed and you need to take a stand, not personal guys.” Sergeant Cottone stated “you don’t know me, I am a person. Can’t tell us we can’t eat.” Two boxes of pizzas were dropped off at the group’s table. They were taking photos and videos of themselves eating the pizza and the officers standing nearby. She stated, “I want to give a shout out to Eddy Chrispin to stop violating my rights.” The officers watched the group as they ate their pizzas.

Officer Aragonese inquired from the group if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated “they have not done anything to identify themselves.” One of the females stated that her father was a Boston Police Officer and was shot 9 times in the head. She stated “he put his life on the line.” Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “we can’t eat pizza because we’re unclean and unvaccinated people.” Sergeant Wright replied “you are eating pizza right now.” Sergeant Cottone replied, “you wanted to kick us out remember.” Sergeant Wright stated to the female “I knew your father and he was a good man and tell him I say hello.” She stated “he would be very disappointed with you.

One of the females described Sergeant Cottone as a hero and that this was how she was treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it takes one person to make a difference. Cottone further stated that she would have a conversation with Regina Pizzeria headquarters and report the manager (Mr. Johnson) and how he falsely testified against customers. She stated “I don’t want to sue Regina Pizzeria; the manager was lying and they know that I paid for the water.” One of the women stated it was on video in real-time that Sergeant Cottone paid for the water. Sergeant Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to do his job and help others or fight crime. She stated that he would rather stay there with them and waste taxpayer dollars. Sergeant Wright replied that he answered a call for service.

Investigation Summary:

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:07 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Jordan Aragon. Sergeant Palomares inquired as to what took place at 1330 Regina Pizzeria on the 15th of January of 2022. He stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston street for a protest. He was working with Officer Anthony Dowling in the wagon. The officers walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officers that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. He advised the group that they could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonés requested to speak to the group outside as well and they did not want to speak outside. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonés that one of the females in the group was a police officer and she had been one of his supervisors. Officer Dowling requested a patrol supervisor respond to the scene. Sergeant Cottone had requested the names and badge numbers of the officers and they complied and gave the information. Officer Aragonés also stated they had their faces covered with masks and it was not very easy to recognize them. When the officers gave their names, Sergeant Cottone recognized Officer Dowling and started calling him Anthony and called them naughty boys.

Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas. Mr. Johnson (manager) spoke to Sergeant Wright regarding the payment of the bottle of water. Sergeant Wright advised the group that the officers would not leave until the group left. Officers Dowling and Aragonés were relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino and they headed back to the station to write the police report.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Anthony Dowling. Officer Dowling stated that he and Officer Aragonés responded to the protest at Regina Pizzeria. Upon entering the pizzeria, he recognized Sergeant Cottone. Sergeant Palomares asked how he knew Sergeant Cottone and he stated she worked at A1 with his father. Sergeant Cottone had asked for the officers' names and badge numbers. When Dowling gave his name, she recognized him and began calling him Anthony. Also stated to him "you don't want to do this, this is not how policing is done."

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at about 3:05 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Sergeant John Wright. Sergeant Wright stated that the police officers at Regina Pizzeria requested a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. He responded and spoke to the manager (Mr. Johnson) and the group about the mandate. The group did not want to wear a mask or show proof of vaccination to eat inside of the pizzeria. Sergeant Cottone asked for the supervisor's name and badge. Mr. Johnson stated that Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone stated that she had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. She decided to place the money inside the tip jar and Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. Sergeant Cottone also tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated. She was also very confrontational with Sergeant Wright at the scene. Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation and he stated he felt disrespected and that Sergeant Cottone made the situation personal. The investigators also asked about the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Sergeant Wright stated that he used prudence to assess the situation because it was the first day of the mandate. He used his discretion and let the group finish eating and let the group leave on their own. He felt that if they had been arrested for trespass it would have turned out worst in the end.

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:09 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Christopher Keaton. Sergeant Palomares inquired what he recalled of the incident on the 15th of January 2022. Officer Keaton stated that he had worked a day tour on overtime at D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station). The duty supervisor requested that he head over to Regina Pizzeria to relieve the day shift officers (Aragones/Dowling). Upon responding to the location, he recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone. Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number. He also observed that the group was eating a pizza. He stated that he felt very uncomfortable with the comments she was making regarding Sergeant Wright's family and comments directed at the manager (Mr. Johnson).

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:21 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Thomas Antonino. Sergeant Palomares inquired if he had responded to Regina Pizzeria on January 15th of 2022. He stated that he had responded to relieve the day units. Sergeant Wright and Officers Aragones and Dowling were on the scene. Officers Aragones and Dowling left the scene to write the police report and Sergeant Wright stayed at the scene. The group consisted of five females who were very rude to the manager (Mr. Johnson). Sergeant Cottone asked Officer Antonino for his name and badge number for the lawsuit. Sergeant Cottone was the speaker of the group and directed derogatory comments toward Mr. Johnson and Sergeant Wright. Once the group was done eating they left the pizzeria.

On Thursday, 10th of March 2022 at 10:00 a.m., Sergeant Shana Cottone had a scheduled interview with Sergeant Lucia Palomares. Sergeant Cottone invoked her Carney rights and signed a waiver. She was legally represented by her own personal attorney William Gans along with Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation. Sergeant Jeanie Carroll and Lieutenant Timothy Kervin were also present as her union representatives (Boston Superior Officers Federation). On that date, she was not interviewed.

A second interview was requested and scheduled for Wednesday, 20th of April 2022 at 11:00 a.m. Sergeant Cottone was accompanied by Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Superior Officers Federation along with union representative Sergeant Jeanie Carroll of the Federation. The interview was audio recorded. Prior to the interview, Sergeant Cottone was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Cottone relayed that she read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo. When asked, Sergeant Cottone reported that her badge number was 325, that her department ID number was 106714, and that she was currently assigned to E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) on the day shift. Sergeant Cottone did not answer investigatory questions and was on record invoking her Carney privilege to all the questions.

Sergeant Palomares has made attempts to contact Kenneth Johnson for an interview regarding this investigation. At this time, Mr. Johnson has not contacted Sergeant Palomares regarding an interview. A certified contact letter was sent to his residence. Sergeant Palomares received the certified letter marked "unable to forward."

As part of this investigation, the investigator viewed all of the officer's body-worn camera videos. The officers (Aragones and Dowling) had responded to a 911 call that was initiated by Kenneth Johnson, the manager of the pizzeria. The officers spoke to Mr. Johnson and he stated the group was not cooperative regarding the mandate and would not wear masks or leave the premises. The officers explained the mandate to the group. If they did not comply with the mandate they would have to leave. That day was the first day of the vaccination mandate policy initiated by Mayor Wu.

The group was at the pizzeria protesting the mandate. The group was led by Sergeant Cottone who was recognized by Officer Dowling at the scene. She also recognized Officer Dowling after she obtained their names and badge numbers for her lawsuit. In the video, she called him "Anthony." She further stated to Officer Dowling that he was being a naughty boy, don't do this, this is not how policing is done, don't walk away from me." The group was argumentative and disrespectful. Sergeant Cottone never identified herself to the officers or Sergeant Wright. The entire time she was offensive, quarrelsome, and challenged the officer's authority at the pizzeria.

When the dispute over the water was brought to the attention of the officers she demanded that the officers not take a police report. Sergeant Wright tried to explain that a police report would document both sides of the dispute regarding payment of the water. She replied "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!” She was belligerent and insolent towards Sergeant Wright and Mr. Johnson. She directed comments to Sergeant Wright repeatedly calling him a corrupt cop.

The matter could have been resolved in a different manner or in a nonconfrontational manner. The officers at the scene had been called Nazis, and Cottone referred to them as “high-steppers” for doing their job and that they didn’t want to do the right thing. She also questioned their oath and duty as police officers because they had to address the group’s behavior at the pizzeria. When she was asked to identify herself for the police report to document the dispute over payment she stated “no.” She demanded that every officer give their name and badge number for her list to sue. She threatened the officers and the manager with lawsuits.

Mr. Johnson stated that he wanted the group to leave, he was just trying to run a business and was following the mandate. He was doing everything that the Mayor of Boston set forth in the mandate. The mandate had gone into effect on the 15th of January 2022 and required proof of COVID-19 vaccination for entry into indoor dining, entertainment, recreation, and fitness establishments. Businesses were required to place a sign at the front entrance and check customers’ vaccination proof upon entry. On the date of the incident, Mr. Johnson was abiding by the mandate and was placed in a difficult position by having to call 911 to address the disturbance inside the pizzeria by Sergeant Cottone’s group.

The entire time the group was at the pizzeria Sergeant Cottone fumed about Mayor Wu. She spoke of leaders acting as tyrants and people think that they can act as tyrants. “This is not normal. Three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys. She does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn’t be in politics.” She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing.” The officers at the scene along with Sergeant Wright never discussed politics and were professional. Sergeant Wright never responded to the unprofessional and disrespectful comments directed at him.

Officers have been trained in the police academy on the rules and procedures of the Boston Police Department. “Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.” Sergeant Cottone’s conduct was inappropriate and unbefitting a Boston Police Superior Officer. Officers have also been trained in the respectful treatment of others. “Employees shall, on all occasions be civil, respectful, courteous, and considerate toward their supervisors, their subordinates, and all other members of the Department and the general public.” Sergeant Cottone did not exhibit any of these qualities on the 15th of January. What was exhibited to the police officers and Mr. Johnson was contemptuous and discourteous conduct.

An officer has opinions. The manner in which Sergeant Cottone expressed her opinions was not within the rules and procedures. “Employees shall not publicly criticize or ridicule the Department, its policies, or other employees by speech, writing, or expression in any manner when such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, unlawful, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

Sergeant Wright utilized his discretion in dealing with the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Mr. Johnson had requested several times that he wanted the group to leave and had stated it to the officers. During Sergeant Wright’s interview, he was asked about the group trespassing. He stated that he used his discretion and was prudent in whether or not to arrest. He believed that it was better to let the group finish eating and they would leave on their own. It was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst to arrest the group for trespassing.

At about 3:20 PM on Saturday 01/15/2022 Officers Aragonés and Dowling in the D201D responded to a radio call for a protest at 1330 Boylston Street (Regina Pizzeria) Boston, Ma. The following is summary of the events that took place not a word for word account:

Upon arrival officers met with the store manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that a group of females came into the store and sat down and wanted to order food. Mr. Johnson stated he asked the group for proof of their Covid-19 vaccine due to the new city mandate. The group then refused to show Mr. Johnson any proof of vaccination. Mr. Johnson stated he then called the police to remove the group due to them not following the new mandate.

*Officers then spoke to the group that consisted of Ms. Shana Cottone and 5 unknown females who refused to identify themselves. The group stated that they were not going to show proof of vaccination and that they bought one bottle of water. Officers spoke to Mr. Johnson again who stated that one of the workers handed Ms. Cottone a bottle of water assuming she would go pay for it at the register. He stated that she did not pay for the water at the register and there is no record of her purchase of the water. Officers attempted to obtain video surveillance to which Mr. Johnson stated the cameras were not working. Ms. Cottone stated that she put $2 in the tip jar for the bottled water. Officers asked the group to leave the restaurant several times and refused. Officers then requested a patrol supervisor to the scene. D909 (Wright) arrived on scene and spoke with the group. The group again refused to leave and officers stated that they were remaining on scene until the group left the premises. An unknown male then dropped two pizzas off to the group at their table and then left the restaurant. Officers Aragonés and Dowling were then relieved at the scene at about 4:10PM by the DT55F (Keaton) and the D499F (Antonino) still accompanied by the D909. Officer Aragonés notified his partner and informed him (Officer Dowling) that the protest was inside. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. Sergeant Cottone requested the names and badge numbers of the officers. The officers complied and gave their names and badge numbers. Officer Aragonés also stated he and Dowling were wearing face masks and were not recognizable. Upon giving the group their names, the female (Sergeant Cottone) started calling Dowling by his first name (Anthony) and calling them naughty boys. Summary of Interview with Officer Anthony Dowling ID# 153152 (WITNESS):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Officer Anthony Dowling provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded interview with Officer Anthony Dowling within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of the Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston. Also, in the room for Officer Dowling was Attorney Bryan Decker representing the Boston Police Patrolmen’s Association.

Prior to the interview, Officer Dowling was given the opportunity to read Commissioner’s Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Officer Dowling relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Officer Dowling reported that his badge number was 5162, that his department ID number was 153152, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the Day shift.

He was asked if he was working on the 15th of January of 2022 at 3:20 p.m. Officer Dowling stated that he was working that day as the D201D with Officer Aragonés and they responded to a protest at 1330 Boylston Street at Regina Pizzeria.

They responded to the location and did not observe any protestors outside. They went inside and observed a group of women with a child at the table. He observed Sergeant Cottone sitting at a table and knew that she worked at E5 (West Roxbury/Roslindale Police Station). Officer Dowling attempted to limit engagement with Sergeant Cottone and the group. They asked the group if they ordered food. There was a dispute over a bottle of water and whether she had paid or put the money in the tip jar. Someone ordered two boxes of pizzas and dropped them off at the table and the group started to eat in front of the officers. Sergeant Wright had advised them of the mandate.

The interaction between Sergeant Cottone and Officer Dowling started when he asked the group if they had ordered food. She asked for his name and badge number. That was when she recognized him and kept calling him Anthony and that he was being a naughty boy and don't do this. Dowling had worked at E5 for 6 months in 2019 and Sergeant Cottone was one of his supervisors. He called for a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. The investigators asked if there was evidence of Sergeant Cottone putting money in the tip jar? Dowling stated that there was no evidence and the manager had informed the officers upon arriving at the scene. The officers were later relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino. It was also stated that the vaccination mandate (proof of vaccination) policy had gone into effect that day and the group refused to show papers to the manager and it was the manager who initiated the 911 call.

