Sirs – please see the attached.

(b) (6), (b) (7)(C)

On 6/15/23 at 1029 hours, SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) (SOD/CAT) was bit by the family pet (Commander). The dog bite occurred inside of the Kennedy Garden as SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) was walking from the Residence to the South Grounds, via the Booksellers. SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) had been asked to move the CAT trucks which were parked on the South Grounds adjacent to (b) (7)(E) (per UD, a large vendor vehicle needed to access the South Grounds roadway).

Video of the incident shows SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) enter the Kennedy Garden while Commander, who was off the leash and on the opposite side of the garden at the time, run at a high rate of speed towards SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) jump towards (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) and take (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) to the ground. (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) (grounds keeper), who was also in the garden at this time, put Commander on a leash after the bite occurred.

SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) said that (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) looked around the garden before entering it and did not see the family pet.

SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) sustained an injury to (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) left arm ('deep bite') that reportedly needed stitches. SA (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) was treated by WHMU at the Residence Clinic.

East Wing Tours were stopped for approximately 20 minutes due to blood from the incident being on the floors in the area of the Booksellers.
