Thanks for your thoughtful reply, Robin. I am hopeful the decision will be reversed as I recognize the celebration of Jewish holidays should not be seen as a political position, no matter where they happen in the world.

We will be in closer communication with the Lovelight company so that no group feels their beliefs are not welcome.

All the best,
Caleb

It is disturbing to see this Hanukkah celebration canceled in my district – everyone deserves to practice their religion freely without facing intolerance. I stand with the Williamsburg Jewish community, and I urge the event organizers to reverse course.