This recorded interview concluded at 10:52 a.m.

Summary of Interview with Sergeant John Wright ID# 10746 (WITNESS):

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the recorded interview. Sergeant John Wright provided the following information in narrative form and direct questioning.

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at about 3:05 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph, conducted a recorded interview with Sergeant John Wright within the office of the Internal Affairs Division on the third floor of the Boston Police Headquarters located at One Schroeder Plaza, Boston. Also, in the room for Sergeant Wright was Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation along with Lieutenant Timothy Kervin (Vice President of the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation).

Prior to the interview, Sergeant Wright was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Wright relayed that he read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo.

When asked, Sergeant Wright reported that his badge number was 469, that his department ID number was 10746, and that he was currently assigned to D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station) on the First Half shift.

Sergeant Wright was asked if he was working on the date of the incident and he stated that he was working the First Half shift and responded to 1330 Boylston Street. He stated that the rapid (D201D/Aragones-Dowling) at the scene had requested a Patrol Supervisor to respond to the scene. He further stated that the 15th of January was the first day of the vaccine mandate and there was a group refusing to wear a mask and refusing to provide proof of vaccination. Officer Aragones had advised him of the group. Sergeant Wright passed on the information on the vaccine mandate to the manager of the pizzeria (Mr. Johnson) and the group. There was someone who purchased a pizza for the group. The group berated the officers, ate their food, and then left. He was asked if he knew the white female (Sergeant Cottone) in the overalls. He stated that he recognized her from when she worked at District B2 (Roxbury Police Station) and when they were students at Curry College.

At the scene, Sergeant Cottone asked for Sergeant Wright's name badge number and he gave it to her. She was confrontational with him and called him corrupt. Mr. Johnson (manager) had a dispute over the payment of the bottle of water. It was later determined that the money was placed in the tip jar. She stated to him "don't be wrong Wright." Sergeant Wright called the Duty Supervisor at the station and advised the supervisor that the officers would wait out the group and to please send relief. The officers waited till the group left.

Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation. He stated that he felt disrespected and that when dealing with the public and other officers it should not be personal. She made it personal when she called the officers corrupt with no proof. Sergeant Wright stated that Sergeant Cottone stated that they (officers) were picking on women and a child. The sergeant believed that she was looking for a situation to incite the officers.

The officers waited till the group finished eating and they left the pizzeria. The incident was documented and his commander was notified of the situation. In the incident regarding the water bottle, she had tried to pay the employee behind the counter. The employee had told her that she was all set and she then placed the money in the tip jar as payment for the water. Sergeant Cottone had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. She taunted the Sergeant and another officer who she recognized. Sergeant Cottone tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated.

Sergeant Wright also spoke of the video dispute at the restaurant. He spoke to Mr. Johnson and requested to view the video but there was no video to view to help clarify the tip jar incident. The manager stated that there was no video because the video system was not working. The group was advised several times of the mandate in regards to eating inside of the establishment. No charges were brought against any of the group members. The sergeant decided it was in the best interest of everyone to wait it out and let the group eat their food. He stated that he used prudence because it was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst if arrests were made.

This recorded interview concluded at 3:25 p.m.

Review of Officer Dowling Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Sergeant Palomares viewed the Body-Worn Camera video of Officer Dowling and regarding the incident on the 15th of January 2022 at Regina Pizzeria. The officers had responded to a radio call at 1330 Boylston Street for protestors. Officer Aragon was speaking to Sergeant

Cottone (white female, wearing a cap, overalls, and sweatshirt) and she stated: “why are you here, what is your purpose?” She further stated that the police were not supposed to enforce the mandate, she would not show papers, and that she purchased a bottle of water. Aragonese requested to see their vaccination papers, but the group refused and stated that they would sit there. Dowling called for a patrol supervisor to the scene, Cottone stated to Officer Aragonese that he was violating their rights. She continued by stating that they were violating their rights by enforcing the vaccine mandate and why were they doing that. She later asked for Aragonese name and badge number. Cottone stepped away from the table and the group continued their confrontation with the officers.

Mr. Johnson (manager, black male, 50-60-yrs-old) explained to the officers that he was trying to get them to leave and that he was trying to run a business. While the manager was speaking to the officers and the group yelled out “Nazis” and a black female protester stated “it was a shame black people discriminate and you turning your back on your people. Segregation was started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice.” The officers stated in response, “we just working doing our job.” The group stated “so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis.”

One of the females stated to the officers “your mayor is not my mayor.” Cottone returned to the table and stated to the officers, “if you not going by your oath you shouldn’t be doing this job, you understand. Just working. It’s a cop-out and you on the wrong side copping out to violating our rights.” Cottone repeatedly stated to the officers “you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights of people and you guys are the bad guys.” The officers listened and one of the females stated “Martin Luther King said that it is our moral obligation to not obey an unjust law.”

Officer Dowling inquired if they had purchased the water there, as Sergeant Cottone sat at the table drinking her water. She then stated “this is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don’t want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years!” 14 years of what asked Dowling and she stated “you know that.” Cottone continued speaking and stated, “time to make a choice boys.” “You don’t have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Don’t walk away from me, you don’t have to do this.” Officer Dowling walked away from Sergeant Cottone to keep his distance.

Mr. Johnson (manager) expressed to the officers that he felt that the group was harassing him. He was trying to run a business and explained to the group that he was following the rules. The group did not order food and a person kept calling and stating that my friends were being harassed by the police. The caller also stated to give them the pizza. Mr. Johnson stated that only a bottle of water had been purchased.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to Mr. Johnson and explained that a vaccination card has to be shown or they cannot be served. Sergeant Wright also spoke to the group that if they did not show a vaccination card they would have to leave. Cottone replied that she had purchased an item and was enjoying her beverage and he (Sergeant Wright) was going to leave her alone. Cottone stated that Mayor Wu said that the police would not be involved regarding the mandate and asked Wright what was he doing there. She further stated, "you gonna leave me alone and I am gonna enjoy my beverage!"

Sergeant Wright then asked the employees what time the pizzeria closed and they stated 8:30 p.m., and he and the officers sat down at one of the tables. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonese that Sergeant Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone heard the conversation and stated, "I put it in the tip jar you little liar! You lying!" Mr. Johnson and Cottone argued over the purchase of the water. Cottone stated that I put it in the tip jar and Johnson stated that she did not put money in the tip jar. Cottone demanded that the officers view the cameras. Sergeant Wright and Officer Dowling walk back out to the group and Sergeant Wright stated to the group that the tip jar was for tips. Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee, you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She further stated that she tried to pay but the employee would not take the money.

Sergeant Wright stated to her that they would take a police report and take both statements. She stated "no you will not take a report! Go look at the footage! You are a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying!" Sergeant Wright asked her if she was willing to give her name and identification and she stated "no, I am not!" Sergeant Wright asked Mr. Johnson if he has access to the video and he stated yes. At this point, a female yelled out "fucking liar!"

Mr. Johnson spoke to Sergeant Wright in private and stated that there was no video but that he did not want to say that in front of them (group). Wright headed back to the group and Dowling asked Wright "you know who that is right?" and Sergeant Wright stated "yes." The group stated to the officers that these mandates were not laws. The officers inquired if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the report. Everyone stated no. One of the females stated that her father was a police officer and was shot nine times in the head putting his life on the line and Tommy Gamperts would be disgusted.

The group was left alone and they ate their pizzas. The group kept talking about how Cottone was a hero and how she was being treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. She further stated that she would have a discussion with the North End pizzeria regarding the manager (Mr. Johnson) being a little liar and that she would be suing. She stated, "they know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter." One of the females stated that it's on live video. Sergeant Cottone stated that they will send it to Sergeant Wright and do his job for him. She continued confronting Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people, or help the homeless, he preferred to be with them (group). She further stated that Sergeant Wright was choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert (clear from the call) and that there was no crime at that location. Cottone further stated to Sergeant Wright that he was wasting taxpayers' money and that was in the rules and regulations (Boston Police Rules and Regulations).

She addressed his presence as a "police state" standing there watching them eat as a show of force was intimidating because there were five women and a child and it was intimidating. Sergeant Wright was calm and did not state anything to her. She continued berating him and stated "you should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu has confused you and this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu said the police were not enforcing this." Officer Dowling's video ended and it was 37:00 minutes long.

Review of Officer Aragon's Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Sergeant Palomares viewed the Body-Worn Camera video of Officer Aragon's regarding the incident on the 15th of January 2022 at Regina Pizzeria. The officer had responded to a radio call at 1330 Boylston Street for protestors.

Officer Aragon's spoke to the manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that they (a group of protestors) won't buy anything and wanted them to leave but they would not leave. Aragon's was joined by his partner Officer Dowling. Sergeant Cottone questioned Aragon's as to what was his purpose and why was he there. Officer Aragon's clarified to her that the pizzeria was a private establishment and that if they (the group) did not show papers (vaccination cards) they would have to leave. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's that they were not showing papers. Officer Aragon's clarified to the group that they could not dine in but could order the food to go and would have to leave.

Sergeant Cottone stated, "listen to me, listen to me, you are walking thin line and police are not supposed to enforce the mandate!" Officer Aragon's stated to Sergeant Cottone "you can leave" and the group stated that they can stay. Officers Aragon's and Dowling stated to Cottone that they were not violating their rights. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragon's to call for a supervisor to the scene.

Sergeant Cottone was hostile and warned the officers that they were violating their (group) rights and asked for Officer Aragon's name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's "why are you enforcing the vaccine "passport" and why are you doing that?" Aragon's advised Sergeant Rodriguez on the phone that they had protestors at Regina Pizzeria who would not show vaccine cards and one of them was an officer.

Officer Aragonés notified Mr. Johnson that a supervisor was responding to the location. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonés that there was a person calling about the group. The group leveled comments at the officers regarding choices, opinions, comparing the officers to Nazi Germany, and segregation. One of the females stated, "Nazi's also said doing my job, rights are being violated and your Mayor is not my Mayor." Sergeant Cottone had stepped away from the table and later walked back to the group and sat down. Cottone stated to the officers that they were on the wrong side of this and if they won't stand by their oath they shouldn't be on the job. The officers stated to her "just working." Sergeant Cottone stated "coping out to violating our rights. You're being naughty boys." "History has shown us that high steppers like you trample on the rights of the innocent. You go down in history as the bad guys." One of the females stated to Aragonés "Martin Luther King said it is our obligation to disobey an unjust law."

Did you buy something here Dowling asked the group? Cottone stated you gonna leave me alone and enjoy my beverage. She continues on about "14 years, 14 years. Dowling asked 14 years what? "You know what! Time to make a choice boys. You don't have to do this Anthony, this is not how it's done." She further stated that a classmate resigned and gave away his gun and badge. Cottone stated, "they took my gun and badge a week and a half ago." "You are corrupted by money. This is wrong." Officer Aragonés stated to the group "you are all being recorded and you are all expressing opinions." Aragonés also advised them that he was not threatened by the group.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene Officer Aragonés advised him of the group protesting the vaccine mandate and that one of the protesters was a police officer and they did not order anything except a bottle of water. Sergeant Wright spoke to Mr. Johnson (manager) about the mandate. Sergeant Wright advised Mr. Johnson that if they do not show a vaccination card they cannot be served in the city. Johnson stated that he understood the mandate. Officer Aragonés asked Johnson for his information for the police report.

Wright and Dowling spoke to the group. Cottone was the speaker for the group. Sergeant Wright stated, "we will wait and let her enjoy her water" and asked Johnson what time they closed Johnson stated at 8:30 p.m. Wright advised the officers (Aragonés and Dowling) that they would wait it out.

Mr. Johnson explained the situation regarding the bottle of water to Officer Aragonés. An employee gave Cottone a bottle of water and he assumed that she would pay. She did not pay or put anything in the tip jar. The dispute continued between Johnson and Cottone in front of the officers and the group. Cottone yelled out "he is a liar." Mr. Johnson stated that they (the group) made racial comments and threats toward him. Sergeant Cottone yelled out "don't play these games with me, I tried to pay for the bottle of water and he (the employee) would not take the money. It's like when you get free coffee you put the money in the tip jar."

Sergeant Wright informed her that the officers would take a police report and she yelled back “no you will not take a report. You gonna get the footage, don’t play with me. Don’t play games with me, you gonna look at the footage.” Sergeant Wright requested Cottone’s name for the report and she would not cooperate and kept stating to look at the footage. She stated “You are a corrupt, corrupt man! You are falsely testifying I will sue you. I want the footage.”

Sergeant Wright inquired if Mr. Johnson had access to the video and Mr. Johnson, stated “yes” and the officers walked to the back area of the kitchen. One of the females in the group yelled out “you fucking liar” directed at Mr. Johnson. Another female wanted to know if the police will reprimand the manager for filing a false police report.

Sergeant Wright walked back to speak to the group. Sergeant Wright advised the manager that the police would take a police report of “he said she said.” This angered Sergeant Cottone who stated, “this is not he said she said and you have access to the video.” The group challenged Sergeant Wright regarding the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “bullshit, you’re bullshit!” Sergeant Wright continued explaining that both sides would be represented in the report. Officer Aragonese requested Sergeant Cottone’s name and she stated “no.” Officer Aragonese was gathering information for the police report and Sergeant Cottone yelled out “you can’t take the report, he is not a credible witness, Sergeant Wright you hear me!” Sergeant Wright replied, “yeah I hear you.”

Sergeant Cottone replied “You are a corrupt cop. It is your opinion, not based on observations and you choose to be a corrupt cop. What is your name and badge name?” Sergeant Wright calmly gave his name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone continued being confrontational towards the supervisor and stated “Shame on you, disgusting, you’re a disgrace. You have the choice to do the right thing but you choose to be part of this corrupt system. Officer Aragonese spoke to the employees regarding the situation and the employee believed that she would pay for the water.

