Subject: Commander (first family pet)

Good morning;

Recently, Commander has been exhibiting extremely aggressive behavior. Today; while posted, he came charging at me. The First Lady couldn't regain control of commander and he continued to circle me. I believe it's only a matter of time before an agent/officer is attacked or bit.

He would have bit me today if I didn't step towards him a couple different times. It was bad enough that the agent on the detail asked if I got bit- just so you're aware.
