Good Afternoon,

I'd like to report an account I follow online. Mark Longo in Pine City, NY. This man takes videos farm animals without water or shelter. He has been showing his squirrel, Peanut in a dirty disgusting room. He's been doing TikTik lives all week. Hes got a pretty large raccoon in what appears to be his kitchen in a small cage. It looks like a very small dog crate. He takes it out during his lives and puts him back in. This is no way for an animal to live. I also believe it's illegal to keep a pet raccoon in NY. He said its name is Fred. He showed it months ago when it was a little baby and she'd for money for him, now it seems fully grown. It's very sad. This dude is not a good guy, he should not be allowed to own animals, def not wild ones. Uses the animals to try to make cash on social media.

He has his address on his website:
37 beckwith road
pine city new york

Please go help this poor animal