The group stated to the officers “your Mayor does not care about you. We stand on your side for you. You are ashamed you can’t look me in the eye. Mayor Wu said the police would not be involved. You are ashamed and you need to take a stand, not personal guys.” Sergeant Cottone stated “you don’t know me, I am a person. Can’t tell us we can’t eat.” Two boxes of pizzas were dropped off at the group’s table. They were taking photos and videos of themselves eating the pizza and the officers standing nearby. She stated, “I want to give a shout out to Eddy Chrispin to stop violating my rights.” The officers watched the group as they ate their pizzas.

Officer Aragonese inquired from the group if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated “they have not done anything to identify themselves.” One of the females stated that her father was a Boston Police Officer and was shot 9 times in the head. She stated “he put his life on the line.” Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “we can’t eat pizza because we’re unclean and unvaccinated people.” Sergeant Wright replied “you are eating pizza right now.” Sergeant Cottone replied, “you wanted to kick us out remember.” Sergeant Wright stated to the female “I knew your father and he was a good man and tell him I say hello.” She stated “he would be very disappointed with you.

One of the females described Sergeant Cottone as a hero and that this was how she was treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it takes one person to make a difference. Cottone further stated that she would have a conversation with Regina Pizzeria headquarters and report the manager (Mr. Johnson) and how he falsely testified against customers. She stated “I don’t want to sue Regina Pizzeria; the manager was lying and they know that I paid for the water.” One of the women stated it was on video in real-time that Sergeant Cottone paid for the water. Sergeant Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to do his job and help others or fight crime. She stated that he would rather stay there with them and waste taxpayer dollars. Sergeant Wright replied that he answered a call for service.

Officer Aragon’s video ended and it was 37 minutes long.

She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civic lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing. Most dysfunctional family I belonged to and I’m not being quiet anymore, going to take my job but I won’t!” As the group started to leave, she states to Sergeant Wright “you will have to tell your kids and grandkids what you did.” “You are corrupt, you are a yes man. ### Investigation Summary:

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:07 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Jordan Aragon. Sergeant Palomares inquired as to what took place at 1330 Regina Pizzeria on the 15th of January of 2022. He stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston street for a protest. He was working with Officer Anthony Dowling in the wagon. The officers walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officers that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. He advised the group that they could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonés requested to speak to the group outside as well and they did not want to speak outside. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonés that one of the females in the group was a police officer and she had been one of his supervisors. Officer Dowling requested a patrol supervisor respond to the scene. Sergeant Cottone had requested the names and badge numbers of the officers and they complied and gave the information. Officer Aragonés also stated they had their faces covered with masks and it was not very easy to recognize them. When the officers gave their names, Sergeant Cottone recognized Officer Dowling and started calling him Anthony and called them naughty boys.

Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas. The investigators also asked about the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Sergeant Wright stated that he used prudence to assess the situation because it was the first day of the mandate. Sergeant Palomares inquired if he had responded to Regina Pizzeria on January 15th of 2022. He stated that he had responded to relieve the day units. Sergeant Wright and Officers Aragones and Dowling were on the scene. Officers Aragones and Dowling left the scene to write the police report and Sergeant Wright stayed at the scene. The group consisted of five females who were very rude to the manager (Mr. Johnson). Sergeant Cottone asked Officer Antonino for his name and badge number for the lawsuit. Sergeant Cottone was the speaker of the group and directed derogatory comments toward Mr. Johnson and Sergeant Wright. Once the group was done eating they left the pizzeria.

On Thursday, 10th of March 2022 at 10:00 a.m., Sergeant Shana Cottone had a scheduled interview with Sergeant Lucia Palomares. Sergeant Cottone invoked her Carney rights and signed a waiver. She was legally represented by her own personal attorney William Gans along with Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation. Sergeant Jeanie Carroll and Lieutenant Timothy Kervin were also present as her union representatives (Boston Superior Officers Federation). On that date, she was not interviewed.

A second interview was requested and scheduled for Wednesday, 20th of April 2022 at 11:00 a.m. Sergeant Cottone was accompanied by Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Superior Officers Federation along with union representative Sergeant Jeanie Carroll of the Federation. The interview was audio recorded. Prior to the interview, Sergeant Cottone was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Cottone relayed that she read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo. When asked, Sergeant Cottone reported that her badge number was 325, that her department ID number was 106714, and that she was currently assigned to E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) on the day shift. Sergeant Cottone did not answer investigatory questions and was on record invoking her Carney privilege to all the questions.

Sergeant Palomares has made attempts to contact Kenneth Johnson for an interview regarding this investigation. At this time, Mr. Johnson has not contacted Sergeant Palomares regarding an interview. A certified contact letter was sent to his residence. Sergeant Palomares received the certified letter marked "unable to forward."

As part of this investigation, the investigator viewed all of the officer's body-worn camera videos. The officers (Aragones and Dowling) had responded to a 911 call that was initiated by Kenneth Johnson, the manager of the pizzeria. The officers spoke to Mr. Johnson and he stated the group was not cooperative regarding the mandate and would not wear masks or leave the premises. The officers explained the mandate to the group. If they did not comply with the mandate they would have to leave. That day was the first day of the vaccination mandate policy initiated by Mayor Wu.

The group was at the pizzeria protesting the mandate. The group was led by Sergeant Cottone who was recognized by Officer Dowling at the scene. She also recognized Officer Dowling after she obtained their names and badge numbers for her lawsuit. In the video, she called him "Anthony." She further stated to Officer Dowling that he was being a naughty boy, don't do this, this is not how policing is done, don't walk away from me." The group was argumentative and disrespectful. Sergeant Cottone never identified herself to the officers or Sergeant Wright. The entire time she was offensive, quarrelsome, and challenged the officer's authority at the pizzeria.

When the dispute over the water was brought to the attention of the officers she demanded that the officers not take a police report. Sergeant Wright tried to explain that a police report would document both sides of the dispute regarding payment of the water. She replied "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!” She was belligerent and insolent towards Sergeant Wright and Mr. Johnson. She directed comments to Sergeant Wright repeatedly calling him a corrupt cop.

The matter could have been resolved in a different manner or in a nonconfrontational manner. The officers at the scene had been called Nazis, and Cottone referred to them as “high-steppers” for doing their job and that they didn’t want to do the right thing. She also questioned their oath and duty as police officers because they had to address the group’s behavior at the pizzeria. When she was asked to identify herself for the police report to document the dispute over payment she stated “no.” She demanded that every officer give their name and badge number for her list to sue. She threatened the officers and the manager with lawsuits.

Mr. Johnson stated that he wanted the group to leave, he was just trying to run a business and was following the mandate. He was doing everything that the Mayor of Boston set forth in the mandate. The mandate had gone into effect on the 15th of January 2022 and required proof of COVID-19 vaccination for entry into indoor dining, entertainment, recreation, and fitness establishments. Businesses were required to place a sign at the front entrance and check customers’ vaccination proof upon entry. On the date of the incident, Mr. Johnson was abiding by the mandate and was placed in a difficult position by having to call 911 to address the disturbance inside the pizzeria by Sergeant Cottone’s group.

The entire time the group was at the pizzeria Sergeant Cottone fumed about Mayor Wu. She spoke of leaders acting as tyrants and people think that they can act as tyrants. “This is not normal. Three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys. She does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn’t be in politics.” She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing.” The officers at the scene along with Sergeant Wright never discussed politics and were professional. Sergeant Wright never responded to the unprofessional and disrespectful comments directed at him.

Officers have been trained in the police academy on the rules and procedures of the Boston Police Department. “Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.” Sergeant Cottone’s conduct was inappropriate and unbefitting a Boston Police Superior Officer. Officers have also been trained in the respectful treatment of others. “Employees shall, on all occasions be civil, respectful, courteous, and considerate toward their supervisors, their subordinates, and all other members of the Department and the general public.” Sergeant Cottone did not exhibit any of these qualities on the 15th of January. What was exhibited to the police officers and Mr. Johnson was contemptuous and discourteous conduct.

An officer has opinions. The manner in which Sergeant Cottone expressed her opinions was not within the rules and procedures. “Employees shall not publicly criticize or ridicule the Department, its policies, or other employees by speech, writing, or expression in any manner when such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, unlawful, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

Sergeant Wright utilized his discretion in dealing with the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Mr. Johnson had requested several times that he wanted the group to leave and had stated it to the officers. During Sergeant Wright’s interview, he was asked about the group trespassing. He stated that he used his discretion and was prudent in whether or not to arrest. He believed that it was better to let the group finish eating and they would leave on their own. It was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst to arrest the group for trespassing.

Summary:

About 10:38pm on Wednesday 06/17/2020, Officer Beggan assigned to the F441F responded to a radio call for a Assault and Battery in Progress at the intersection of Hardy Street and East 8th Street, Boston.

Assisting units on scene were the F411F (Brian Fitzgerald) and F431F(Arthur Fritch).

Upon arrival, officers observed two males standing outside of 2 Hardy Street on the sidewalk. Officers also observed two females and a male on the sidewalk in front of 1 Hardy Street.

Officers approached the two females and a male outside of 1 Hardy Street due to one of the females visibly upset sitting on the curb. Officer Beggan spoke with the reporting party, Mr. Brady DeAngelo, who stated he and his two friends arrived in the area of Hardy Street looking for a lost cell phone. Mr. DeAngelo stated they eventually were able to ping the location of the missing phone to the area of 2 Hardy Street. Mr. DeAngelo stated he and his two friends were continuously walking the premise around 2 Hardy Street then attempted to make contact with the residents. Mr. DeAngelo stated his two female friends began ringing the door bell and knocking on the front door.

Officers then spoke to Ms. Alexis Aggouras, who was visibly upset while sitting on the sidewalk opposite 2 Hardy Street. When asked what had happened, Ms. Aggouras stated she lost her phone after spending the day at the beach and eventually pinged its location to the area of Hardy Street. Ms. Aggouras stated she and her two friends were looking under vehicles, in the street, and around the premise of 2 Hardy Street. Ms. Aggouras stated she believed her phone could possibly be inside the residence of 2 Hardy Street. Ms. Aggouras stated she repeatedly rang the doorbell and knocked several times on the front door in an attempt to make contact with the residents. After ringing and knocking on the door, an unknown male exited the front door of the residence and grabbed her and her friend in neck area. At this moment, the male began forcing Ms. Aggouras and her friend off of the stairs at 2 Hardy Street. Ms. Aggouras denied EMS on scene and stated she did not suffer any injuries. While speaking with Ms. Aggouras, officers could smell a strong scent consistent with the smell of an alcohol beverage mixture emanating from her breathe.

Officers spoke with Ms. Elise Rosen, who stated she was accompanying Ms. Aggouras at the front door of 2 Hardy Street. Ms. Rosen stated she and Ms. Aggouras attempted to locate Ms. Aggouras' phone by attempting to get in contact with the residents of 2 Hardy Street. Ms. Rosen stated she and Ms. Aggouras began ringing the door bell and knocking on the front door. Ms. Rosen stated after knocking on the door and ringing the bell, a male eventually exited 2 Hardy Street and physically grabbed her and Ms. Aggouras in the neck area. Ms. Rosen stated the male physically pushed her and Ms. Aggouras off of the front stairs, yelling in their faces. Ms. Rosen stated she, Ms. Aggouras, and Mr. DeAngelo separated from the unknown male and notified police. Ms. Rosen informed officers she and Ms. Aggouras spent a day at the beach and admitted to consuming alcohol throughout the day.

Officers spoke to Mr. Daniel Fitzgerald, who stated he was suddenly woken up when he heard his doorbell being continually rung. Mr. Fitzgerald stated he then heard excessively loud banging, consistent with the noise of trying to gain access into a locked door. Mr. Fitzgerald stated he was unsure if someone was trying to break in. Mr. Fitzgerald stated he got dressed and quickly ran down to his front door to confront the excessive banging. Mr. Fitzgerald stated he opened his front door, in the darkness, and observed three unknown parties on the front porch of his property aggressively demanding for a cell phone. The three parties began to yell, shout, and accuse him of stealing a phone while stepping closer towards the front door of Mr. Fitzgerald's residence. At this moment, Mr. Fitzgerald grabbed two parties, independently and attempted to escort them off of the property. Mr. Fitzgerald relayed that he verbally demanded the parties to get off his property as they continued to accuse him for stealing a cell phone. Mr. Fitzgerald stated he was able to escort the parties on to the public sidewalk outside of his residence. Mr. Fitzgerald stated the two females involved in the altercation were intoxicated and acting hysterically. Mr. Fitzgerald informed officers that the three parties stated they were calling police to which Mr. Fitzgerald responded "please do." Mr. Fitzgerald stated he was unaware of the situation regarding a lost phone and was concerned as to why three unknown parties were at his front door aggressively shouting and making false accusations.

Officers spoke with Ms. Rosen a second time who stated a neighbor, who resides on the first floor apartment of 2 Hardy Street, stated he located a bag on his front steps. The neighbor, later identified as Mr. Lawrence Norton, stated to Ms. Rosen he located a cell phone in the bag but it was out of battery power. In order to attempt to locate the owner, Mr. Norton began charging the phone. While the phone was charging, Mr. Norton heard a loud commotion outside of his home and exited his residence. Mr. Norton eventually learned he was in possession of the lost phone, and was able to return it to Ms. Aggouras. Officers spoke with both Ms. Aggouras and Ms. Rosen who stated the phone was returned along with the bag it was left in. Both Ms. Aggouras and Ms. Rosen confirmed nothing from the bag was missing. Ms. Rosen also confirmed the phone was possibly dead or shut off due to not being able to ping the location of the phone right away.

Speaking with Ms. Aggouras, Ms. Rosen, and Mr. DeAngelo officers offered to request Boston EMS on scene for a medical evaluation to which both Ms. Aggouras and Ms. Rosen denied repeatedly. Officers asked the parties where they would be staying for the night to which they replied Ms. Rosen's residence in Dorchester. Concerned with both Ms. Aggouras and Ms. Rosen being under the influence due to her own omission, officers offered to drive the parties home. Mr. DeAngelo informed officers he had his motor vehicle on scene. Mr. DeAngelo did not appear to be under the influence of alcohol and was in a safe condition to operate a motor vehicle. Prior to leaving the scene, Ms. Aggouras was visibly upset and stated "I'm sorry" several times to which officers informed her she had nothing to apologize for. Mr. DeAngelo and Ms. Rosen stated they were thankful for the officers on scene and proceeded to return back to Ms. Rosen's residence.

It should be known there was an unidentified male on scene who did not wish to answer any questions. The unidentified male was a white male, about nineteen to twenty-two years of age, with curly dark hair, and a green shirt.

I was notified of the incident after the officers had returned to the station. Officer Brian Fitzgerald told me that Daniel Fitzgerald is his uncle and is also a Boston Police officer, currently assigned to the SORI unit. While the call was ongoing, I was checking the Netviewer system and had actually called Officer Brian Fitzgerald to channel 7 and requested him to call the DS line at 617-343-4737. I asked if they were all set on the call (ie locating victim) and I was advised that they were almost done. At no time did Officer Fitzgerald notify me that the incident was an alleged assault and battery involving his uncle (family) nor a police officer. He told me when he got back to the station, well after the complainants had left the area. He also did not have his Bodycam operating while he was attending to the incident.

At no time did off-duty Daniel Fitzgerald ask for a Patrol Supervisor to respond to the scene as well.

Officer Arthur Fritz responded to assist Officer Brian Fitzgerald and Officer Matt Beggan during the incident. While investigating, he became aware that the involved party that was alleged to have assaulted the complainants was a Boston Police officer.

Cottone (white female, wearing a cap, overalls, and sweatshirt) and she stated: “why are you here, what is your purpose?” She further stated that the police were not supposed to enforce the mandate, she would not show papers, and that she purchased a bottle of water. Aragonés requested to see their vaccination papers, but the group refused and stated that they would sit there. Dowling called for a patrol supervisor to the scene, Cottone stated to Officer Aragonés that he was violating their rights. She continued by stating that they were violating their rights by enforcing the vaccine mandate and why were they doing that. She later asked for Aragonés name and badge number. Cottone stepped away from the table and the group continued their confrontation with the officers.

Mr. Johnson (manager, black male, 50-60-yrs-old) explained to the officers that he was trying to get them to leave and that he was trying to run a business. While the manager was speaking to the officers and the group yelled out “Nazis” and a black female protester stated “it was a shame black people discriminate and you turning your back on your people. Segregation was started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice.” The officers stated in response, “we just working doing our job.” The group stated “so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis.”

One of the females stated to the officers “your mayor is not my mayor.” Cottone returned to the table and stated to the officers, “if you not going by your oath you shouldn’t be doing this job, you understand. Just working. It’s a cop-out and you on the wrong side copping out to violating our rights.” Cottone repeatedly stated to the officers “you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights of people and you guys are the bad guys.” The officers listened and one of the females stated “Martin Luther King said that it is our moral obligation to not obey an unjust law.”

Officer Dowling inquired if they had purchased the water there, as Sergeant Cottone sat at the table drinking her water. She then stated “this is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don’t want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years!” 14 years of what asked Dowling and she stated “you know that.” Cottone continued speaking and stated, “time to make a choice boys.” “You don’t have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Don’t walk away from me, you don’t have to do this.” Officer Dowling walked away from Sergeant Cottone to keep his distance.

Mr. Johnson (manager) expressed to the officers that he felt that the group was harassing him. He was trying to run a business and explained to the group that he was following the rules. The group did not order food and a person kept calling and stating that my friends were being harassed by the police. The caller also stated to give them the pizza. Mr. Johnson stated that only a bottle of water had been purchased.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to Mr. Johnson and explained that a vaccination card has to be shown or they cannot be served. Sergeant Wright also spoke to the group that if they did not show a vaccination card they would have to leave. Cottone replied that she had purchased an item and was enjoying her beverage and he (Sergeant Wright) was going to leave her alone. Cottone stated that Mayor Wu said that the police would not be involved regarding the mandate and asked Wright what was he doing there. She further stated, "you gonna leave me alone and I am gonna enjoy my beverage!"

Sergeant Wright then asked the employees what time the pizzeria closed and they stated 8:30 p.m., and he and the officers sat down at one of the tables. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonese that Sergeant Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone heard the conversation and stated, "I put it in the tip jar you little liar! You lying!" Mr. Johnson and Cottone argued over the purchase of the water. Cottone stated that I put it in the tip jar and Johnson stated that she did not put money in the tip jar. Cottone demanded that the officers view the cameras. Sergeant Wright and Officer Dowling walk back out to the group and Sergeant Wright stated to the group that the tip jar was for tips. Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee, you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She further stated that she tried to pay but the employee would not take the money.

Sergeant Wright stated to her that they would take a police report and take both statements. She stated "no you will not take a report! Go look at the footage! You are a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying!" Sergeant Wright asked her if she was willing to give her name and identification and she stated "no, I am not!" Sergeant Wright asked Mr. Johnson if he has access to the video and he stated yes. At this point, a female yelled out "fucking liar!"

Mr. Johnson spoke to Sergeant Wright in private and stated that there was no video but that he did not want to say that in front of them (group). Wright headed back to the group and Dowling asked Wright "you know who that is right?" and Sergeant Wright stated "yes." The group stated to the officers that these mandates were not laws. The officers inquired if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the report. Everyone stated no. One of the females stated that her father was a police officer and was shot nine times in the head putting his life on the line and Tommy Gamperts would be disgusted.

The group was left alone and they ate their pizzas. The group kept talking about how Cottone was a hero and how she was being treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. She further stated that she would have a discussion with the North End pizzeria regarding the manager (Mr. Johnson) being a little liar and that she would be suing. She stated, "they know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter." One of the females stated that it's on live video. Sergeant Cottone stated that they will send it to Sergeant Wright and do his job for him. She continued confronting Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people, or help the homeless, he preferred to be with them (group). She further stated that Sergeant Wright was choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert (clear from the call) and that there was no crime at that location. Cottone further stated to Sergeant Wright that he was wasting taxpayers' money and that was in the rules and regulations (Boston Police Rules and Regulations).

She addressed his presence as a "police state" standing there watching them eat as a show of force was intimidating because there were five women and a child and it was intimidating. Sergeant Wright was calm and did not state anything to her. She continued berating him and stated "you should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu has confused you and this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu said the police were not enforcing this." Officer Dowling's video ended and it was 37:00 minutes long.

Review of Officer Aragon's Body-Worn Camera Video

Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's that they were not showing papers. Officer Aragon's clarified to the group that they could not dine in but could order the food to go and would have to leave.

Sergeant Cottone stated, "listen to me, listen to me, you are walking thin line and police are not supposed to enforce the mandate!" Officer Aragon's stated to Sergeant Cottone "you can leave" and the group stated that they can stay. Officers Aragon's and Dowling stated to Cottone that they were not violating their rights. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragon's to call for a supervisor to the scene.

Sergeant Cottone was hostile and warned the officers that they were violating their (group) rights and asked for Officer Aragon's name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's "why are you enforcing the vaccine "passport" and why are you doing that?" Aragon's advised Sergeant Rodriguez on the phone that they had protestors at Regina Pizzeria who would not show vaccine cards and one of them was an officer.

Officer Aragonés notified Mr. Johnson that a supervisor was responding to the location. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonés that there was a person calling about the group. The group leveled comments at the officers regarding choices, opinions, comparing the officers to Nazi Germany, and segregation. One of the females stated, "Nazi's also said doing my job, rights are being violated and your Mayor is not my Mayor." Sergeant Cottone had stepped away from the table and later walked back to the group and sat down. Cottone stated to the officers that they were on the wrong side of this and if they won't stand by their oath they shouldn't be on the job. The officers stated to her "just working." Sergeant Cottone stated "coping out to violating our rights. You're being naughty boys." "History has shown us that high steppers like you trample on the rights of the innocent. You go down in history as the bad guys." One of the females stated to Aragonés "Martin Luther King said it is our obligation to disobey an unjust law."

Did you buy something here Dowling asked the group? Cottone stated you gonna leave me alone and enjoy my beverage. She continues on about "14 years, 14 years. Dowling asked 14 years what? "You know what! Time to make a choice boys. You don't have to do this Anthony, this is not how it's done." She further stated that a classmate resigned and gave away his gun and badge. Cottone stated, "they took my gun and badge a week and a half ago." "You are corrupted by money. This is wrong." Officer Aragonés stated to the group "you are all being recorded and you are all expressing opinions." Aragonés also advised them that he was not threatened by the group.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene Officer Aragonés advised him of the group protesting the vaccine mandate and that one of the protesters was a police officer and they did not order anything except a bottle of water. Sergeant Wright spoke to Mr. Johnson (manager) about the mandate. Sergeant Wright advised Mr. Johnson that if they do not show a vaccination card they cannot be served in the city. Johnson stated that he understood the mandate. Officer Aragonés asked Johnson for his information for the police report.

Wright and Dowling spoke to the group. Cottone was the speaker for the group. Sergeant Wright stated, "we will wait and let her enjoy her water" and asked Johnson what time they closed Johnson stated at 8:30 p.m. Wright advised the officers (Aragonés and Dowling) that they would wait it out.

Mr. Johnson explained the situation regarding the bottle of water to Officer Aragonés. An employee gave Cottone a bottle of water and he assumed that she would pay. She did not pay or put anything in the tip jar. The dispute continued between Johnson and Cottone in front of the officers and the group. Cottone yelled out "he is a liar." Mr. Johnson stated that they (the group) made racial comments and threats toward him. Sergeant Cottone yelled out "don't play these games with me, I tried to pay for the bottle of water and he (the employee) would not take the money. It's like when you get free coffee you put the money in the tip jar."

Sergeant Wright informed her that the officers would take a police report and she yelled back “no you will not take a report. You gonna get the footage, don’t play with me. Don’t play games with me, you gonna look at the footage.” Sergeant Wright requested Cottone’s name for the report and she would not cooperate and kept stating to look at the footage. She stated “You are a corrupt, corrupt man! You are falsely testifying I will sue you. I want the footage.”

Sergeant Wright inquired if Mr. Johnson had access to the video and Mr. Johnson, stated “yes” and the officers walked to the back area of the kitchen. One of the females in the group yelled out “you fucking liar” directed at Mr. Johnson. Another female wanted to know if the police will reprimand the manager for filing a false police report.

Sergeant Wright walked back to speak to the group. Sergeant Wright advised the manager that the police would take a police report of “he said she said.” This angered Sergeant Cottone who stated, “this is not he said she said and you have access to the video.” The group challenged Sergeant Wright regarding the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “bullshit, you’re bullshit!” Sergeant Wright continued explaining that both sides would be represented in the report. Officer Aragonese requested Sergeant Cottone’s name and she stated “no.” Officer Aragonese was gathering information for the police report and Sergeant Cottone yelled out “you can’t take the report, he is not a credible witness, Sergeant Wright you hear me!” Sergeant Wright replied, “yeah I hear you.”

Sergeant Cottone replied “You are a corrupt cop. It is your opinion, not based on observations and you choose to be a corrupt cop. What is your name and badge name?” Sergeant Wright calmly gave his name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone continued being confrontational towards the supervisor and stated “Shame on you, disgusting, you’re a disgrace. You have the choice to do the right thing but you choose to be part of this corrupt system. Officer Aragonese spoke to the employees regarding the situation and the employee believed that she would pay for the water.

The group stated to the officers “your Mayor does not care about you. We stand on your side for you. You are ashamed you can’t look me in the eye. Mayor Wu said the police would not be involved. You are ashamed and you need to take a stand, not personal guys.” Sergeant Cottone stated “you don’t know me, I am a person. Can’t tell us we can’t eat.” Two boxes of pizzas were dropped off at the group’s table. They were taking photos and videos of themselves eating the pizza and the officers standing nearby. She stated, “I want to give a shout out to Eddy Chrispin to stop violating my rights.” The officers watched the group as they ate their pizzas.

Officer Aragonese inquired from the group if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated “they have not done anything to identify themselves.” One of the females stated that her father was a Boston Police Officer and was shot 9 times in the head. She stated “he put his life on the line.” Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright “we can’t eat pizza because we’re unclean and unvaccinated people.” Sergeant Wright replied “you are eating pizza right now.” Sergeant Cottone replied, “you wanted to kick us out remember.” Sergeant Wright stated to the female “I knew your father and he was a good man and tell him I say hello.” She stated “he would be very disappointed with you.

One of the females described Sergeant Cottone as a hero and that this was how she was treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it takes one person to make a difference. Cottone further stated that she would have a conversation with Regina Pizzeria headquarters and report the manager (Mr. Johnson) and how he falsely testified against customers. She stated “I don’t want to sue Regina Pizzeria; the manager was lying and they know that I paid for the water.” One of the women stated it was on video in real-time that Sergeant Cottone paid for the water. Sergeant Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to do his job and help others or fight crime. She stated that he would rather stay there with them and waste taxpayer dollars. Sergeant Wright replied that he answered a call for service.

Officer Aragon’s video ended and it was 37 minutes long.

Review of Officer Keating Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Officer Keaton responded to 1330 Boylston Street and Sergeant Cottone asked for his name and badge number. He complied and gave his information to her. Officer Antonino was already there with Sergeant Wright. The officers watched the group and did not have contact with the group. Sergeant Cottone can be heard stating that the manager (Mr. Johnson) must have turned off the phone inside the pizzeria and called him “tyrant man.” She ranted about leaders acting as tyrants and people thinking that they can act as tyrants. She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civic lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing. Most dysfunctional family I belonged to and I’m not being quiet anymore, going to take my job but I won’t!” As the group started to leave, she states to Sergeant Wright “you will have to tell your kids and grandkids what you did.” “You are corrupt, you are a yes man. I didn’t sign up to do this. I signed up to care for people and protect their rights. Maybe if you would have showed up to my roll call leading up to this, you would understand.” Officer Keaton’s video ended and it was 13 minutes long.

Review of Officer Antonino Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Officer Antonino responded to 1330 Boylston Street to relieve the day shift officers (Aragones and Dowling). Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Antonino that because Sergeant Wright brought him there, she would need his name and badge number. Officer Antonino gave his name and badge number to Sergeant Cottone. She yelled out to Mr. Johnson, “manager man, did you turn off the phones because you're being a little tyrant." One of the females in the group was laughing at the statement and stated "manager man did you turn the phone off." She then stated "Tyranny is contagious when they think they can act like their leaders they act like tyrants. Very dangerous, this status quo happens people think that this is normal. This is not normal guys."

Sergeant Cottone stated to customers "guys make sure that you check your receipts cause he (Mr. Johnson) is a liar, he tried to get me in trouble that I didn't pay for my pizza and that he is charging the proper price of the pizza. Officer Keaton arrived on the scene and Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number.

Sergeant Cottone stated "this is not normal, three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys." She then rants on about Mayor Wu and stated "she does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn't be in politics." Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright, "little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people's rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing. The most dysfunctional family I belonged to and I'm not being quiet anymore, going to take my job but I won't!" As the group left, Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright "you will have to tell your kids and grandkids what you did." "You are corrupt, you are a yes man. I didn't sign up to do this. I signed up to care for people and protect rights. Maybe if you would have showed up to my roll call leading up to this, you would understand." Officer Antonino's video ended and it was 20 minutes long.

Investigation Summary:

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:07 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Jordan Aragon. Sergeant Palomares inquired as to what took place at 1330 Regina Pizzeria on the 15th of January of 2022. He stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston street for a protest. He was working with Officer Anthony Dowling in the wagon. The officers walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officers that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate. Officer Aragonés advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. He advised the group that they could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonés requested to speak to the group outside as well and they did not want to speak outside. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonés that one of the females in the group was a police officer and she had been one of his supervisors. Officer Dowling requested a patrol supervisor respond to the scene. Sergeant Cottone had requested the names and badge numbers of the officers and they complied and gave the information. Officer Aragonés also stated they had their faces covered with masks and it was not very easy to recognize them. When the officers gave their names, Sergeant Cottone recognized Officer Dowling and started calling him Anthony and called them naughty boys.

Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas. Mr. Johnson (manager) spoke to Sergeant Wright regarding the payment of the bottle of water. Sergeant Wright advised the group that the officers would not leave until the group left. Officers Dowling and Aragonés were relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino and they headed back to the station to write the police report.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Anthony Dowling. Officer Dowling stated that he and Officer Aragonés responded to the protest at Regina Pizzeria. Upon entering the pizzeria, he recognized Sergeant Cottone. Sergeant Palomares asked how he knew Sergeant Cottone and he stated she worked at A1 with his father. Sergeant Cottone had asked for the officers' names and badge numbers. When Dowling gave his name, she recognized him and began calling him Anthony. Also stated to him "you don't want to do this, this is not how policing is done."

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at about 3:05 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Sergeant John Wright. Sergeant Wright stated that the police officers at Regina Pizzeria requested a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. He responded and spoke to the manager (Mr. Johnson) and the group about the mandate. The group did not want to wear a mask or show proof of vaccination to eat inside of the pizzeria. Sergeant Cottone asked for the supervisor's name and badge. Mr. Johnson stated that Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone stated that she had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. She decided to place the money inside the tip jar and Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. Sergeant Cottone also tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated. She was also very confrontational with Sergeant Wright at the scene. Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation and he stated he felt disrespected and that Sergeant Cottone made the situation personal. The investigators also asked about the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Sergeant Wright stated that he used prudence to assess the situation because it was the first day of the mandate. He used his discretion and let the group finish eating and let the group leave on their own. He felt that if they had been arrested for trespass it would have turned out worst in the end.

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:09 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Christopher Keaton. Sergeant Palomares inquired what he recalled of the incident on the 15th of January 2022. Officer Keaton stated that he had worked a day tour on overtime at D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station). The duty supervisor requested that he head over to Regina Pizzeria to relieve the day shift officers (Aragones/Dowling). Upon responding to the location, he recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone. Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number. He also observed that the group was eating a pizza. He stated that he felt very uncomfortable with the comments she was making regarding Sergeant Wright's family and comments directed at the manager (Mr. Johnson).

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:21 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Thomas Antonino. Sergeant Palomares inquired if he had responded to Regina Pizzeria on January 15th of 2022. He stated that he had responded to relieve the day units. Sergeant Wright and Officers Aragones and Dowling were on the scene. Officers Aragones and Dowling left the scene to write the police report and Sergeant Wright stayed at the scene. The group consisted of five females who were very rude to the manager (Mr. Johnson). Sergeant Cottone asked Officer Antonino for his name and badge number for the lawsuit. Sergeant Cottone was the speaker of the group and directed derogatory comments toward Mr. Johnson and Sergeant Wright. Once the group was done eating they left the pizzeria.

On Thursday, 10th of March 2022 at 10:00 a.m., Sergeant Shana Cottone had a scheduled interview with Sergeant Lucia Palomares. Sergeant Cottone invoked her Carney rights and signed a waiver. She was legally represented by her own personal attorney William Gans along with Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation. Sergeant Jeanie Carroll and Lieutenant Timothy Kervin were also present as her union representatives (Boston Superior Officers Federation). On that date, she was not interviewed.

A second interview was requested and scheduled for Wednesday, 20th of April 2022 at 11:00 a.m. Sergeant Cottone was accompanied by Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Superior Officers Federation along with union representative Sergeant Jeanie Carroll of the Federation. The interview was audio recorded. Prior to the interview, Sergeant Cottone was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Cottone relayed that she read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo. When asked, Sergeant Cottone reported that her badge number was 325, that her department ID number was 106714, and that she was currently assigned to E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) on the day shift. Sergeant Cottone did not answer investigatory questions and was on record invoking her Carney privilege to all the questions.

Sergeant Palomares has made attempts to contact Kenneth Johnson for an interview regarding this investigation. At this time, Mr. Johnson has not contacted Sergeant Palomares regarding an interview. A certified contact letter was sent to his residence. Sergeant Palomares received the certified letter marked "unable to forward."

As part of this investigation, the investigator viewed all of the officer's body-worn camera videos. The officers (Aragones and Dowling) had responded to a 911 call that was initiated by Kenneth Johnson, the manager of the pizzeria. The officers spoke to Mr. Johnson and he stated the group was not cooperative regarding the mandate and would not wear masks or leave the premises. The officers explained the mandate to the group. If they did not comply with the mandate they would have to leave. That day was the first day of the vaccination mandate policy initiated by Mayor Wu.

The group was at the pizzeria protesting the mandate. The group was led by Sergeant Cottone who was recognized by Officer Dowling at the scene. She also recognized Officer Dowling after she obtained their names and badge numbers for her lawsuit. In the video, she called him "Anthony." She further stated to Officer Dowling that he was being a naughty boy, don't do this, this is not how policing is done, don't walk away from me." The group was argumentative and disrespectful. Sergeant Cottone never identified herself to the officers or Sergeant Wright. The entire time she was offensive, quarrelsome, and challenged the officer's authority at the pizzeria.

When the dispute over the water was brought to the attention of the officers she demanded that the officers not take a police report. Sergeant Wright tried to explain that a police report would document both sides of the dispute regarding payment of the water. She replied "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!” She was belligerent and insolent towards Sergeant Wright and Mr. Johnson. She directed comments to Sergeant Wright repeatedly calling him a corrupt cop.

The matter could have been resolved in a different manner or in a nonconfrontational manner. The officers at the scene had been called Nazis, and Cottone referred to them as “high-steppers” for doing their job and that they didn’t want to do the right thing. She also questioned their oath and duty as police officers because they had to address the group’s behavior at the pizzeria. When she was asked to identify herself for the police report to document the dispute over payment she stated “no.” She demanded that every officer give their name and badge number for her list to sue. She threatened the officers and the manager with lawsuits.

Mr. Johnson stated that he wanted the group to leave, he was just trying to run a business and was following the mandate. He was doing everything that the Mayor of Boston set forth in the mandate. The mandate had gone into effect on the 15th of January 2022 and required proof of COVID-19 vaccination for entry into indoor dining, entertainment, recreation, and fitness establishments. Businesses were required to place a sign at the front entrance and check customers’ vaccination proof upon entry. On the date of the incident, Mr. Johnson was abiding by the mandate and was placed in a difficult position by having to call 911 to address the disturbance inside the pizzeria by Sergeant Cottone’s group.

The entire time the group was at the pizzeria Sergeant Cottone fumed about Mayor Wu. She spoke of leaders acting as tyrants and people think that they can act as tyrants. “This is not normal. Three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys. She does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn’t be in politics.” She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing.” The officers at the scene along with Sergeant Wright never discussed politics and were professional. Sergeant Wright never responded to the unprofessional and disrespectful comments directed at him.

Officers have been trained in the police academy on the rules and procedures of the Boston Police Department. “Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.” Sergeant Cottone’s conduct was inappropriate and unbefitting a Boston Police Superior Officer. Officers have also been trained in the respectful treatment of others. “Employees shall, on all occasions be civil, respectful, courteous, and considerate toward their supervisors, their subordinates, and all other members of the Department and the general public.” Sergeant Cottone did not exhibit any of these qualities on the 15th of January. What was exhibited to the police officers and Mr. Johnson was contemptuous and discourteous conduct.

An officer has opinions. The manner in which Sergeant Cottone expressed her opinions was not within the rules and procedures. “Employees shall not publicly criticize or ridicule the Department, its policies, or other employees by speech, writing, or expression in any manner when such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, unlawful, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

Sergeant Wright utilized his discretion in dealing with the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Mr. Johnson had requested several times that he wanted the group to leave and had stated it to the officers. During Sergeant Wright’s interview, he was asked about the group trespassing. He stated that he used his discretion and was prudent in whether or not to arrest. He believed that it was better to let the group finish eating and they would leave on their own. It was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst to arrest the group for trespassing.

He stated that the rapid (D201D/Aragones-Dowling) at the scene had requested a Patrol Supervisor to respond to the scene. He further stated that the 15th of January was the first day of the vaccine mandate and there was a group refusing to wear a mask and refusing to provide proof of vaccination. Sergeant Wright stated that Officer Aragonese had advised him of the group. He stated that he passed out information on the vaccine mandate to the manager of the pizzeria (Mr. Johnson) and the group. He stated that someone had purchased a pizza for the group. Sergeant Wright stated that the group berated the officers, ate their food, and then left. He was asked if he knew the white female (Sergeant Cottone) in the overalls. At the scene, Sergeant Cottone asked for Sergeant Wright's name badge number and he gave it to her. She was confrontational with him and called him corrupt. Mr. Johnson (manager) had a dispute over the payment of the bottle of water. It was later determined that the money was placed in the tip jar. She stated to him "don't be wrong Wright." Sergeant Wright called the Duty Supervisor at the station and advised the supervisor that the officers would wait out the group and to please send relief. The officers waited till the group left.

The sergeant believed that she was looking for a situation to incite the officers.

The officers waited till the group finished eating and they left the pizzeria. The incident was documented and his commander was notified of the situation. In the incident regarding the water bottle, she had tried to pay the employee behind the counter. The employee had told her that she was all set and she then placed the money in the tip jar as payment for the water. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated.

Sergeant Wright also spoke of the video dispute at the restaurant. He spoke to Mr. Johnson and requested to view the video but there was no video to view to help clarify the tip jar incident. The manager stated that there was no video because the video system was not working. The group was advised several times of the mandate in regards to eating inside of the establishment. No charges were brought against any of the group members. The sergeant decided it was in the best interest of everyone to wait it out and let the group eat their food. He stated that he used prudence because it was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst if arrests were made.

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Sergeant Palomares viewed the Body-Worn Camera video of Officer Dowling and regarding the incident on the 15th of January 2022 at Regina Pizzeria. The officers had responded to a radio call at 1330 Boylston Street for protestors. Officer Aragon was speaking to Sergeant Cottone (white female, wearing a cap, overalls, and sweatshirt) and she stated: "why are you here, what is your purpose?" She further stated that the police were not supposed to enforce the mandate, she would not show papers, and that she purchased a bottle of water. Aragon requested to see their vaccination papers, but the group refused and stated that they would sit there. Dowling called for a patrol supervisor to the scene, Cottone stated to Officer Aragonés that he was violating their rights. She continued by stating that they were violating their rights by enforcing the vaccine mandate and why were they doing that. She later asked for Aragonés name and badge number. Cottone stepped away from the table and the group continued their confrontation with the officers.

Mr. Johnson (manager, black male, 50-60-yrs-old) explained to the officers that he was trying to get them to leave and that he was trying to run a business. While the manager was speaking to the officers and the group yelled out “Nazis” and a black female protester stated “it was a shame black people discriminate and you turning your back on your people. Segregation was started on this holiday and everyone has an opinion and a choice.” The officers stated in response, “we just working doing our job.” The group stated “so did the Nazis and you have a choice. You are ignoring your oath and acting like Nazis.”

One of the females stated to the officers “your mayor is not my mayor.” Cottone returned to the table and stated to the officers, “if you not going by your oath you shouldn’t be doing this job, you understand. Just working. It’s a cop-out and you on the wrong side copping out to violating our rights.” Cottone repeatedly stated to the officers “you being naughty boys, history has shown how you trample on the rights of people and you guys are the bad guys.” The officers listened and one of the females stated “Martin Luther King said that it is our moral obligation to not obey an unjust law.”

Officer Dowling inquired if they had purchased the water there, as Sergeant Cottone sat at the table drinking her water. She then stated “this is a waste of resources. I am enjoying my product and I am going to sue and I want your name and badge number. I don’t want to do this but you need to be on the right side of this one. 14 years, 14 years!” 14 years of what asked Dowling and she stated “you know that.” Cottone continued speaking and stated, “time to make a choice boys.” “You don’t have to do this Anthony, I know you since you have been on this job, Anthony this is not how policing is done. Don’t walk away from me, you don’t have to do this.” Officer Dowling walked away from Sergeant Cottone to keep his distance.

Mr. Johnson (manager) expressed to the officers that he felt that the group was harassing him. He was trying to run a business and explained to the group that he was following the rules. The group did not order food and a person kept calling and stating that my friends were being harassed by the police. The caller also stated to give them the pizza. Mr. Johnson stated that only a bottle of water had been purchased.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to Mr. Johnson and explained that a vaccination card has to be shown or they cannot be served. Sergeant Wright also spoke to the group that if they did not show a vaccination card they would have to leave. Cottone replied that she had purchased an item and was enjoying her beverage and he (Sergeant Wright) was going to leave her alone. Cottone stated that Mayor Wu said that the police would not be involved regarding the mandate and asked Wright what was he doing there. She further stated, “you gonna leave me alone and I am gonna enjoy my beverage!”

Sergeant Wright then asked the employees what time the pizzeria closed and they stated 8:30 p.m., and he and the officers sat down at one of the tables. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragonese that Sergeant Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone heard the conversation and stated, “I put it in the tip jar you little liar! You lying!” Mr. Johnson and Cottone argued over the purchase of the water. Cottone stated that I put it in the tip jar and Johnson stated that she did not put money in the tip jar. Cottone demanded that the officers view the cameras. Sergeant Wright and Officer Dowling walk back out to the group and Sergeant Wright stated to the group that the tip jar was for tips. Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated “do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don’t play these games with me. It’s like when they give you free coffee, you put the money in the tip jar. Don’t go down this road. You want to go down this road, don’t play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!” She further stated that she tried to pay but the employee would not take the money.

Sergeant Wright stated to her that they would take a police report and take both statements. She stated “no you will not take a report! Go look at the footage! You are a corrupt cop and you are falsely testifying!” Sergeant Wrights asked her if she was willing to give her name and identification and she stated “no, I am not!” Sergeant Wright asked Mr. Johnson if he has access to the video and he stated yes. At this point, a female yelled out “fucking liar!”

Mr. Johnson spoke to Sergeant Wright in private and stated that there was no video but that he did not want to say that in front of them (group). Wright headed back to the group and Dowling asked Wright “you know who that is right?” and Sergeant Wright stated “yes.” The group stated to the officers that these mandates were not laws. The officers inquired if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the report. Everyone stated no. One of the females stated that her father was a police officer and was shot nine times in the head putting his life on the line and Tommy Gamperts would be disgusted.

The group was left alone and they ate their pizzas. The group kept talking about how Cottone was a hero and how she was being treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it only takes one person to make difference. She further stated that she would have a discussion with the North End pizzeria regarding the manager (Mr. Johnson) being a little liar and that she would be suing. She stated, “they know that I paid for that water and this is a juvenile matter.” One of the females stated that it’s on live video. Sergeant Cottone stated that they will send it to Sergeant Wright and do his job for him. She continued confronting Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to go after criminals, drug-addicted people, or help the homeless, he preferred to be with them (group). She further stated that Sergeant Wright was choosing to be there and could go Charlie Robert (clear from the call) and that there was no crime at that location. Cottone further stated to Sergeant Wright that he was wasting taxpayers' money and that was in the rules and regulations (Boston Police Rules and Regulations).

She addressed his presence as a "police state" standing there watching them eat as a show of force was intimidating because there were five women and a child and it was intimidating. Sergeant Wright was calm and did not state anything to her. She continued berating him and stated "you should go and do your job because this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu has confused you and this is not part of your job. Mayor Wu said the police were not enforcing this." Officer Dowling's video ended and it was 37:00 minutes long.

Review of Officer Aragon's Body-Worn Camera Video

The following paragraphs are synopses and not verbatim accounts of the video.

Sergeant Palomares viewed the Body-Worn Camera video of Officer Aragon's regarding the incident on the 15th of January 2022 at Regina Pizzeria. The officer had responded to a radio call at 1330 Boylston Street for protestors.

Officer Aragon's spoke to the manager (Kenneth Johnson) who stated that they (a group of protestors) won't buy anything and wanted them to leave but they would not leave. Aragon's was joined by his partner Officer Dowling. Sergeant Cottone questioned Aragon's as to what was his purpose and why was he there. Officer Aragon's clarified to her that the pizzeria was a private establishment and that if they (the group) did not show papers (vaccination cards) they would have to leave. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's that they were not showing papers. Officer Aragon's clarified to the group that they could not dine in but could order the food to go and would have to leave.

Sergeant Cottone stated, "listen to me, listen to me, you are walking thin line and police are not supposed to enforce the mandate!" Officer Aragon's stated to Sergeant Cottone "you can leave" and the group stated that they can stay. Officers Aragon's and Dowling stated to Cottone that they were not violating their rights. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragon's to call for a supervisor to the scene.

Sergeant Cottone was hostile and warned the officers that they were violating their (group) rights and asked for Officer Aragon's's name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone stated to Officer Aragon's "why are you enforcing the vaccine "passport" and why are you doing that?" Aragon's advised Sergeant Rodriguez on the phone that they had protestors at Regina Pizzeria who would not show vaccine cards and one of them was an officer.

Officer Aragon's notified Mr. Johnson that a supervisor was responding to the location. Mr. Johnson advised Officer Aragon's that there was a person calling about the group. The group leveled comments at the officers regarding choices, opinions, comparing the officers to Nazi Germany, and segregation. One of the females stated, "Nazi's also said doing my job, rights are being violated and your Mayor is not my Mayor.” Sergeant Cottone had stepped away from the table and later walked back to the group and sat down. Cottone stated to the officers that they were on the wrong side of this and if they won’t stand by their oath they shouldn’t be on the job. The officers stated to her “just working.” Sergeant Cottone stated “coping out to violating our rights. You’re being naughty boys.” “History has shown us that high steppers like you trample on the rights of the innocent. You go down in history as the bad guys.” One of the females stated to Aragonos “Martin Luther King said it is our obligation to disobey an unjust law.”

Did you buy something here Dowling asked the group? Cottone stated you gonna leave me alone and enjoy my beverage. She continues on about “14 years, 14 years. Dowling asked 14 years what? “You know what! Time to make a choice boys. You don’t have to do this Anthony, this is not how it’s done.” She further stated that a classmate resigned and gave away his gun and badge. Cottone stated, “they took my gun and badge a week and a half ago.” “You are corrupted by money. This is wrong.” Officer Aragonos stated to the group “you are all being recorded and you are all expressing opinions.” Aragonos also advised them that he was not threatened by the group.

Sergeant Wright arrived at the scene Officer Aragonos advised him of the group protesting the vaccine mandate and that one of the protesters was a police officer and they did not order anything except a bottle of water. Sergeant Wright spoke to Mr. Johnson (manager) about the mandate. Sergeant Wright advised Mr. Johnson that if they do not show a vaccination card they cannot be served in the city. Johnson stated that he understood the mandate. Officer Aragonos asked Johnson for his information for the police report.

Wright and Dowling spoke to the group. Cottone was the speaker for the group. Sergeant Wright stated, “we will wait and let her enjoy her water” and asked Johnson what time they closed Johnson stated at 8:30 p.m. Wright advised the officers (Aragonos and Dowling) that they would wait it out.

Mr. Johnson explained the situation regarding the bottle of water to Officer Aragonos. An employee gave Cottone a bottle of water and he assumed that she would pay. She did not pay or put anything in the tip jar. The dispute continued between Johnson and Cottone in front of the officers and the group. Cottone yelled out “he is a liar.” Mr. Johnson stated that they (the group) made racial comments and threats toward him. Sergeant Cottone yelled out “don’t play these games with me, I tried to pay for the bottle of water and he (the employee) would not take the money. It’s like when you get free coffee you put the money in the tip jar.”

Sergeant Wright informed her that the officers would take a police report and she yelled back “no you will not take a report. You gonna get the footage, don’t play with me. Don’t play games with me, you gonna look at the footage.” Sergeant Wright requested Cottone’s name for the report and she would not cooperate and kept stating to look at the footage. She stated "You are a corrupt, corrupt man! You are falsely testifying I will sue you. I want the footage."

Sergeant Wright inquired if Mr. Johnson had access to the video and Mr. Johnson, stated "yes" and the officers walked to the back area of the kitchen. One of the females in the group yelled out "you fucking liar" directed at Mr. Johnson. Another female wanted to know if the police will reprimand the manager for filing a false police report.

Sergeant Wright walked back to speak to the group. Sergeant Wright advised the manager that the police would take a police report of "he said she said." This angered Sergeant Cottone who stated, "this is not he said she said and you have access to the video." The group challenged Sergeant Wright regarding the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright "bullshit, you're bullshit!" Sergeant Wright continued explaining that both sides would be represented in the report. Officer Aragonese requested Sergeant Cottone's name and she stated "no." Officer Aragonese was gathering information for the police report and Sergeant Cottone yelled out "you can't take the report, he is not a credible witness, Sergeant Wright you hear me!" Sergeant Wright replied, "yeah I hear you."

Sergeant Cottone replied "You are a corrupt cop. It is your opinion, not based on observations and you choose to be a corrupt cop. What is your name and badge name?" Sergeant Wright calmly gave his name and badge number. Sergeant Cottone continued being confrontational towards the supervisor and stated "Shame on you, disgusting, you're a disgrace. You have the choice to do the right thing but you choose to be part of this corrupt system. Officer Aragonese spoke to the employees regarding the situation and the employee believed that she would pay for the water.

The group stated to the officers "your Mayor does not care about you. We stand on your side for you. You are ashamed you can't look me in the eye. Mayor Wu said the police would not be involved. You are ashamed and you need to take a stand, not personal guys." Sergeant Cottone stated "you don't know me, I am a person. Can't tell us we can't eat." Two boxes of pizzas were dropped off at the group's table. They were taking photos and videos of themselves eating the pizza and the officers standing nearby. She stated, "I want to give a shout out to Eddy Chrispin to stop violating my rights." The officers watched the group as they ate their pizzas.

Officer Aragonese inquired from the group if anyone wanted to identify themselves for the police report. Sergeant Cottone stated "they have not done anything to identify themselves." One of the females stated that her father was a Boston Police Officer and was shot 9 times in the head. She stated "he put his life on the line." Sergeant Cottone stated to Sergeant Wright "we can't eat pizza because we're unclean and unvaccinated people." Sergeant Wright replied "you are eating pizza right now." Sergeant Cottone replied, "you wanted to kick us out remember." Sergeant Wright stated to the female "I knew your father and he was a good man and tell him I say hello." She stated "he would be very disappointed with you.

One of the females described Sergeant Cottone as a hero and that this was how she was treated. Sergeant Cottone replied that it takes one person to make a difference. Cottone further stated that she would have a conversation with Regina Pizzeria headquarters and report the manager (Mr. Johnson) and how he falsely testified against customers. She stated "I don't want to sue Regina Pizzeria; the manager was lying and they know that I paid for the water." One of the women stated it was on video in real-time that Sergeant Cottone paid for the water. Sergeant Cottone confronted Sergeant Wright and stated that he did not want to do his job and help others or fight crime. ### Investigation Summary:

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:07 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares, with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Jordan Aragones. Sergeant Palomares inquired as to what took place at 1330 Regina Pizzeria on the 15th of January of 2022. He stated that his unit the D201D was dispatched to 1330 Boylston street for a protest. He was working with Officer Anthony Dowling in the wagon. The officers walked inside the establishment and spoke to the manager Kenneth Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated to the officers that there was a group inside the pizzeria protesting the city vaccine mandate. Officer Aragones advised the group of the vaccine mandate since it was the first day of the mandate. He advised the group that they could order out if they did not wish to show proof of vaccination but they could not stay and eat without proof of vaccination. Several times the officer requested that the group leave and the group called the officers various names. Officer Aragonese requested to speak to the group outside as well and they did not want to speak outside. Officer Dowling advised Officer Aragonese that one of the females in the group was a police officer and she had been one of his supervisors. Officer Dowling requested a patrol supervisor respond to the scene. Sergeant Cottone had requested the names and badge numbers of the officers and they complied and gave the information. Officer Aragonese also stated they had their faces covered with masks and it was not very easy to recognize them. When the officers gave their names, Sergeant Cottone recognized Officer Dowling and started calling him Anthony and called them naughty boys.

Sergeant John Wright arrived at the scene and spoke to the manager about the mandate. The supervisor also spoke to the group and advised them they would not be able to eat inside without proof of vaccination. An unidentified male walked over to the group and dropped off two boxes of pizzas. The group sat there and ate the pizzas. Mr. Johnson (manager) spoke to Sergeant Wright regarding the payment of the bottle of water. Sergeant Wright advised the group that the officers would not leave until the group left. Officers Dowling and Aragonese were relieved by Officers Keaton and Antonino and they headed back to the station to write the police report.

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at about 10:33 a.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Officer Anthony Dowling. Officer Dowling stated that he and Officer Aragonese responded to the protest at Regina Pizzeria. Upon entering the pizzeria, he recognized Sergeant Cottone. Sergeant Palomares asked how he knew Sergeant Cottone and he stated she worked at A1 with his father. Sergeant Cottone had asked for the officers' names and badge numbers. When Dowling gave his name, she recognized him and began calling him Anthony. Also stated to him "you don't want to do this, this is not how policing is done."

On Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at about 3:05 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Sergeant Detective Paul Joseph interviewed Sergeant John Wright. Sergeant Wright stated that the police officers at Regina Pizzeria requested a patrol supervisor to respond to the scene. He responded and spoke to the manager (Mr. Johnson) and the group about the mandate. The group did not want to wear a mask or show proof of vaccination to eat inside of the pizzeria. Sergeant Cottone asked for the supervisor's name and badge. Mr. Johnson stated that Cottone had not paid for the bottle of water. Sergeant Cottone stated that she had attempted to pay the employee but he did not take the money because she was not wearing a mask. She decided to place the money inside the tip jar and Mr. Johnson was not present for that exchange. Sergeant Cottone also tried to antagonize the officers at the scene. She was confrontational with the manager (Mr. Johnson) and Sergeant Wright kept them separated. She was also very confrontational with Sergeant Wright at the scene. Sergeant Palomares inquired how he felt about the situation and he stated he felt disrespected and that Sergeant Cottone made the situation personal. The investigators also asked about the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Sergeant Wright stated that he used prudence to assess the situation because it was the first day of the mandate. He used his discretion and let the group finish eating and let the group leave on their own. He felt that if they had been arrested for trespass it would have turned out worst in the end.

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:09 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Christopher Keaton. Sergeant Palomares inquired what he recalled of the incident on the 15th of January 2022. Officer Keaton stated that he had worked a day tour on overtime at D4 (South End/Back Bay Police Station). The duty supervisor requested that he head over to Regina Pizzeria to relieve the day shift officers (Aragones/Dowling). Upon responding to the location, he recognized Sergeant Shana Cottone. Sergeant Cottone requested his name and badge number. He also observed that the group was eating a pizza. He stated that he felt very uncomfortable with the comments she was making regarding Sergeant Wright's family and comments directed at the manager (Mr. Johnson).

On Thursday, March 3, 2022, at about 4:21 p.m., Sergeant Lucia Palomares with the assistance of Lieutenant Detective Timothy Gaughan interviewed Officer Thomas Antonino. Sergeant Palomares inquired if he had responded to Regina Pizzeria on January 15th of 2022. He stated that he had responded to relieve the day units. Sergeant Wright and Officers Aragones and Dowling were on the scene. Officers Aragones and Dowling left the scene to write the police report and Sergeant Wright stayed at the scene. The group consisted of five females who were very rude to the manager (Mr. Johnson). Sergeant Cottone asked Officer Antonino for his name and badge number for the lawsuit. Sergeant Cottone was the speaker of the group and directed derogatory comments toward Mr. Johnson and Sergeant Wright. Once the group was done eating they left the pizzeria.

On Thursday, 10th of March 2022 at 10:00 a.m., Sergeant Shana Cottone had a scheduled interview with Sergeant Lucia Palomares. Sergeant Cottone invoked her Carney rights and signed a waiver. She was legally represented by her own personal attorney William Gans along with Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Police Superior Officers Federation. Sergeant Jeanie Carroll and Lieutenant Timothy Kervin were also present as her union representatives (Boston Superior Officers Federation). On that date, she was not interviewed.

A second interview was requested and scheduled for Wednesday, 20th of April 2022 at 11:00 a.m. Sergeant Cottone was accompanied by Attorney Patrick Bryant representing the Boston Superior Officers Federation along with union representative Sergeant Jeanie Carroll of the Federation. The interview was audio recorded. Prior to the interview, Sergeant Cottone was given the opportunity to read Commissioner's Memo CM-10-007 dated January 20, 2010, the Disciplinary Policy Statement. Sergeant Cottone relayed that she read the memo, understood the memo and he did not have any questions regarding the memo. When asked, Sergeant Cottone reported that her badge number was 325, that her department ID number was 106714, and that she was currently assigned to E5 (Roslindale/West Roxbury Police Station) on the day shift. Sergeant Cottone did not answer investigatory questions and was on record invoking her Carney privilege to all the questions.

Sergeant Palomares has made attempts to contact Kenneth Johnson for an interview regarding this investigation. At this time, Mr. Johnson has not contacted Sergeant Palomares regarding an interview. A certified contact letter was sent to his residence. Sergeant Palomares received the certified letter marked "unable to forward."

As part of this investigation, the investigator viewed all of the officer's body-worn camera videos. The officers (Aragones and Dowling) had responded to a 911 call that was initiated by Kenneth Johnson, the manager of the pizzeria. The officers spoke to Mr. Johnson and he stated the group was not cooperative regarding the mandate and would not wear masks or leave the premises. The officers explained the mandate to the group. If they did not comply with the mandate they would have to leave. That day was the first day of the vaccination mandate policy initiated by Mayor Wu.

The group was at the pizzeria protesting the mandate. The group was led by Sergeant Cottone who was recognized by Officer Dowling at the scene. She also recognized Officer Dowling after she obtained their names and badge numbers for her lawsuit. In the video, she called him "Anthony." She further stated to Officer Dowling that he was being a naughty boy, don't do this, this is not how policing is done, don't walk away from me." The group was argumentative and disrespectful. Sergeant Cottone never identified herself to the officers or Sergeant Wright. The entire time she was offensive, quarrelsome, and challenged the officer's authority at the pizzeria.

When the dispute over the water was brought to the attention of the officers she demanded that the officers not take a police report. Sergeant Wright tried to explain that a police report would document both sides of the dispute regarding payment of the water. She replied "do not play these games with me! You go view the cameras right now. Don't play these games with me. It's like when they give you free coffee you put the money in the tip jar. Don't go down this road. You want to go down this road, don't play games with me, and go back there and view the camera!" She was belligerent and insolent towards Sergeant Wright and Mr. Johnson. She directed comments to Sergeant Wright repeatedly calling him a corrupt cop.

The matter could have been resolved in a different manner or in a nonconfrontational manner. The officers at the scene had been called Nazis, and Cottone referred to them as “high-steppers” for doing their job and that they didn’t want to do the right thing. She also questioned their oath and duty as police officers because they had to address the group’s behavior at the pizzeria. When she was asked to identify herself for the police report to document the dispute over payment she stated “no.” She demanded that every officer give their name and badge number for her list to sue. She threatened the officers and the manager with lawsuits.

Mr. Johnson stated that he wanted the group to leave, he was just trying to run a business and was following the mandate. He was doing everything that the Mayor of Boston set forth in the mandate. The mandate had gone into effect on the 15th of January 2022 and required proof of COVID-19 vaccination for entry into indoor dining, entertainment, recreation, and fitness establishments. Businesses were required to place a sign at the front entrance and check customers’ vaccination proof upon entry. On the date of the incident, Mr. Johnson was abiding by the mandate and was placed in a difficult position by having to call 911 to address the disturbance inside the pizzeria by Sergeant Cottone’s group.

The entire time the group was at the pizzeria Sergeant Cottone fumed about Mayor Wu. She spoke of leaders acting as tyrants and people think that they can act as tyrants. “This is not normal. Three years ago, we would have laughed and said not in our country. This is not our country guys. She does not belong in politics, that she is not a leader and shouldn’t be in politics.” She stated to Sergeant Wright, “little tyrant mayor man, we can teach you about people’s rights, give you a civics lesson. Sorry, Wright, you are wrong. There will be a next time and maybe you will do the right thing.” The officers at the scene along with Sergeant Wright never discussed politics and were professional. Sergeant Wright never responded to the unprofessional and disrespectful comments directed at him.

Officers have been trained in the police academy on the rules and procedures of the Boston Police Department. “Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.” Sergeant Cottone’s conduct was inappropriate and unbecoming a Boston Police Superior Officer. Officers have also been trained in the respectful treatment of others. “Employees shall, on all occasions be civil, respectful, courteous, and considerate toward their supervisors, their subordinates, and all other members of the Department and the general public.” Sergeant Cottone did not exhibit any of these qualities on the 15th of January. What was exhibited to the police officers and Mr. Johnson was contemptuous and discourteous conduct.

An officer has opinions. The manner in which Sergeant Cottone expressed her opinions was not within the rules and procedures. “Employees shall not publicly criticize or ridicule the Department, its policies, or other employees by speech, writing, or expression in any manner when such speech, writing, or other expression is defamatory, unlawful, interferes with the maintenance of discipline, or is made with reckless disregard of its truth or falsity.

Sergeant Wright utilized his discretion in dealing with the group trespassing at the pizzeria. Mr. Johnson had requested several times that he wanted the group to leave and had stated it to the officers. During Sergeant Wright's interview, he was asked about the group trespassing. He stated that he used his discretion and was prudent in whether or not to arrest. He believed that it was better to let the group finish eating and they would leave on their own. It was the first day of the mandate and it could have turned out worst to arrest the group for trespassing.

This is ridiculous. Tells them to go to City Hall but then arrested her. So in other words, we just need to all shut the fuck up and let them do as they want. 🤔

RadDad @RadDadNE · 1h ...

What we need to do is start following these cops home. They have addresses and families.

Katie Walker - Poet @KLawson... · 36m ...

Yeah not a solution at all. The fact that you have the mindset to mention the families is concerning. Sorry - but some kid doesn't need to be harassed or in fear due to actions beyond them. And having the intent to go to someone's home because they have "families" is fucked.

Wow that was long. I don't really care about your opinion. Cops who trample on people's rights deserve to pay a price

@bostonpolice just unlawfully arrested Catherine Vitale (@WeThePeople_MA) at Boston City Hall. They didn't say why she was arrested. She was protesting at @MayorWu's presser. Previous to that, Padma Scott witnessed her being assaulted by BPD. #bospoli #NoArroyo #ShameOnWu

Protester Arraigned for Assault on Officer

BOSTON, April 13, 2022— A Dorchester woman was arraigned today for interrupting a Boston City Hall press conference with a megaphone, District Attorney Kevin Hayden said.

CATHERINE VITALE, 31, was arraigned today in the Central Division of Boston Municipal Court on charges of disturbing the police and assault and battery on a police officer. Judge Richard Sinnott released her on personal recognizance.

Vitale and a second individual arrived at Boston City Hall at approximately 12:25 p.m. on April 12 and began shouting into megaphones in an attempt to interrupt a press conference regarding Boston Marathon safety measures. Officers escorted both outside of the building, and they continued to shout through her megaphone at City Hall Plaza.

A crowd gathered around the two, and an employee of an area business approached police about the disruption to employees and customers. The officers instructed both individuals to stop. Vitale instead attempted to force her way back into City Hall by pushing an officer. Officers warned that she would be arrested if she continued, but the defendant continued to push the officer.

"The right to protest and to dissent are central to our democracy and will be protected. Physical assaults, however, are not a valid form of protest," Hayden said.

Vitale returns to court on May 13. She was represented by Steven Topazio for arraignment only.

All charged individuals are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

I reached out to Winifred and she forwarded all of the unredacted 1.1s that she thinks that she had. They are attached. As to the emails, Winifred thought that perhaps they were split up amongst the BPD attorneys for review but she didn't recall specifically.

Hmm... would you mind checking to see if you have a copy saved to your computer? Or looking in your emails to see whether it was you or Winifred that did the redactions? I went through Winifred's folder on our server and I wasn't able to find anything related to an email search for the Straight Pride Parade. If it helps, these are the redacted documents. Let me know if there is a better way to find these.

Thanks, that makes sense. My issue is that I can't tell from GovQA who made the redactions - all I can see is that it looks like you uploaded a redacted copy of the emails to GovQA on 10/30/2020 and that Winifred uploaded the redacted incident reports on 10/30/2020. I don't know if a Logikcull project was created or not, but I would assume that it would be labeled B001110-090919, could you please check to see if one was and then add me to it?

Omar:

For this one, it depends on who redacted it and how. If it was redacted at BPD and the results were produced from a Logikcull project, then the Logikcull project should still exist and you could get it that way. Or, if it was redacted at BPD it is possible the unredacted copy still exists on your network or on the computer of the person who redacted it.

Does this help at all?

Hi Shawn,

In reviewing the GovQA history for the NLG request, I found that we had already provided a redacted copy of emails related to the Straight Pride Parade to the ACLU in Request B001110-090919. It looks like you uploaded it to GovQA on 10/30/2020. Any chance you have a copy of the unredacted pdf? I am working with the NLG to see if we can document reasons for our redactions.

Thanks,
Omar

Hi Shawn,

Thanks for checking. This request is still "open" in that we have been sued, and are trying to sort out what remains outstanding. This should hopefully resolved soon. I believe all I have left to provide are emails from the "straight pride" email search you conducted for me about a month ago, but I will let you know if there is anything else we need.

Best,
Omar

Good Afternoon Omar:

There are three (3) remaining open requests from 2020 and this is one of them. I see from Govqa that you contacted the requester in March in an effort to wrap up the request. Is it still open? If yes, have we been sued? If you recall, BPD asked that I close out all open requests in Govqa if we had been sued.

Please let me know and let me know if it is open and whether there is anything I can do to help close it out.

Thanks.

Public Narrative

Joshua Abrams (D.O.B. 10/19/1987) was told multiple times by officers to move out the road way onto the sidewalk at the intersection of Congress Street and State Street. Mr. Abrams refused to comply with officers orders and instead began yelling at officers causing a crowd to gather around him. Mr. Abrams was actively recording his confrontations with officers as well as pedestrians in an attempt to cause disruption and hostility. Mr. Abrams than began to yell profanities at officers "no justice no peace....fuck the police" exciting the crowd around him. As a result the crowd became very angry with officers and began to become combative. As officers attempted to place Mr. Abrams under arrest he attempted to flee. While officers tried to apply department issued flex cuffs on Mr. Abrams he would not place his hands behind his back after multiple commands to do so. Mr. Abrams was placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Arrest.

Daniel Tuttle (10/02/1992) refused to move out of the intersection of Congress Street and State Street after multiple commands to do so by Captain Danielecki (YB04) and Lieutenant Murphy (TA03). Mr. Tuttle was with Mr. Abrams yelling at officers along with Austin George (D.O.B. 08/17/1998), Nechama Moring (D.O.B. 01/24/1982), and Marisa Shea (D.O.B. 3/08/1986). As officers attempted to place Mr. Tuttle under arrest he ran, officers on scene gave chase and were able to place Mr. Tuttle under arrest after a brief struggle for Disorderly Conduct and Resisting arrest.

Mr. George was placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct after refusing to move out of the roadway.

Ms. Moring was placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct after refusing to move out of the roadway. .

Ms. Shea was placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct after refusing to move out of the roadway.

Sergeant Messina (T937) told Ms. Fulford several times to exit the street and she refused to do so. Sergeant Messina went to place Ms. Fulford under arrest and she pulled away from him. Sergeant Messina was able to place Ms. Fulford under arrest after a second attempt. Ms. Fulford was placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct after refusing to move out of the roadway.

Public Narrative

Please refer to original incident # I192069508.

On Saturday August 31, 2019 the Straight Pride parade & rally took place in the City of Boston. I, Sgt. Ian Mahoney / ID # 10800 / T-903 was assigned to motorcycle squad Mobile Field Force # 1. At 1600 hours the speaking rally concluded. Shortly thereafter Mobile Field Force # 1 was instructed by the U.C.C. to slowly open Congress St. from Sudbury St. towards North St. I along with 8 additional BPD motorcycles then lined up across Congress St. in a line formation. We then began to slowly move forward with our emergency lights and sirens activated. This was done so that any remaining protesters that had been occupying Congress St. would move off of the street so that vehicular traffic could then safely proceed on Congress St. towards North St.

We were able to get to the right corner of the Boston City Hall building (opposite Hanover St.) when protesters then formed a large crowd in front of our motorcycles, preventing us from clearing Congress St. any further towards North St. We then stopped our motorcycles as a group. The BPD Citywide Bicycle Unit was then brought in to move the crowd off of Congress St. using crowd control tactics. As soon as this occurred, the crowd of protesters immediately resisted and began to push the line of bicycle officers back towards our motorcycles. Several altercations then took place which resulted in over a dozen suspects being arrested (please refer to original 1.1 narrative).

When the crowd of protesters originally began to push back, BPD A-1 bicycle officer Stephen Canto (ID # 11890) fell backwards over the front of my assigned BPD motorcycle (2017 Harley Davidson Road King police model / Dept. # 7412 / Mass. municipal police plate # 3). Officer Canto immediately recovered and continued to assist with moving the crowd off of Congress St. Once Congress St. was eventually cleared and open for traffic, Mobile Field Force # 1 staged on Boston City Hall plaza until they were released at approximately 1730 hours. I returned to Special Operations base and left for the day at 1800 hours.

On Sunday morning September 1, 2019 I was contacted by Mobile Operations Sgt. John Conway (ID # 86128 / T-901) who informed me that there was damage to the front fender of my assigned BPD motorcycle. I was on a regularly scheduled day off that day. He forwarded pictures to me via cell phone which are attached to this report. BPD form # 0004 - OPC - 0503 (Report of Damage to Department Vehicle) has also been completed and attached to this report as well. Any further information that may be needed will be provided immediately upon request.

the police and protesters.

During the confusion, several individuals were being placed under arrest on Congress St. Lt Detective Hopkins witnessed a large white male in a green tee shirt and blonde hair use both hands to push a officer from behind to the ground. After reviewing video of the incident, Lt Detective Hopkins was able to ascertain the identity of the officer as Detective Brendan Dever assigned to Area E18.

Lt Detective Hopkins ran toward the suspect (later identified as Michael DOUGHTY) who struck Detective Dever to place him under arrest for ABPO. While running towards the suspect, Lt Detective Hopkins suffered an ankle injury that left him incapacitated but was able to summons several other officers including Sgt Messina to place the suspect under arrest. The suspect began failing his arms at the responding officers and Sgt Messina used his Department issued OC to take control of the suspect with other officers.

Lt Detective Hopkins was assisted to the center island on Congress St to await medical attention.

When DOUGHTY was arrested, I192069386 was used to document the arrest. The arrest and Sgt Messina's use of force report was documented with additional detail under I192069508. Due to Lt Detective Hopkins' injuries, the supplementary report to document this incident involving the assault and battery on Detective Dever was written on 09/11/2019 at Area D4.

Public Narrative

At about 10:30AM on 8.31.19 Officers assigned to the "Boston Straight Pride Parade" made several on-site arrests at the intersection of Boylston St and Arlington St in Boston.

Captain Danilecki, in charge of several bike squads assigned to the event made note of the presence of counter-protest groups that had gathered both inside of, and on the outskirts of, the Boston Public Garden; namely members of "Antifa" and the "John Brown Gun Club." The Captain began to conduct a threshold inquiry on Suspect #1 (Kenneth Kraft). Operating with the knowledge that these groups advocate violence and armed "militant resistance," the Captain began to conduct a pat frisk of Suspect #1 (Kraft) for officer safety. The Suspect then pushed the Captain's hands away. At this point the Suspect was placed under arrest for violation of MGL c265-13D, Assault and Battery on a Police Officer. As the arrest was being affected, Suspect #2 (Benjamin Boyd) and Suspect #3 (Timothy Rego) attempted to interfere with the arrest by pushing and pulling on officers and on the party being arrested.

Suspect #2 and #3 were placed under arrest for violation of the following

- MGL c268s32B, Resisting Arrest
- MGL c272s53, Disorderly Conduct
- MGL c265s13D, Assault and Battery on a Police Officer

The Suspects were transported to District E-18 by the E-13 Wagon to be booked.

About 4:00 PM on Saturday, 8/31/2019, SGT Wood (B906) along with Officer Hooley (B455F) responded to a call for an assault at the Beth Israel Hospital, Boston.

Upon arrival the officers spoke to the victim/caller (Pelkie, Sandra) who stated that she was at the protest (Straight Pride Parade) when the incident occurred.

She stated that she was walking on Cambridge St with another protester (unknown female) and they were arguing with two "neo-nazis" that were marching in support of the parade. She stated that they were arguing with them, but it was not violent or physical. She stated that the "neo-nazi" female threw a cup of ice on the female whom she was walking with. She stated that the "nazi girl" then strikes the unknown female that the victim was walking with, potentially with an unknown object. She then stated that the male who was with the "nazi girl" then also got involved in the affray.

Ms. Pelkie stated that she grabbed the male (who was wearing a mechanic type shirt) by the hair in an attempt to stop him.

She stated that at that point, several police officers jumped over the metal barriers and told her to let him go, to which she complied. She stated that she was attempting to tell the officers who was the aggressor in the incident when a Boston Police Officer pushed her to the ground and she landed on her left wrist. She stated that she heard and felt it break upon impact with the ground.

She then stated that while she was on the ground, the same officer put his knee on her chest area and hit her in the head several times. She stated that she was wearing a helmet.

After she got up, she went and spoke to an EMT who advised her to go to the hospital. She went to an urgent care in Brookline and then went to Beth Israel to be treated for her injuries.

Public Narrative

About 5:00pm on Saturday, August 31, 2019, Officer Warren while working the straight pride parade was injured during an altercation on Congress Street, Boston.

Incident Report

Obtained via FOIA by Judicial Watch Inc.

Case Number I192069422	CAD Incident # P190455737
Report Type Incident Report	Page 3 of 3
Date / Time Occurred 08/31/2019 19:23 to	Date / Time Reported 08/31/2019 19:23

Officer Warren was assigned to the bike unit and was moving back protesters on Congress street when the protesters began to resist. When the protesters began to fight back the officers were taking the protesters that were resisting and arresting them behind the line that was created by the bike unit. Warren grabbed two of the protesters and attempted to pull them behind the line. Some of the other protesters grabbed the two protesters Warren was trying to remove from the crowd and there was a struggle. Warren was knocked to the ground while still holding onto the suspects. When Warren got back to his feet, he picked the protester up by her arm and was carrying her behind the line and felt a pull in his right shoulder. Warren continued to move the crowd back to State street but as the issue started to calm down his shoulder was flaring up.

Officer Warren notified the patrol supervisor SGT MacKinnon of his injury.

Officer Warren was transported by Boston EMS to Mass General Hospital. Officer Warren was seen by PA Jason P Sanchez and Jarone Lee MD. Sanchez did a physical exam and gave Warren tylenol and ibuprofen. It was determined by Sanchez and Lee it was likely a strained muscle or ligament but it could also be a rotator cuff injury. Warren was also advised to follow up with my primary care physician for a further evaluation.

Officer Warren's department firearm (VYP813) and radio (5305) were secured by the district supervisor SGT Morrison at 2100 hours. At that time Officer Warren was relieved from duty.

A copy of this report was sent to MIS at 3-4863.

Public Narrative

About 12:05pm, on Saturday, 08/31/2019, Officer Byron and Officer McGahan while working the Straight Pride Parade observed two males donning homemade barrel shields in the area of Boylston Street and Tremont Street, Boston.

Prior to the event, the officers were advised to monitor the crowd gathered for the event for individuals in possession of makeshift weapons. The officers were informed that individuals in possession of those weapons would have a high likelihood of attempting to engage in disruptive or criminal behavior. It should also be noted, that the Boston Police Department announcement via local news outlets and social media a list of prohibited items that would not be allowed at the event and would be seized if located.

At that time, the officers notified Capt. Danilecki (YB04) of the individuals and he made the decision to approach them and seize the shields. A number of officers entered the crowd to seize the shields. The officers recovered the first shield without incident. The officers approached a male (later identified as Trevor STEELE, suspect) holding the second shield. As the officers approached STEELE and attempted to seize the shield, STEELE pulled away for the officers in an attempt to keep the shield. As STEELE did this, the crowd around him and the officers began closing in and screaming at the officers. The officers forcefully removed the shield from STEELE's possession, STEELE was placed under arrest and handcuffed. Both shield's were seized.

As the officers were handcuffing STEELE, a female (later identified as Riley DONSCHIKOWSKI, suspect) began kicking the officers making a lawful arrest. The officers placed DONSCHIKOWSKI under arrest and she was handcuffed.

STEELE was transported to District E-13 for booking. STEELE was charged with disorderly conduct (c275/s53) and the matter was referred to Boston Municipal Court.

DONSCHIKOWSKI was transported to District C-6 for booking. DONSCHIKOWSKI was charged with assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon (Shod Foot) (c265/s15B) and the matter was referenced to Boston Juvenile Court.

Public Narrative

About 12:15 pm on Saturday, August 31st 2019, Officers Linsky/McMenamy/Walker assigned to Mobile Field Force 4 did on site a suspicious person leading to several arrests at Tremont Street and Boylston Street Boston.

While performing basic crowd control duties at the 'Straight Pride Parade' on department issued bicycles, assigned to Mobile Field Force 4 under the immediate supervision of Captain Danelicki YB04, officers observed a suspicious male located within the crowd located at the intersection of Tremont Street and Boylston Street. Officers did observe a middle-aged white male, wearing a gray T Shirt, gray shorts, and white sneakers, who appeared to be attempting to conceal what officers believed to be a possible weapon. Officers observed the male engaging in conversation with several nearby persons, while pulling up his shirt, displaying what officers believed to be a weapon to said persons. Officers then observed the white male perform several 'safety checks' in which the male touched the object repeatedly to ensure it had not moved from its position located underneath the males shirt and on his right hip.

Per the order of Captain Danelicki, officers entered the crowd to perform a threshold inquiry of the individual. While attempting to engage in dialogue with the suspicious person, a line of individuals dressed in pseudo-military garb, with covered faces and tactical gear, attempted to block officers from questioning the suspect. A physical struggle ensued between officers and several protestors, leading to officers placing the suspicious person under arrest after recovering an extendable baton under the suspects t-shirt on his right hip. The suspect was identified as Louis Sabino DOB 12/04/82.

While officers were affecting the arrest of Mr. Sabino, two individuals were observed attempting to aid in the escape of Mr. Sabino by pushing the officers off Mr. Sabino and pulling on Mr. Sabino's arms seemingly in an attempt to remove him from officer's custody. These two individuals were placed under arrest and were identified as Frederick Meyer DOB 11/19/97 and Gregorio Leon DOB 02/01/98.

In addition, during the arrest of the aforementioned suspects, Officer Linsky performed a threshold inquiry on a suspicious white male, wearing several pieces of tactical gear and pseudo-military garb. The male was observed as part of the line of persons impeding the officers ability to access the original suspect carrying the extendable baton. The suspect was identified as Benjamin Thompson DOB 01/23/90. In addition, Officer McMenamy identified Mr. Thompson as one of the person's Mr. Sabino displayed the extendable baton to. It should be noted that officers observed an abundance of peaceful protestors whose peace was disturbed by the ruckus caused by the aforementioned suspects. While effecting the arrest of Mr. Thompson, a can of Saber Red Pepper Spray was recovered and confiscated for safe keeping.

All suspects were transported by the M205 to District E13 for booking.

Mr. Thompson will be charged with Disorderly Conduct.

Mr. Sabino will be charged with Disorderly Conduct and Unlawful Carrying of Dangerous Weapons.

Mr. Meyer and Mr. Leon will be charged with Attempt to Rescue Prisoner and Disorderly Conduct.

Extendable baton was logged into evidence and secured in the E-13 evidence locker.
